Denise DeBartolo York

OWNER

With more than 25 years experience in the field of sports management and real estate development and operations, Denise DeBartolo York has received accolades as one of the most successful business women in the United States. For her numerous achievements, DeBartolo York was inducted into the National Italian American Sports Hall of Fame in 2003.

DeBartolo York serves as chairman of The DeBartolo Corporation and oversees the Corporation's portfolio, including the five-time world champion San Francisco 49ers.

DeBartolo York, who previously served as Executive Vice President of Personnel and Corporate Marketing/Communications for The Edward J. DeBartolo Corporation (EJDC), was instrumental in the development of the corporation's employee programs and communication tools. Based on her accomplishments, she was elevated to the position of Vice Chairman in April 1994. After the death of her father, Edward J. DeBartolo, in December 1994, DeBartolo York was named Chairman. In February 2001, the assets of her father's estate, including EJDC, were equally distributed between Denise and her brother, Edward Jr., with Denise retaining ownership of the San Francisco 49ers, among other resources and properties.

When the Corporation owned the Pittsburgh Penguins of the National Hockey League (1981-91), Denise was one of only a few female executives in the league. She was team President when the Penguins won their first Stanley Cup title in 1991. During three seasons as Pittsburgh's President, DeBartolo York helped the Penguins post a 113-106-21 record and qualify for the Stanley Cup playoffs twice. She also was instrumental in attracting the NHL All-Star game to the city of Pittsburgh for the first time ever, January 21, 1990. Denise and her father have been widely recognized as the individuals who saved hockey in the tri-state area by establishing a championship caliber organization and drafting star players like Mario Lemieux (1984) and Jaromir Jagr (1990).

In April 2003, DeBartolo York was inducted into the National Italian American Sports Hall of Fame, joining a class that included NBA coach Mike Fratello, Heisman Trophy winner Gino Torretta, former Brooklyn Dodgers pitcher Ralph Branca and former baseball manager Bobby Valentine, among others.

In addition to her business responsibilities, DeBartolo York gives generously of her resources and time to numerous charitable and community organizations, including the recent contribution of $500,000 to the women's athletic programs at Youngstown State University and the development of the DeBartolo Stadium Club, also at YSU. Just this year, she made a significant contribution of $1 million to St. Mary's College for building construction and renovations. As a member of Ursuline Sisters Financial Advisory Board, DeBartolo York assisted in developing and implementing a massive fundraising drive in 1991 for the construction of a new preschool, kindergarten and adult education center. In 2001, Denise took the lead in a second fundraising effort for assembly of an additional school building for inner-city children by providing leadership and several million dollars of financial assistance.

Along with her husband, John York, and the San Francisco 49ers, DeBartolo York was of paramount importance with the Mills Corporation and YMCA being awarded the "Pier 27 to 31" project in San Francisco, bringing affordable recreational activities on the waterfront for citizens of all ages in the Bay Area. She also has given substantial support to many youth organizations in San Francisco. She is a regular contributor, both financially and with support, to numerous agencies in the Bayview Hunter's Point area, including the Bayview YMCA, Charles Drew Elementary School and the Bayview Boys and Girls Club.

She supports the Marie Denise DeBartolo York and the Denise & John York Foundations' intent to utilize grant funds to provide help for the poor, the underprivileged and the needs of children. Additionally, she is committed to the efforts of the 49ers Foundation, helping hundreds of organizations and awarding well over $1 million of financial support to Bay Area agencies, including $900,000 in grants in 2002 alone.

In September 2002, she presented a check for $100,000 on behalf of LISC (Bay Area Local Initiatives Support Corporation) and NFL Grassroots for the creation of a new football field and facility in Crocker-Amazon Park located in South San Francisco.

Continuing her father's tradition of a strong belief in education, Denise has awarded more than $200,000 in scholarships to high school seniors in the Mahoning Valley (OH) through the Edward J. DeBartolo Memorial Scholarship Foundation, which was established upon his death in 1994. Additionally, she is the campaign chairman and major donor for the Youngstown Diocese Catholic Education scholarship league, and chairman of "Operation Education," a fundraising effort by Youngstown's Catholic High Schools. Through her generosity and commitment, she was financially responsible for the Chapel at Cardinal Mooney (OH) High School, among other structures and renovations.

In 1991, she served as the chairperson for MADD's (Mothers Against Drunk Driving) Project Red Ribbon Campaign and is currently involved with the efforts of the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children. She was recognized for the contribution of three additional classrooms and library to St. Charles Elementary School in Boardman, OH. As a major contributor, she is responsible, among other projects, for the new concourse at Fellows Riverside Gardens in Mill Creek Park, located in Youngstown. In keeping with her tradition of commitment and kindness to children, she has made generous donations to Tod Children's Hospital in Youngstown, and with her concern with patients and families of the terminally ill, she continues to be a major supporter of Hospice.

DeBartolo York began her career with The DeBartolo Corporation after graduating from St. Mary's College at Notre Dame. She and her husband, John York, are the parents of two sons and twin daughters.

Did You Know...

Denise is naturally left handed but writes with her right hand. When she was in elementary school the nuns would not allow her to write with her left hand, insisting that she learn to write right-handed. They even resorted to hitting her with the ruler if they caught her writing with her left hand.

John York

OWNER

As Owner of the San Francisco 49ers, John York has been instrumental in guiding the organization through one of the most difficult transitions in team history, rebuilding the 49ers and putting a senior management team in place to run the operations of the franchise on a day-to-day basis.

Since stepping into a leadership role with the 49ers in 1998, York has had to handle a variety of issues to clearly define the vision and direction of the organization. He joined forces with Bill Walsh, John McVay and Terry Donahue to guide the team through a difficult salary cap crisis, one that relegated the team to a 4-12 record in 1999. However, under York's leadership, the 49ers became the model franchise for rebounding from salary cap woes, quickly recovering to a 12-4 mark and postseason berth in 2001. He also is credited with forming a dynamic management team headed by Peter Harris, a highly successful business leader, as team President/CEO.

Aside from his duties with the 49ers, York doubles as President of the DeBartolo Corporation, where he oversees the day-to-day operations of the corporation's portfolio. A member of the Board of Directors, York is essential in steering the DeBartolo Corporation's other business responsibilities while maintaining interests in several other ventures, including an investment firm based in Youngstown, OH and a software systems organization in Nashville, TN.

York, a successful entrepreneur with a multi-faceted business background, has a proven record for developing turnkey operations. In 1982, he founded DeYor Laboratories in Youngstown, OH. From three employees, York molded a 500-person operation with facilities in three states. With revenues between $25 and $30 million annually, his business was considered among the largest in the Midwest. DeYor Laboratories was sold to Corning, Inc. in 1993.

Bringing this expertise to the DeBartolo Corporation, York assumed the position of Senior Vice President/Director of Racing Operations in December 1994. York successfully instituted programs designed to streamline operations and enhance the overall value of the racing portfolio. He developed the inaugural DeBartolo Racing Challenge in 1997, tying together the Derbies at Thistledown, Remington Park and Louisiana Downs for three-year olds. Thistledown in Cleveland, OH and Remington Park in Oklahoma City, OK were sold to Magna International, Inc. in 1999. In 1996, while operating Louisiana Downs, York, along with three other Louisiana race tracks and the Louisiana Horsemen, helped develop legislation to provide slot machines at race tracks. The legislation was passed in 2000. During the process, Harrah's Entertainment made a significant offer to purchase Louisiana Downs. The deal was consummated in the last quarter of 2002.

In addition to his business acumen, York is noted for his generous support of youth activities and education. Through contributions of time and resources, he has actively participated in many worthwhile community organizations. In 2002, the Yorks made a $500,000 contribution to the Youngstown State University women's athletic programs. He serves on the Science Advisory Council at the University of Notre Dame and also was selected to be a member of Youngstown State University's Search Committee for a new athletic director.

York has been extremely active throughout the Bay Area community. He, along with his wife, Denise, and the San Francisco 49ers, was instrumental with the Mills Corporation and YMCA being awarded the "Pier 27 to 31" project, bringing affordable recreational activities on the waterfront for San Franciscans of all ages. Also in San Francisco, he is a member of the Board of Directors for the Committee On Jobs, a coalition of the city's largest private employers who work together to promote good public policy.

York has been particularly active with the 49ers Foundation and the 49ers Academy. With his input, the 49ers Foundation has reached the highest levels of success in its history, distributing more than $900,000 in grants to Bay Area organizations focusing on education, literacy, child abuse and vision in 2002 alone. He is a frequent visitor at the Bayview YMCA, Bayview Boys and Girls Club and the 49ers Academy, where he periodically teaches classes throughout the year.

York currently holds the position of Vice President for the Boardman (OH) Community Baseball Association, an area baseball league for children ages five through 18. He was instrumental in the construction of "Fields of Dreams," a local baseball complex comprised of 20 baseball fields, and has participated in local youth basketball programs as a coach and organizer.

Supporting local education, York was recognized in 1996 for his generosity and guidance in the renovation of the library at St. Charles Elementary School, as well as the addition of three new classrooms in 1997. In the spring of 1999, York donated a new math and science building at his alma mater, Little Rock Catholic High School, which celebrated a grand opening this year. Also this year, he sponsored the medical ethics symposium during the Third National Undergraduate Bioethics Conference at the University of Notre Dame.

A native of Muskogee, OK, York graduated magna cum laude from the University of Notre Dame in 1971. After receiving his doctorate from Stritch School of Medicine at Loyola University in 1975, York underwent seven years of post-doctorate training at such prominent universities as Loyola of Chicago and Vanderbilt. An accomplished writer and lecturer, York has numerous presentations to his credit.

York and his wife, Denise DeBartolo York, have four children.

Did You Know...

For the last 15 years, York, a few of his friends and his children have been making a trip twice each summer to Boundary Waters in Minnesota. Each trip is highlighted by hours of fishing. They fish out of canoes and have to paddle and portage (carry) the canoes everywhere they go. Their trips usually last four to five days and consist of canoeing 12-20 miles, although they found themselves canoeing 105 miles on a six-day trip in 1991. Everything they take on the trip has to be carried on their backs, including fishing poles, food and camping supplies.

Peter Harris

PRESIDENT/CEO

Peter L. Harris, an accomplished businessman and Bay Area resident, was named President and CEO of the San Francisco 49ers July 12, 2000. He is the eighth President in team history.

Harris came to the 49ers with a reputation as a successful business leader, developed over 20 years as a CEO. He is considered one of the creators of what is known today as "entertainment retailing," creating interactive and entertaining experiences for customers while they shop.

He began his career in Southern California at Gemco Department Stores, a subsidiary of Lucky Stores. He spent 18 years with the company, rising to CEO at the age of 36. Gemco grew to $2.2 billion in sales with 18,000 employees during his leadership.

Harris also served as the CEO of FAO Schwarz in New York. He and an investor partner purchased FAO Schwarz in 1985 when the company was floundering. With a focus on the customer and the creation of an interactive retail shopping experience, the beloved toy store chain moved back to its historic position as the world's preeminent retailer of fine toys and gifts for children. The chain was sold in 1990 and Harris remained CEO until 1992.

After FAO Schwarz, he moved back to Northern California where he entered the Silicon Valley technology sphere and became CEO of Accolade, an entertainment software developer and publisher. He helped re-capitalize and re-position the company and built a new management team.

From 1995 until joining the 49ers, Harris served as CEO of The Picture People, headquartered in Foster City, CA. Their business concept creates children's and family portraits in a fun, friendly, interactive mall store environment. He built the company into a successful 300-store chain and sold the operation in 1999 to Hallmark, remaining as CEO until joining the 49ers.

Harris serves on many not-for-profit boards: The George Lucas Education Foundation, the San Francisco Symphony, Palo Alto Medical Foundation, the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce and a private grammar school. He also is active in three non-profit children's wellness organizations.

A native of Stockton, CA, Harris was born December 17, 1943. The oldest of four siblings, he has two sisters and a brother, all of whom live in the Bay Area. Harris prepped at Lincoln High in Stockton, where he was a three-sport athlete in football, basketball and baseball. He earned All-City honors at center and linebacker as a junior and senior.

Harris played football and baseball at Whittier College, where he graduated with a degree in business administration in 1965. He and his wife Jan, have three boys, Michael, David and Richard.

Terry Donahue

GENERAL MANAGER

Terry Donahue, in his fifth season with the 49ers, was named General Manager of the team May 2, 2001. His responsibilities include all aspects of football operations, including contracts, personnel decisions, the college draft, as well as being involved in the daily management of the organization.

Donahue has been instrumental in the rapid and highly-successful rebuilding project that saw the 49ers plummet to 4-12 in salary cap quick sand in 1999 before rebounding to 12-4 and a playoff participant in just two seasons.

The long time UCLA head coach was hired by the 49ers in 1999 as Director of Player Personnel and was elevated to Assistant General Manager prior to the 2000 season. While being groomed by Bill Walsh to take over the General Manager post, Donahue's primary duties included managing the 49ers scouting and draft activities in addition to coordinating the team's pro personnel department. Donahue deserves credit for making adjustments to San Francisco's drafting system, which resulted in a retooled, energetic roster. The highlight came in 2000, when the 49ers landed five starters with their first six picks.

Donahue joined the 49ers after spending three years (1996-98) as the lead college football analyst for CBS Sports. Prior to going into broadcasting, Donahue enjoyed a Hall of Fame coaching career at UCLA. He became the winningest coach in Pac-10 history, posting a 151-74-8 (.665) record during a 20-year (1976-95) head coaching career with the Bruins. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2000.

During his two-decade coaching career, Donahue built UCLA into one of the top programs in the country. The Bruins finished in the Top 20 12 times and cracked the Top 10 five times under Donahue's direction. He registered a 98-51-5 (.653) conference record and guided the Bruins to 13 bowl games, including four Rose Bowls, and five Pac-10 championships. The 98 wins are the most in conference history and included a winning record against every Pac-10 opponent. Donahue had an 8-4-1 record in bowl games and is one of only two coaches in NCAA history to win eight consecutive bowl appearances.

He made six appearances in the Rose Bowl, including one as a player, one as an assistant coach and four as a head coach. He guided the Bruins to three Rose Bowl championships as a coach and was inducted into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 1997.

UCLA produced 34 first-team All-Americans and had 14 players selected in the first round of the NFL draft during Donahue's tenure. He was inducted into the UCLA Hall of Fame in 2001.

The Southern California native went to UCLA as a walk-on and started two seasons (1965-66) at defensive tackle. After graduating in 1967, he became defensive line coach at Kansas before returning to UCLA as offensive line coach in 1971 under Pepper Rodgers. At age 31 he assumed the head coaching position when Dick Vermeil resigned to coach the Philadelphia Eagles in 1976.

Donahue was a starting linebacker at Notre Dame High in Sherman Oaks, CA. After playing freshman football at San Jose State, he attended L.A. Valley College before enrolling at UCLA, where he earned a bachelor's degree in history in 1967. He later added a master's degree from UCLA in kinesiology in '77.

Terry was born (6-24-44) in Los Angeles, CA. He and his wife, Andrea, have three grown children: Nicole, Michele and Jennifer; and two granddaughters, Brooke and Alexandra.

Larry MacNeil

CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

With 18 years of experience in finance and accounting, Larry MacNeil is in his first year as Chief Financial Officer for the 49ers. He is responsible for the management of the organization's business office, budgeting, forecasts, financial reporting, internal controls, partnership tax matters and cash management. MacNeil also works closely with the team's General Counsel with respect to insurance and contract matters, as well as the football operations staff on salary cap issues.

MacNeil's record as a financial leader and problem solver is extensive. After beginning his career in public accounting, MacNeil spent 12 years as a partner with a management consulting firm delivering financial expertise to a broad range of companies across the country. Over the course of his career, MacNeil has worked with clients in commercial banking, real estate development and management, insurance, investment banking, transportation, litigation, reorganization and education. MacNeil is a seasoned negotiator, having executed more than $2 billion in acquisitions, sales and financing transactions.

Prior to joining the 49ers early in 2003, MacNeil was the financial leader for the Glendale Galleria, a $400 million institutionally owned retail/office complex in Southern California (2000-02). MacNeil oversaw the financing and ultimate sale of the property, as well as handling complex negotiations with lenders, investors, tenants and the City of Glendale. Prior to the Glendale Galleria, MacNeil served for 12 years as a Senior Partner with National Advisors, a San Diego-based management consulting firm (1988-00). MacNeil began his career with Kenneth Leventhal & Company, CPAs in Southern California, supervising audit and consulting engagements (1984-88). He earned his bachelor's degree in accounting from the University of Kansas in 1982 and is a licensed CPA in California.

John McVay

VICE PRESIDENT/DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

For more than two decades the 49ers have greatly benefited from the steady and consistent leadership of John McVay, who is in his 22nd season with the 49ers. During his tenure in San Francisco, McVay has helped the organization claim five Super Bowl titles and has been the one constant decision-maker through the transition from salary cap crisis to playoff participant.

As Vice President/Director of Football Operations, he is responsible for managing many aspects of football operations, including contract negotiations, preseason scheduling and salary cap management, among many other duties. He returned to the 49ers in October of 1998 and has orchestrated the team's extensive efforts to get under the salary cap in each of the last five years.

McVay spent 17 years (1979-95) with the 49ers with administrative responsibilities including Vice President and General Manager, Director of Player Personnel, Director of Football Operations, Vice President for Football Administration, Administrative Vice President and Assistant to the President. During his tenure, the 49ers claimed five Super Bowl titles, three with Bill Walsh and two with George Seifert. He was named The Sporting News NFL Executive-of-the-Year in 1989, following the team's fourth Super Bowl.

He came to the 49ers after three seasons with the New York Giants (1976-78) and two years as the Head Coach and General Manager of the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League, where his teams were 24-7 during the 1974 and '75 seasons. During his tenure with the Giants, McVay was elevated to head coach after seven games in 1976, and led the Giants to three consecutive wins over the Washington Redskins. McVay retired from the 49ers February 1, 1996 and returned to the team October 20, 1998.

McVay's coaching career included nine years of high school football in Ohio: three years at Lancaster High, one year at Franklin High and five years at Canton Central Catholic High, where he compiled a 41-7 record.

From the prep ranks, he became an assistant on Duffy Daugherty's Michigan State staff (1962-64) before taking over at Dayton prior to joining the WFL. He was Head Coach (1965-73) and Athletic Director (1972-73) at Dayton, where he led the 1966 Flyers to their first winning season (8-2) in 10 years.

Born (1-5-31) in Bellaire, OH and a product of the famous high school football town of Massillon, OH, McVay was an All-Ohio center as a Massillon schoolboy. He was elected to the prestigious Massillon Hall of Fame in 1994.

An All-Midwest selection as a center at Miami University (known nationally as the "Cradle of Coaches") in Oxford, OH, he played for both Woody Hayes and Ara Parseghian. Hayes awarded McVay Miami's last available football scholarship, and John went on to become a team captain for the Redskins and ironically wore number 49. He is a member of that school's athletic Hall of Fame.

McVay's three sons all followed in his collegiate football footsteps. Jim, the Executive Director for college football's Outback Steakhouse Bowl in Tampa, FL, was quarterback/safety at Dayton; John Jr. played safety for Miami; and Tim, who was captain at Indiana, also played safety.

John, and his wife Susan, live in Granite Bay, CA.

CONSULTANT

Bill Walsh, the man who took over a losing San Francisco 49ers team in 1979 and built it into the most successful NFL franchise over the last two decades, provides his knowledge, experience and eye for talent to the 49ers as a Consultant. He stepped down as Vice President/General Manager May 2, 2001.

Walsh returned to the organization as Vice President/General Manager January 20, 1999 with a plan to correct San Francisco's salary cap problems and restock the roster with young, talented players. Under his leadership, the 49ers landed 11 players in the 2000 draft, including five rookie starters on defense, and have trimmed the salary cap overruns to manageable levels without sacrificing talent. It was the second time the Hall of Famer was able to right the 49ers ship.

Under Walsh's direction the 49ers experienced heights of victory never reached prior to his arrival as head coach in 1979. He was appointed the team's General Manager in 1982 and ascended to the role of President in 1985. During this period, Walsh was responsible for all major organizational decisions. During the 10-year tenure (1979-88), Walsh laid the foundation of success that the 49ers have achieved over the last 20 years, including the beginning (1983) of an unprecedented streak of 16 consecutive 10-win seasons.

Walsh was at the helm of one of the greatest success stories in the history of professional sports. In 1979, he took over a team that went 2-14 the previous season and transformed it into a Super Bowl champion in just three seasons. Under Walsh's direction, the 49ers won three Super Bowl titles (1981, '84 and '88), made seven NFC postseason appearances and claimed six NFC West division championships. He was twice named NFL Coach-of-the-Year (1981, 1984) and was later named NFL Coach-of-the-Decade for the 1980s.

Walsh became one of only 14 coaches in the history of professional football to be elected to the Hall of Fame, when he was enshrined in 1993. He compiled a .617 winning percentage with a 102-63-1 career record that included 10 wins in 14 postseason games. He was the first coach in team history to reach the 100-win plateau.

Walsh's first collegiate head coaching job came at Stanford in 1977, where he directed the Cardinal to a 17-7 record and captured wins in the Bluebonnet and Sun Bowls during his two-year tenure. Walsh returned to Stanford in 1992 and promptly led the Cardinal to a 10-3 record that concluded with a New Year's Day win over Penn State in the Blockbuster Bowl. It was the school's first New Year's Day bowl game victory in 21 years. He remained at Stanford through the 1994 season.

In 1994, Walsh was instrumental in the establishment and management of the World League of American Football, now known as NFL Europe. He has continued to serve the league as a consultant and representative in various NFL ventures.

Walsh's impact on the coaching industry is apparent by the rise of former assistants, players and people who have come under his influence, including Dennis Green, Mike Holmgren, Mike Shanahan, Ray Rhodes, Jeff Fisher, Sam Wyche, Rod Dowhower, Bruce Coslet, Sherman Lewis, Brian Billick, Gary Kubiak, George Seifert, Jon Gruden, Paul Hackett, Tom Holmoe, Dwaine Board, Bobb McKittrick, Bill McPherson, Tom Rathman, Harry Sydney and Tom Lovat.

In 1987, Walsh created the Minority Coaching Fellowship program that has produced, among others, Notre Dame's current head coach, Tyronne Willingham, Cincinnati Bengals current head coach, Marvin Lewis and NFL assistants Bobby Turner, Don Martin, Don Treadwell and Al Simmons, current assistant secondary/cornerbacks coach of the 49ers. The NFL later adopted this Fellowship as a league-wide program.

After 10 seasons with San Francisco, Walsh joined NBC Sports in 1989 and teamed with award-winning announcer Dick Enberg for three seasons as the network's top analyst on NFL and Notre Dame telecasts.

Walsh earned a bachelor's degree (1955) and a master's in education (1959) from San Jose State. He is the author of two books, Finding the Winning Edge and Building a Champion.

Walsh and his wife, Geri, are the parents of three grown children: Steve, Craig and Elizabeth.

VICE PRESIDENT OF BUSINESS AFFAIRS/GENERAL COUNSEL

Edward T. Goines is in his third season as Vice President of Business Affairs and General Counsel for the 49ers. Goines oversees the 49ers legal, risk and insurance matters, provides strategic counsel to senior management and assists in expanding the team's sales and marketing relationships. Goines reviews, analyzes and assists in the structuring of commercial relationships with the team's marketing partners, local broadcast partners and other service providers. Additionally, Goines serves as legal counsel to the team's non-profit charitable entity, the 49ers Foundation.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Goines spent more than 10 years in senior positions in the legal and business affairs departments of several industry-leading companies, including Ticketmaster, Mattel, Inc. and Major League Soccer, L.L.C. In 2000, Goines served as Vice President, Assistant General Counsel and Chief Privacy Officer of Ticketmaster Corporation. While at Ticketmaster, Goines was responsible for the legal and business aspects of the company's online ticketing operations and established the ticketing company's online consumer privacy standards.

From 1997-00, Goines was senior counsel for Mattel, Inc., principally involved in negotiating and drafting license and sponsorship agreements relating to Mattel toys and software products involving the Barbie and Hot Wheels brands. He also managed the international prosecution and enforcement of Mattel's trademarks and copyrights. In 1996-97, Goines was in-house counsel for Major League Soccer, responsible for structuring the soccer league's licensing and sponsorship arrangements and leading its trademark and copyright anti-counterfeiting efforts.

In 1992, Goines began his legal career in the Los Angeles office of the Cleveland, OH based national law firm of Baker and Hostetler. He is a graduate of the UC Berkeley-Boalt Hall School of Law and a 1988 graduate of Stanford University, where he received a degree in political science. Goines was born (12-29-65) in Hot Springs, AR. He is single and resides in Foster City, CA.

Bill McPherson

PERSONNEL CONSULTANT

After 24 years of service for the 49ers as a coach (20) and director of pro personnel (4), Bill McPherson scaled back his duties in June 2003 and will serve as a personnel consultant. He will advise the personnel department.

McPherson served 20 years (1979-98) as an assistant coach for the 49ers. One of the most respected teachers in the game, his coaching capacities included assistant head coach, linebackers coach, defensive line coach, defensive coordinator and defensive assistant. He was the director of pro personnel from 1999-02.

A defensive tackle at Santa Clara in the early '50s, McPherson began coaching in 1956 at his high school alma mater, San Jose's Bellarmine Prep (1956-62), following U.S. Army service in Korea.

He later was the defensive coordinator and defensive line coach at Santa Clara for 12 years (1963-74) before moving to UCLA as defensive line coach (1975-77).

At UCLA, he worked with Dick Vermeil, whom he later joined as an assistant with the Philadelphia Eagles (1978) as linebackers coach for one year before joining the 49ers in 1979.

"Mac" was inducted into Santa Clara's Athletic Hall of Fame as a player and coach (1984) and was appointed to the University's Board of Fellows in 1989. He holds a business degree from Santa Clara ('54) and a teacher's certification (secondary degree) from San Jose State ('58).

Born (10-24-31) in Santa Clara, CA, Bill and his wife, Elsie, have five grown children: Michael, Claire, Joanne, Marianne and Patrick, who is the quarterbacks coach for the Denver Broncos. The couple lives in San Jose, CA.

Dominic Corsell

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Dominic Corsell is in his 13th year with the San Francisco 49ers and his second as Assistant Director of Football Operations. Prior to being elevated to his current role, Corsell served as the team's Salary Cap Coordinator for eight years.

Corsell is responsible for the management and strategic planning of the 49ers salary cap and roster, while serving as the liaison between football operations and the team's business office. He is one of the team's primary player contract negotiators and serves as a conduit between the 49ers and NFL Management Council and Players Association.

In addition to managing the cap, Corsell is responsible for the research of player movement and contract developments within the league in order to forecast league market values and trends. He also assists General Manager Terry Donahue and Director of Football Operations John McVay with general football management duties.

Corsell spent six years working for the DeBartolo Corporation as an audit supervisor before joining the 49ers business office in 1990. He is a 1984 graduate of Youngstown State University with a bachelor's degree in business administration and accounting.

Born (8-11-61) in Youngstown, OH, Dominic and his wife, Donna, reside in San Jose, CA.

Terry Tumey

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

With an extensive background in football and advanced experience in business, Terry Tumey has excelled in his role as Assistant Director of Football Administration for the 49ers.

After spending two years as a personnel assistant (2001-02), evaluating talent and scouting opponents, Tumey was elevated to his current role in March 2003. While maintaining a voice in personnel, Tumey is responsible for managing the budgets and financing for the football operations department, including the training room, video department, strength and conditioning and equipment room. He also assists in the coordination and management of training camp.

Tumey's experience in business is substantial, having worked as senior associate for Coopers & Lybrand (1993-94), where he analyzed and advised on corporate relocation strategies among many other duties. He served as a capital planning manager for Panda Management Company in Pasadena (1994-95), developing marketing plans and analyzing the viability of potential restaurant sites. From 1988-90, Tumey gained experience in real estate as an assistant project manager for Griffin Homes in Calabasas (1988-89) and as project manager with Crescent Bay Company in Santa Monica (1989-90).

Prior to coming to San Francisco in 2001, Tumey spent two years as a defensive assistant coach (1999-00) for the Denver Broncos. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, UCLA, in 1992 and later joined the Bruins staff full-time in 1995, serving as the defensive line coach for four years (1995-98).

A three-time All-Pac-10 first-team choice as a nose guard at UCLA (1985-87), Tumey helped the Bruins win four bowl games, compile a record of 36-10-2 and finish ranked in the top 10 three times during his four-year career.

Tumey earned his bachelor's degree in political science in 1988 and returned to UCLA's Andersen School of Business where he received a master's in business administration in 1993.

A native of Tulsa, OK, Tumey and his wife, Candace, reside in Piedmont, CA with their daughter Cameron.

MARIE P. DeBARTOLO SPORTS CENTRE

In loving memory of their mother, Marie P. DeBartolo, San Francisco 49ers Owner Denise DeBartolo York and her brother, Edward J. DeBartolo Jr., dedicated the team's training facility and office complex to her in August of 1988.

Situated on an 11-acre site in Santa Clara, CA (approximately 40 miles south of the stadium), the complex provides players, coaches and staff with all the necessary components for daily practices, weekly game preparations and general overall operations in one functional, state-of-the-art setting.

From its master blueprint to the smallest of details, the facility exemplifies the DeBartolos' strive for perfection and drive for superiority. It also reflects their dedication to the organization and first-class standard for operating procedures.

Three natural grass practice fields, with underground drainage and watering systems, allow for workouts in all Northern California weather conditions.

A two-story, 52,000 square-foot building (more than three times the space the 49ers had in Redwood City) houses all offices and facilities with the exception of the ticket and stadium operations. Located upstairs at the facility are offices for coaches, administration, sales and marketing, business operations, public and community relations, pro scouting and college scouting.

The ground floor contains a spacious dressing room area with 60 permanent lockers and allocations for extra (portable) lockers to be used during mini-camps and training camp when squads are larger.

A well-equipped weight room and training area downstairs accommodates both preventative and rehabilitative conditioning. A 30-by-40-foot hydro-therapy indoor swimming pool is also available.

Also located downstairs are numerous meeting rooms, each featuring a digital projection unit, allowing players and coaches the opportunity to analyze previous games, practice sessions and upcoming opponents.

Media facilities include two interview rooms, a sizable workroom, alongside a 120-seat auditorium and conference room (wired for live television broadcasts from the site), making the set-up ideally suited for weekly press conference coverage and daily reporting duties. Located just outside the media workroom is a canopied patio area used for team meals, press luncheons and other team-related activities.

UNBEAT-A-BOWL

With a 5-0 mark in the Super Bowl, the 49ers own the best record in the history of the NFL's biggest game. San Francisco is one of five unbeaten teams in Super Bowl play, and the only unbeaten in multiple appearances. The Chicago Bears, New York Jets, Baltimore Ravens and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers are each 1-0. The 49ers are 5-1 in league title games if you count the 21-7 loss to Cleveland in the 1949 AAFC Championship Game.

Dennis Erickson HEAD COACH

Dennis Erickson enters his first season as head coach of the San Francisco 49ers. He is the 14th head coach in team history. Erickson is no stranger to coaching success, posting a career record of 175-90-1 in the collegiate and professional ranks.

In his 17 years as a collegiate head coach, Erickson produced an impressive record of 144-57-1. He joins the 49ers after spending four years at Oregon State, where he led the team to a 31-17 record. Erickson breathed new life into the Beavers program to the tune of three bowl berths in four seasons and a No. 4 final ranking in 2000. During the 2000 campaign, he guided OSU to an 11-1 record, a Pac-10 Conference co-championship and a 41-9 victory over Notre Dame in the Fiesta Bowl. It marked the Beavers first ever 11-win season and first Conference title since 1964.

For his efforts in 2000, Erickson was named National Coach-of-the-Year by The Sporting News and garnered Pac-10 Coach-of-the-Year honors. In 1999, Erickson led OSU to a 7-4 regular season record (7-5 overall), the first winning season for the Beavers since 1970.

A proven winner in each of his four college head coaching jobs, Erickson has been named Coach of the Year in three different conferences—Big Sky, Pac-10 and Big East. He reached 100 career wins in his 137th game, becoming the third fastest to reach that plateau among Division I head coaches who were active in 1994, trailing Penn State's Joe Paterno (122 games) and former Nebraska coach Tom Osborne (126 games).

Erickson also had successful coaching stints at the University of Idaho (32-15), Wyoming (6-6) and Washington State (12-10-1). However, most of his success occurred as head coach at the University of Miami, where Erickson rewrote the record books.

During Erickson's six-year stint with the Hurricanes, he compiled an NCAA-best record of 63-9 (.875), which included a 35-2 home mark at the Orange Bowl. In 1989, he became only the second head coach in NCAA history to win a National Championship in his first season at a school. Erickson is also one of 15 head coaches in NCAA history to have won more than one National Championship during his career, leading Miami to national titles in 1989 and 1991. His 1989 team produced an 11-1 record, while his 1991 squad went undefeated at 12-0.

After leading Miami to a 10-2 record and No. 6 national ranking in 1994, Erickson accepted the head coaching position for the Seattle Seahawks. He took over a team that had posted a 14-34 record in the three years prior to his arrival—the second worst mark in the NFL during that period. The improvement was dramatic and immediate. During his four seasons in Seattle (1995-98) Erickson produced a record of 31-33 (.484), finishing 8-8 three times and 7-9 in 1996, the best mark in Seattle since a 9-7 finish in 1990. In 1997, Erickson's high-powered offense ranked third in the NFL overall and led the league in passing with 274.4 yards per game.

Erickson was a three-year starter at quarterback at Montana State from 1966-68, twice earning first-team All-Big Sky Conference honors in 1967 and '68. He was also named honorable mention All-America as a senior. He set Montana State records for career total offense (3,945 yards), career passing yards (3,181), passing yards in a single season (1,189 in 1968), passing yards in a single game (282 vs. Montana), while ranking second all-time with 126 points and 21 touchdowns. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1968. Born 3-24-47 in Everett, WA, Dennis and his wife, Marilyn, have two sons, Bryce and Ryan.

Erickson's coaching background: 1971-73 (Montana State), 1974-75 (Idaho), 1976-78 (Fresno State), 1979-81 (San Jose State), 1982-85 (Idaho), 1986 (Wyoming), 1987-88 (Washington State), 1989-94 (University of Miami), 1995-98 (Seattle Seahawks), 1999-02 (Oregon State), 2003 (49ers).

RECORD SEASON

In 2000 Erickson led Oregon State to its first Pac-10 conference title since 1964 and OSU's first-ever 11-win season. With a school-record 11-1 season, the Beavers were awarded a berth in the Fiesta Bowl. Erickson was named National Coach-of-the-Year by The Sporting News and Coach-of-the-Year in the Pac-10 Conference.

JERRY ATTAWAY PHYSICAL DEVELOPMENT COORDINATOR

Now entering his third decade with the San Francisco 49ers, Jerry Attaway begins his 21st season as coordinator for physical development, supervising the team's weight/exercise training, injury rehabilitation, as well as the dietary/nutritional needs of the players.

Attaway came to the 49ers following five years in a similar capacity at the University of Southern California (1978-82). During his first three years at USC, he was the assistant offensive line coach, as well as coordinator for physical development.

A product of UC Davis and Sacramento State, Attaway transferred to Sacramento State after an injury ended his football career.

Collegiately, he served as an assistant coach at UC Davis (1970-72), the College of Idaho (1973-75) and Utah State (1976-77), prior to his USC coaching stint.

After earning a degree in physical education and biology from Sacramento State in 1972, Attaway received his master's degree in education, with an emphasis in guidance and counseling, from the College of Idaho in 1974.

Born (1-3-46) in Susanville, CA, Jerry and his wife, Cheryl, live in San Jose, CA.

Attaway's coaching background: 1970-72 (UC Davis), 1973-75 (College of Idaho), 1976-77 (Utah State), 1978-82 (Southern California), 1983-curr. (49ers).

CHRIS BEAKE OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Beake enters his first year as an offensive assistant coach with the 49ers, following three seasons as an assistant with the defense. He also spent one year as defensive quality control coach, as well as one season as a pro personnel assistant with the team.

Beake was a Civil Engineer Officer for the Air Force from 1996-98, designing and managing contract work at Eglin Air Force Base in Florida, among others. While a lieutenant, Beake was a graduate assistant coach for the Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, CO, where he assisted the defensive coordinator and helped with the defensive backs from 1994-95.

A graduate of the Air Force Academy in 1994, Beake earned his bachelor's degree in civil engineering. He received a master's degree in business administration from the University of West Florida in 1997.

Born (9-10-72) in Kansas City, MO, Beake and his wife, Andrea, reside in Mountain View, CA.

Beake's coaching background: 1994-95 (Air Force), 1999-curr. (49ers).

JAMIE CHRISTIAN DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

A Bay Area native, Jamie Christian joins the 49ers staff in 2003 as defensive quality control coach.

Christian comes to San Francisco from Oregon State, where he was preparing to debut as defensive line coach for the Beavers before head coach Dennis Erickson made the move to San Francisco.

For three years, Christian played fullback at Fresno State before transferring to Central Washington. After making the switch to running back, Christian helped the Wildcats win the NAIA Championship in 1995, leading the team in rushing while scoring 13 touchdowns. After working as a juvenile corrections officer in Seattle, WA for four years, Christian accepted his first coaching position in 1999 at Ballard High School in Seattle. While at Ballard, Christian coached varsity running backs for one season, as well as serving as head coach for the junior varsity squad. He joined the Oregon State staff as a graduate assistant in 2000, where he helped the Beavers defense for two seasons. He moved on to Northern Arizona University in 2002, where he served as secondary coach before returning to Corvallis in January of 2003.

Born (2-10-72) in Auburn, WA, Christian prepped at Milpitas High School in Milpitas, CA, where he was a three-sport standout. On the football field, he earned offensive Player-of-the-Year honors as a junior and league MVP as a senior. He earned a bachelor's in law and justice from Central Washington in 2000 and is working towards a master's in education. He and his wife, Deja, have one daughter, Cree, 10.

Christian's coaching background: 2000-01 (Oregon State); 2002 (Northern Arizona), 2003 (49ers).

TERRELL JONES STRENGTH DEVELOPMENT COORDINATOR

Terrell Jones is in his fourth season with the 49ers. His primary role with the team focuses on the area of strength training. He also assists Jerry Attaway with conditioning and nutritional needs for the players.

Jones joined the 49ers full-time in the middle of the 2000 season. He had served as an intern for the 49ers for three years (1997, 1999-00) prior to taking on the role full-time.

Before coming to the 49ers, Jones was the strength and conditioning coach at San Jose City College from 1998-00. Prior to that, Jones was a security specialist in the United States Air Force for nine years, stationed at several stateside and overseas bases, including Tyndall AFB in Florida. While at Tyndall, he supervised the strength and conditioning program for the Emergency Services Team (SWAT) as a member of the team.

Born (4-25-61) in Chicago, IL, Jones was raised in Duluth, MN. He attended San Jose State and received a degree in kinesiology in 1998. He often speaks at local high schools and colleges about the importance of exercise, nutrition and the strength and conditioning field. Jones is single and resides in San Jose, CA.

GREG KNAPP OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Knapp is in his ninth season with the 49ers and his third as offensive coordinator. Knapp spent three seasons as quarterbacks coach and spent the previous three years as the team's offensive quality control coach.

The 49ers offense enjoyed another productive season under Knapp in 2002, ranking eighth in the NFL in total offense. Four offensive starters were selected to the Pro Bowl, including QB Jeff Garcia, who passed for more than 3,000 yards for the third consecutive season, and WR Terrell Owens, who set a career-high with 100 receptions. The 49ers rushing offense continued to excel, finishing sixth in the NFL. Led by Garrison Hearst and Kevan Barlow, the run game accounted for 2,244 yards for the second consecutive season. The offensive line, led by Pro Bowlers Jeremy Newberry and Ron Stone, did their part in opening holes for the run game, while allowing only 22 sacks on the season. A balanced attack on the ground and in the air allowed the 49ers to post an impressive 52.3 percent conversion rate on third down—the highest in NFL history over a 16-game season.

During his first year as offensive coordinator in 2001, Knapp helped lead a young offense to fourth in the NFL in total offense and second in rushing. Under his guidance, five offensive players were selected to the Pro Bowl: Garcia, Owens, Newberry, Hearst and Ray Brown. Knapp's offense also finished with more than 1,000 yards rushing for a team-record fifth consecutive season.

Prior to being named offensive coordinator, Knapp tutored the quarterbacks, helping Jeff Garcia set a new team-record with 4,278 passing yards in 2000. Garcia, who was handling the full-time starting duties for the first time in his NFL career, finished the season fifth in the NFL with a 97.6 quarterback rating. He completed 355-of-561 passes with 31 touchdowns and only 10 interceptions, earning the NFL's Most Improved Player Award.

Knapp spent nine years on the coaching staff at Sacramento State University, serving as running backs coach (1986-89), receivers coach (1989-90) and offensive coordinator/assistant head coach (1991-94).

A collegiate quarterback at Sacramento State, he was one of the most prolific signal callers in the school's history. He ranks among the Hornets career leaders with better than 3,800 passing yards and 32 touchdown passes. He participated in training camps for the Kansas City Chiefs in 1986, the Los Angeles Raiders from 1987-90 and the San Francisco 49ers from 1992-94.

A native of Seal Beach, CA, Knapp was born (3-5-63) in Long Beach, CA. He and his wife, Starla, have one daughter, Jordan.

Knapp's coaching background: 1986-94 (Sacramento State), 1995-curr. (49ers).

TIM LAPPANO RUNNING BACKS

Tim Lappano, the coordinator of three top 10 ranked offenses in college football, brings his expertise to the 49ers in 2003 as running backs coach.

Over the past three years as offensive coordinator at Oregon State, Lappano contributed heavily to the resurgence of the Beavers program. OSU led the Pacific-10 in rushing yards with 1,933, and in rushing offense, averaging 148.7 yards per game in 2002. Running back Steven Jackson led the conference with 1,690 yards, while earning first-team All-Pac-10 honors.

A long-time veteran of Dennis Erickson's coaching staff, Lappano began his coaching career as Erickson's running backs coach at Idaho in 1982, helping the Vandals to a Big Sky Conference championship in 1985. After one season as running backs coach for Wyoming in 1986, Lappano served as running backs coach at Washington State before moving to offensive coordinator in 1989. He led the Cougars to a top 10 finish with Pro Bowl quarterback Drew Bledsoe and Pac-10 Offensive Player-of-the-Year, running back Steve Broussard.

Lappano moved on to the University of California in 1992 as assistant head coach and running backs coach. While in Berkeley, Lappano coached Heisman Trophy candidate Russell White and helped lead Cal to an Alamo Bowl victory over Iowa in 1993. He returned to Wyoming in 1996 as receivers coach, helping the Cowboys to a WAC Championship while coaching All-American Marcus Harris to the Fred Biletnikoff Award, given to the nation's top receiver.

Lappano joined the Purdue coaching staff in 1997 as co-offensive coordinator and receivers coach. The Boilermakers led the Big 10 in offense that season and ranked seventh in the nation.

Lappano rejoined Erickson and made his NFL debut in 1998 with the Seattle Seahawks. During his one season as running backs coach, he helped Ricky Watters rush for 1,239 yards and nine touchdowns, earning team Offensive Player-of-the-Year honors.

A four-year letterman at Idaho, Lappano finished his collegiate career as the school's all-time leading rusher with 2,196 yards. He earned a bachelor's degree in general studies in 1983. He prepped at Gonzaga High School in Spokane, WA, earning All-State honors as a senior.

Born (10-14-56) in Spokane, WA, Lappano and his wife Sandi, have two sons, Taylor, 13, and Kyle, 10.

Lappano's coaching background: 1982-85 (Idaho), 1986 (Wyoming), 1987-91 (Washington State), 1992-95 (California), 1996 (Wyoming), 1997 (Purdue), 1998 (Seattle Seahawks), 1999-02 (Oregon State), 2003 (49ers).

LARRY MAC DUFF SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

A 30-year veteran of the collegiate and NFL coaching ranks, Larry Mac Duff is in his first season as special teams coordinator.

Mac Duff comes to the 49ers after two stints at the University of Arizona, where he worked as defensive coordinator for the last two seasons. Despite a 4-8 record in 2002, Mac Duff's defense finished fifth in the Pacific-10 in scoring defense, allowing 25.8 points per game. The Wildcats also finished third in pass defense and fourth in red zone defense.

In between stops at Tucson, Mac Duff spent four seasons as special teams coordinator for the New York Giants from 1997-00. Under Mac Duff, the Giants led the NFL in field goal defense in 1999 and 2000 and paced the NFC in punt returns in 1999. Kick returner Ron Dixon became the first player in NFL history to return two postseason kickoffs for touchdowns during the Giants NFC Championship run in 2000.

Mac Duff's first stop in Arizona set standards for defense in the early 1990's. The Wildcats 'Desert Swarm' unit led the nation in scoring defense in 1992, allowing only 8.9 points per game and finished second in total defense. The impressive display was repeated in 1993 when the Wildcats led the nation in rushing defense while allowing a conference-record 30.1 yards a game. Arizona finished among the top 10 defenses for four consecutive years from 1992-95.

After a decade coaching in the high school and junior college ranks, Mac Duff joined Stanford as defensive line coach in 1980. He moved west to Hawaii in 1984 to run the defensive line and special teams. Under Mac Duff's tutelage, Hawaii produced its first Division I first-team All-American in defensive tackle Al Noga.

An All-American defensive end at Fullerton (CA) Junior College, Mac Duff helped his team to a national title in 1967. Moving on to Oklahoma in 1968, he played linebacker for the Sooners, graduating with a degree in physical education in 1970. He later earned a master's degree in physical education from Cal-State Fullerton in 1972. Mac Duff prepped at Sunny Hills High School in Fullerton, CA, where he lettered in football and baseball.

Born (6-22-48) in Clinton, IA, Mac Duff and his wife, Barbie, have one son, Justin, 21.

Mac Duff's coaching background: 1980-83 (Stanford), 1984-86 (Hawaii), 1987-96 (University of Arizona), 1997-00 (New York Giants), 2001-02 (University of Arizona), 2003 (49ers).

BRETT MAXIE SECONDARY

Brett Maxie is in his fifth year with the 49ers and second as secondary coach. Maxie served as assistant secondary coach from 1999-01. He joined the 49ers after spending the 1998 season as a defensive backs/defensive quality control coach with the Carolina Panthers.

Maxie has spent the past three seasons turning a young secondary into one of the most talented units in the league. In 2002, newcomer S Tony Parrish tied for third in the NFL with seven interceptions, while Ahmed Plummer and Jason Webster continued to emerge as one of the best young corner duos in the League, combining for 153 tackles and 24 passes defended.

In 2001, the 49ers defense finished third in the NFL with 24 interceptions. Plummer and S Zack Bronson tied for the team lead with seven interceptions each, including two returned for touchdowns by Bronson.

A 13-year veteran of the NFL, Maxie has spent his entire career in the NFC West, playing nine seasons with the New Orleans Saints (1985-93), one with Atlanta (1994), two with Carolina (1995-96) and one in San Francisco (1997). Maxie was the first player to ever record an interception with Carolina and had a career-high six picks in '95 with the Panthers. He completed his career with 23 interceptions.

Maxie graduated in 1985 with a degree in biology from Texas Southern, where he played safety. Maxie originally planned to attend optometry school before signing as an undrafted free agent with New Orleans.

Born (1-13-62) in Dallas, TX, Brett and his wife, Angela, have four children: sons, Brett (7-14-92) and Adam (11-18-93), and daughters, Maya (11-21-95) and Olivia (4-15-97). The family resides in San Jose, CA.

GREG MCMACKIN ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH/LINEBACKERS

Greg McMackin brings a wealth of experience to the 49ers defense. The 30-year coaching veteran will tutor the linebackers as well as serve as a sounding board for defensive coordinator Jim Mora.

McMackin joins the 49ers staff after a successful three-year run as defensive coordinator at Texas Tech. His defense made an immediate impact in 2000 as the Red Raiders led the nation with three shutouts. Tech also held two other opponents without an offensive touchdown as the Red Raiders finished the 2000 campaign ranked sixth in the nation in pass defense and 10th in pass efficiency defense. They also finished fourth in the Big 12 in total defense, while finishing in the top 25 nationally. In 2001, the Red Raiders once again held opponents scoreless, posting one shutout and holding another without an offensive score. The trend continued in 2002 as four Tech starters recorded more than 100 tackles, led by All Big-12 LB Lawrence Flugence. Overall, the Red Raiders posted five shutouts and held three opponents without an offensive score during McMackin's tenure.

Prior to his arrival at Texas Tech, McMackin helped orchestrate one of the biggest single-season turnarounds in NCAA history. During his only season as defensive coordinator at the University of Hawaii, McMackin helped lead the Rainbow Warriors to a 9-4 mark in 1999, one year after the program suffered through an 0-12 season. His defense accounted for five touchdowns, 17 interceptions, 33 sacks and 17 fumble recoveries.

McMackin also served as the defensive coordinator for the Seattle Seahawks under Dennis Erickson from 1995-98. During his time with Seattle, he coached seven All-Pro selections and helped lead the Seahawks to an NFL record 12 defensive touchdowns in 1998. The team also ranked among the league's best in turnovers, sacks, passes defended, scoring defense, total defense per play and red zone defense. Seattle also established a franchise record seven interceptions in one game during the 1998 season. During his first three seasons in Seattle, he helped improve the team's NFL defensive rank from 30th to eighth and the pass defense from 30th to sixth.

McMackin spent the 1993 and 1994 seasons at the University of Miami under Erickson. The team won two Big East Championships and ranked first in the nation in total defense, scoring defense and pass defense. The Hurricanes allowed only seven touchdowns in one season and led the Big East in all defensive categories. He coached six first-team All-Americans, including Warren Sapp, who earned National Defensive Player-of-the-Year honors as well as the Lombardi Award in 1994.

McMackin began his career as an offensive backfield coach at the University of Arizona in 1968 and moved on to Aloha High School in Beaverton, OR, where he served as an assistant coach and head coach in four seasons. He then went to Western Oregon State College for three seasons as defensive coordinator, recruiting coordinator and assistant professor in physical education.

Born (4-24-47) in Springfield, OR, McMackin and his wife, Heather, have one daughter, Shannon, and two grandchildren.

JIM MORA DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Jim Mora is in his seventh year with the 49ers and fifth as defensive coordinator. Mora spent his first two years as the 49ers defensive backs coach.

Despite a rash of injuries, the 49ers gave a solid effort on defense in 2002, finishing seventh in the NFL against the run and 14th in total defense. Linebacker Julian Peterson enjoyed a breakout season, earning his first Pro Bowl selection with 104 tackles, two sacks and an interception. Free agent S Tony Parrish fit right in with the defense, recording 73 tackles, a career-high seven interceptions and a team-leading 17 passes defended. The 49ers defense was truly a team effort as four starters earned NFC Player-of-the-Week honors during the season.

Under Mora's tutelage, the 2001 defense saw continued improvement from the 2000 season. The 49ers defense allowed only 309 yards per game and 24 interceptions, compared to 357 yards per game and 13 interceptions in 2000. The 24 interceptions that season were good for third in the league. On the season, the defense ranked sixth in the NFL in scoring defense, allowing only 16.3 points per game. The team also registered three shutouts, the most in team history.

During his two seasons as secondary coach, energy and knowledge rubbed off as the unit tied for first in the NFC and fourth in the NFL with 21 interceptions in 1998, including four players who were credited with four picks apiece. In his first season, the 49ers ranked second in the NFL in passing defense and were tied for second in the league with 25 interceptions.

Mora was named as the secondary coach for the Saints in 1992. During his five-year tenure in New Orleans (1992-96), the team twice led the NFL in fewest passing yards allowed (1992-93).

Mora played defensive back for the University of Washington from 1980-83, appearing in two Rose Bowls with the Huskies. Following graduation, he served one season (1984) on Don James' staff as an assistant, helping the squad earn a berth in the Orange Bowl. In 1985, Mora joined the San Diego Chargers in their pro personnel department before being named a defensive assistant in the secondary from 1986-88. He became the Chargers defensive backs coach in 1989 and served in that capacity for three seasons.

Born (11-19-61) in Los Angeles, CA, Mora attended Interlake High in Bellevue, WA. He is the son of former NFL head coach Jim Mora. He and his wife, Shannon, have four children: Cole (1-7-95), Lillia (8-19-96), Ryder (1-11-99) and Trey (10-4-02). The family lives in Los Gatos, CA.

PATRICK MORRIS OFFENSIVE LINE

Patrick Morris is in his seventh year with the 49ers, his fifth as offensive line coach. He spent the previous two years as tight ends/assistant offensive line coach.

Under Morris, the 49ers have maintained an efficient and productive offensive line. The 49ers rank second in the NFL in rushing since 1998 trailing only Pittsburgh. Over the past two seasons, the 49ers have led the NFL in protecting the quarterback, allowing a sack only once in every 22.4 passing attempts.

In 2002, dominant play at the line of scrimmage allowed the 49ers to rack up 2,244 rushing yards for the second consecutive season. The line did their part in protecting the quarterback, allowing just 22 sacks on the season, third best in the league. C Jeremy Newberry and G Ron Stone were selected for the 2003 Pro Bowl, the second straight season the 49ers sent two linemen to Hawaii.

A 1976 graduate of Southern California, Morris accumulated 19 years of coaching experience on the collegiate level. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater from 1976-77. He then spent one season at Northern Arizona in 1978 as offensive line coach. Following the stint at NAU, he handled offensive line duties at Minnesota (1979-82), USC (1983-86) and

Michigan State (1987-94) prior to joining Stanford's staff in 1995. He worked with the Cardinal for two seasons (1995-96), coaching the offensive line (tackles and tight ends) prior to joining the 49ers staff in '97.

Morris has been associated with five Rose Bowl victories and two National Championships during his football playing and coaching career: 1973 and '75 Rose Bowls and National Championships as a player at USC, 1977 and '85 Rose Bowls as a coach at USC and 1988 Rose Bowl as a coach at Michigan State University.

Born in Cleveland, OH (4-7-54), Patrick and his wife, Kathy, reside in Mountain View, CA.

DAN QUINN DEFENSIVE LINE

Dan Quinn makes his debut as defensive line coach in 2003 after spending two seasons with the 49ers in charge of defensive quality control. He joined the 49ers after spending five years coaching at Hofstra.

In 2002, Quinn played a large role in the development of DEs Andre Carter and Chike Okefor. Carter paced the team with 12.5 sacks and Okefor added six. Quinn also worked closely with DT Bryant Young, who made his second consecutive Pro Bowl appearance.

Before joining the 49ers, Quinn spent five years coaching Hofstra's defensive line, serving double duty in his final season as the defensive coordinator.

Prior to joining the Hofstra staff, Quinn spent one season coaching the defensive tackles at Virginia Military Institute. He also served as the recruiting coordinator at VMI. Quinn worked as a graduate assistant for the defensive line at the College of William and Mary prior to VMI.

Quinn, a four-year starter at defensive end and defensive tackle at Salisbury State University, also was a four-year letterwinner in track and field.

Born (9-11-70) in Orange, NJ, Quinn and his wife, Stacey, reside in Santa Clara, CA.

JEFF RODGERS SPECIAL TEAMS QUALITY CONTROL

Jeff Rodgers is in his first season as special teams quality control coach of the 49ers and will work directly with special teams coordinator Larry Mac Duff.

Rodgers joins the 49ers staff from the University of Arizona, where he spent the past two seasons as a graduate assistant on defense, working with the secondary in 2001 and the flex linebacker in 2002.

Rodgers played four seasons at linebacker for the University of North Texas. He earned his degree in business, specializing in entrepreneurship and strategic management, in 2000. He prepped at Westlake High School in Austin, TX.

Born (1-12-78) in St. Paul, MN, Rodgers is single and resides in Santa Clara, CA.

Rodgers' coaching background: 2001-02 (University of Arizona), 2003 (49ers).

AL SIMMONS ASSISTANT SECONDARY/CORNERBACKS

Al Simmons makes his NFL coaching debut with the 49ers after 17 seasons in the college ranks. Simmons will assist Brett Maxie in coaching the 49ers secondary with emphasis on the team's cornerbacks.

Simmons arrives in San Francisco after a two-year stint as secondary coach on Dennis Erickson's staff at Oregon State University. Under Simmons' direction, the Beavers led the Pacific-10 in passing defense and allowed a conference-low 10 touchdown receptions in 2002.

Simmons' first coaching opportunity came at his alma mater, Cal State-Hayward, when he was named secondary/linebackers coach in 1986. He was named defensive coordinator in 1988 and stayed there until the spring of 1994 when he joined San Francisco State as the defensive coordinator/secondary coach. At Cal State-Hayward, his defense finished No. 1 in the conference in scoring defense and No. 2 in total defense in 1992. When he moved to San Francisco State, he helped the Gators place second in their conference in total defense, pass defense, takeaways and scoring defense.

From 1995-96 he served as the secondary coach at Montana State University before joining Idaho State as defensive coordinator in 1997. In 1998, he joined Tom Holmoe's staff at the University of California, where he was instrumental in turning Deltha O'Neal from a back-up tailback into the first cornerback chosen in the 2000 NFL Draft.

Simmons also has participated four times in the NFL's Minority Fellowship Coaching program. He spent training camps with the Raiders (1993), Arizona (1996), San Diego (1999) and Dallas (2000).

A Northern California native, Simmons was born (12-6-62) in Oakland, CA. He earned his bachelor's degree in business administration and a master's degree in physical education from Cal State-Hayward. As a player, Simmons was a two-time All-Nor Cal Conference selection as a strong safety in 1983 and 1984. Simmons prepped at Oakland High School in Oakland, CA where he played linebacker for three years before graduating in 1981.

Simmons' coaching background: 1986-93 (Cal State-Hayward), 1994 (San Francisco State), 1995-96 (Montana State), 1997 (Idaho State), 1998-00 (California), 2001-02 (Oregon State), 2003 (49ers).

GREGG SMITH ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/TIGHT ENDS

A member of Head Coach Dennis Erickson's staff for more than two decades, Gregg Smith joins the 49ers as assistant head coach. He will coach the tight ends as well as assist Erickson with practice plans and other team-related decisions.

Smith comes to San Francisco from Oregon State, where he served as assistant head coach and offensive line coach for three seasons. Under Smith's direction in 2002, the offensive line helped the Beavers lead the Pacific-10 in rushing offense by averaging 148.7 yards per game. Thanks in part to the blocking of the offensive line, RB Steven Jackson led the conference with 1,690 yards rushing and 15 touchdowns in 2002.

Prior to his arrival at Oregon State, Smith spent four seasons with the Seattle Seahawks, coaching the tight ends from 1995-96 before taking over the offensive line in 1997. The Seahawks enjoyed solid performance on the line of scrimmage during Smith's tenure, finishing third in the NFL in rushing in 1995, fifth in 1996 and third in overall offense in 1997.

After winning two state championships as head coach of Buhl High School in Buhl, ID, Smith began his collegiate career in 1982 as offensive line coach at his alma mater, the University of Idaho. Following a one-year stint at Wyoming in 1986, Smith joined Erickson at Washington State, where he coached first-team All-American guard, and Detroit Lions third-round pick, Mike Uteley.

Smith moved with Erickson in 1989 to the University of Miami where he served again as offensive line coach, while gaining the title of assistant head coach. During his time with the Hurricanes, Smith saw five of his linemen drafted by the NFL, including tackle Leon Searcy with the 11th overall pick in 1992. Smith's offensive line was the foundation for a Miami offense that won two National Championships.

Smith played one season at tight end at the University of Idaho before a knee injury ended his career. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in education from Idaho in 1969. As a prep athlete, Smith earned All-State honorable mention honors as a senior at Moscow High School in 1962.

Born (10-28-46) in Oklahoma City, OK, Smith and his wife, Gloria, have three children, Cori, 28, Laci, 26, and Tyler, 23.

Smith's coaching background: 1982-85 (Idaho), 1986 (Wyoming), 1987-88 (Washington State), 1989-94 (University of Miami), 1995-98 (Seattle Seahawks), 1999-02 (Oregon State), 2003 (49ers).

JASON TARVER OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Jason Tarver enters his third season with the 49ers as offensive quality control coach.

Tarver joined the 49ers staff after spending three seasons as a graduate assistant coach with UCLA. In his three seasons with the Bruins, Tarver worked primarily with the defensive backfield and also assisted with special teams.

A Northern California native, Tarver played defensive back and wing back at Foothill High in Pleasanton. He attended Santa Clara University with the intention of playing football. After the Broncos cut their program, Tarver stayed at Santa Clara but played football at West Valley College in 1994 and 1995. After a series of injuries cut his career short, Tarver spent the next two seasons as an assistant coach at West Valley in 1996-97.

Born (8-28-74) in Stanford, CA, Tarver earned a degree in chemistry from Santa Clara in 1997 and is a member of Phi Beta Kappa. He also earned his master's degree in biochemistry from UCLA and received the departmental prize for distinguished teaching in 1998 and 2000.

Tarver's coaching background: 1996-97 (West Valley College), 1998-00 (UCLA), 2001-curr. (49ers).

TED TOLLNER QUARTERBACKS

Ted Tollner enters his second season as the 49ers quarterbacks coach. Tollner has more than 30 years of coaching experience on the collegiate and professional level, including four years as a head coach at Southern California (1983-86) and eight at San Diego State (1994-01), compiling a 69-68 record during that time.

Tollner wasted little time making a contribution to the 49ers during the 2002 season, helping QB Jeff Garcia reach his third consecutive Pro Bowl by throwing for 3,344 yards and 21 touchdowns, while throwing only 10 interceptions.

Tollner served as offensive coordinator and running backs coach at USC during the 1982 season, and in November of 1982, was named John Robinson's successor as Trojans head coach. He compiled a 26-20-1 record and directed the team to a Pacific-10 title and three bowl berths. His 1984 USC squad posted a 9-3 record, finished 10th in the AP poll and upset fifth-ranked Ohio State in the Rose Bowl, 20-17. The Trojans finished 7-1 in the conference that year and earned their first trip to the Rose Bowl as conference champs since 1979. Tollner was named Pac-10 Coach-of-the-Year that season. His two other bowl appearances with the Trojans include the 1985 Aloha Bowl and the 1987 Citrus Bowl. Also on his staff at USC was Pat Morris, who handled the offensive line (1983-86).

After leaving USC, Tollner served as wide receivers coach for the Buffalo Bills from 1987-88. He moved from Buffalo to San Diego, where he was offensive coordinator for the Chargers from 1989-91. He then moved to Los Angeles, where he was the Rams quarterbacks coach for the 1992 and '93 seasons.

Tollner compiled a record of 43-48 at San Diego State. He posted two eight-win seasons in his second and third years with the Aztecs (1995 and '96), which marked the first consecutive eight-win seasons since 1976-77. Tollner also directed San Diego State to its first postseason bowl game in seven years with a berth in the Las Vegas Bowl (1998).

Prior to San Diego State, Tollner began his career in the Bay Area, coaching at Woodside High School (1963-66) and at San Mateo College (1968-72).

Born (5-29-40), Tollner earned a bachelor's degree in 1962 and later a master's degree in physical education at Cal Poly SLO. He was a starting quarterback at Cal Poly for two years and pitched for the baseball team for four seasons. He was one of 26 survivors of the tragic Cal Poly plane crash on 10-29-60, which killed 22 people, 16 of them players.

Tollner and his wife, Barbara, have two daughters, Linda and Tammy; one son, Bruce; and 10 grandchildren.

DICK TOMEY DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Dick Tomey is in his first season with San Francisco. One of the greatest coaches in Pacific-10 history, Tomey will take charge of the 49ers nickel packages on defense, as well as serving as a sounding board for Jim Mora.

During nearly a quarter-century as a head coach in college football, Tomey compiled a 158-110-7 record over 24 years at Hawaii and Arizona. Tomey is the all-time leader in coaching victories at both schools, joining Bear Bryant and George Welsh as the only coaches to lead multiple schools in all-time wins.

Tomey enjoyed a successful 14-year run at the University of Arizona, guiding the Wildcats to a 95-64-4 record and the second-most wins of any Pac-10 school in the 1990s. His 60 conference victories place him eighth on the all-time list among Pac-10 coaches. Arizona recorded its only top 10 consensus finishes in school history under Tomey (1994 and '98), culminating in a final ranking of No. 4 in the nation following the 1998 season. He led the Wildcats to four bowl victories in seven games, including a 29-0 shutout over Miami in the 1994 Fiesta Bowl and a 23-20 win over Nebraska in the 1998 Holiday Bowl—making Arizona the only school to post Bowl victories against both national powers in the 1990s. Along with defensive coordinator, and current 49ers special teams coordinator, Larry Mac Duff, Tomey directed a defensive unit that set new standards in the Pac-10, as well as the nation. Nicknamed 'Desert Swarm,' the Arizona defense led the nation in scoring defense in 1992, allowing only 8.9 points per game and finished second in total defense. The impressive display was repeated in 1993 when the Wildcats led the nation in rushing defense while allowing a conference-record low of 30.1 yards a game. In all, Tomey coached 20 All-Americans at Arizona, as well as 43 first-team All-Pac-10 selections. He was named Pac-10 Coach-of-the-Year in 1992.

Prior to his tenure in Arizona, Tomey helped bring the University of Hawaii into the world of Division I college football. He posted a 63-46-3 record over his 10 seasons with the Rainbow Warriors, earning Western Athletic Conference Coach-of-the-Year honors in 1981.

Tomey began his coaching career as a graduate assistant under Bo Schembechler at Miami (OH). He spent time at Davidson and Kansas before spending seven years at UCLA, where he coached with 49ers general manager Terry Donahue and director of pro personnel Bill McPherson.

Tomey is a frequent contributor to Fox Sports Net and ESPN and provided color commentary on University of Hawaii football telecasts the last two seasons. He was awarded the Provost Award in 1999 as Arizona's Outstanding Teacher—the only coach in history to be so honored by the faculty. Tomey also owns a personal development speaking business and has toured the country providing lectures to various corporations.

Born (6-20-38) in Bloomington, IN, Tomey attended Michigan City (IN) High before enrolling at DePauw University, where he played football and baseball. He was inducted into the DePauw University Hall of Fame in 1994.

Tomey and wife Nanci, a contemporary fiction author, were married in 1997 and have four children: a son, Rich, and three daughters, Angie, Ali and Leigh—along with one step-son, Sonny.

Tomey's coaching background: 1964-65 (Davidson), 1966-70 (Kansas), 1971-76 (UCLA), 1977-86 (Hawaii), 1987-00 (University of Arizona), 2003 (49ers).

ERIC YARBER RECEIVERS

An NFL veteran as both a player and coach, Eric Yarber debuts with the 49ers as wide receivers coach in 2003.

Yarber accompanies Dennis Erickson from Oregon State, where he coached the receivers for three seasons after switching from running backs coach following the 1999 season. During Yarber's tenure, the Beavers sent two receivers to the NFL in 2000, as Chad Johnson was a second-round selection of Cincinnati and T.J. Houshmandzadeh was the seventh-round pick of the Bengals.

Yarber's coaching career began at his alma mater, the University of Idaho, as secondary coach in 1996. He spent one season at Idaho before joining the staff at UNLV as receivers coach. Erickson brought Yarber to the NFL ranks as offensive quality control coach for the Seattle Seahawks in 1998.

A 12th-round draft pick out of Idaho by Washington in the 1986 NFL Draft, Yarber spent three seasons with the Redskins as a wide receiver and kick returner. He was a member of Washington's Super Bowl XXII championship team in 1988.

Yarber played for Dennis Erickson at Idaho (1984-85) and was a Kodak All-American and the Big Sky Conference Most Valuable Player as a senior after catching 75 passes for 1,103 yards. As a junior, he finished 10th in the nation in punt returns and third in the conference with 817 yards pass receiving on 54 catches. He graduated from Idaho with a bachelor's degree in general studies with an emphasis in criminal justice in 1985.

Born (9-22-64) in Chicago, IL, Yarber has one son, Robert.

Yarber's coaching background: 1996 (Idaho), 1997 (UNLV), 1998 (Seattle Seahawks), 1999-02 (Oregon State), 2003 (49ers).

FIRST YEAR SUCCESS I

During his time in Miami, Erickson compiled an NCAA-best record of 63-9-0 (.875), which included a 35-2 home mark at the Orange Bowl, and was part of an NCAA-record 58 straight wins at home. He became only the second head coach in NCAA history to win a national championship in his first season at a school (1989). The first was Bennie Oosterbaan, who did it for Michigan in 1948. Another Hurricane head coach, Larry Coker, did it in 2001 with Miami in his first season.

Personnel and Scouting

JIM ABRAMS NATIONAL SCOUT

Jim Abrams is in his 10th year with the 49ers and third as a national scout. Previously, Abrams spent five years as a regional scout for the 49ers after serving as a scouting assistant for the team in his first two years.

A 1987 graduate of Kent University, Abrams served as a graduate assistant at UNLV (1988), Purdue (1989-90) and Ohio State (1991). At all three schools he served as linebackers coaching assistant.

Born in Warren, OH (10-12-62), Abrams attended McAteer High in San Francisco before attending City College (1981-82). He later transferred to Kent (1983-87), where he played free safety and earned a bachelor's degree in physical education.

Abrams and his wife, Penny, reside in Westlake, CA with their sons, Aleksandr James (8-23-95) and Sedrick Jameson (8-24-99).

TODD BRUNNER REGIONAL SCOUT

Todd Brunner is in his fourth season with the 49ers as a regional scout.

Prior to coming to the 49ers, he spent two seasons with the Cleveland Browns as an area scout. He scouted the Northeast region for the Browns in 1999. Brunner came to the Browns from the Philadelphia Eagles, where he spent four seasons (1994-97) as an area scout for the Northeast region. He joined the Eagles as a scouting intern in 1992 and worked as a scouting assistant in 1993.

Brunner went to Lehigh University, where he lettered two years in football. As a junior, he led the team in special teams tackles and as a senior quarterback he tied or broke 14 school passing records. After Lehigh, he spent one season as a graduate assistant at Temple University in 1991 and earned his master's.

Born (10-1-67) in Middletown, NY, Brunner is the son of 49ers personnel consultant John Brunner. He and his wife, Nancy, have one daughter, Annie Elizabeth (2-3-99), and son, Chad Joseph (5-16-02), and reside in Robbinsville, NJ.

BRIAN GARDNER REGIONAL SCOUT

Brian Gardner is in his ninth year with the 49ers as a regional scout.

Prior to joining San Francisco in 1995, he spent three seasons as a scout for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

His football background includes time in the Arena Football League with the New Orleans Night franchise as both defensive coordinator and director of player personnel. He also served as player personnel director and receivers coach for the Washington Marauders of the professional spring football league.

Gardner played three seasons in the Arena Football League with New England, Pittsburgh and New York. He spent one season in the CFL with the Saskatchewan Rough Riders.

Gardner is a native of New Orleans. He played college football at Prairie View A&M, where he was a three-year letterman and graduated with a bachelor's degree in communications. Married, he and his wife, Vanessa, have two sons, Royal Jalvia and Tyler J.

Personnel and Scouting

OSCAR LOFTON REGIONAL SCOUT

Oscar Lofton, who joined the 49ers scouting staff in 1992, begins his 12th season with the club as a regional scout.

His football background includes six years as a scout for the National Football Scouting Combine (1986-92) and coaching stints at Holy Cross College (1963-66), Hammond (LA) High (1967-73) and Tulane (1973-79).

A three-sport athlete in football, basketball and track at Southeastern Louisiana, Lofton was enshrined into that school's Hall of Fame in 1960. He received his master's degree in physical education in 1966 and served SLU as athletic director (1979) and head coach (1980-85). He played three seasons (1960-61 and '63) for the Boston Patriots, missing the 1962 campaign while in the U.S. Army.

Born in McCall Creek, MS, Lofton and his wife, Billie Jean, have three grown sons (Kelly, Andy and Kyle) and seven grandchildren. The couple lives in Hammond, LA.

BILL REES SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO GENERAL MANAGER

Bill Rees is in his third season with the San Francisco 49ers as special assistant to the general manager.

Rees came to the 49ers staff after four seasons as the Director of College Scouting for the Chicago Bears. While there, Rees oversaw a staff of six scouts and he helped produce successful drafts that generated 14 starters over three seasons.

Prior to joining the Bears, Rees served as a regional scout for the Kansas City Chiefs. He was primarily responsible for scouting the college talent in the western United States.

The majority of Rees' experience came during his 15 years spent with UCLA (1979-93). Rees served as both an assistant football coach and as a recruiting coordinator for the Bruins, earning a reputation as one of the nation's top recruiters. While at UCLA, Rees signed 90 prep All-Americans and helped the Bruins earn 12 bowl appearances and win five Pac-10 Championships.

Rees began his football career as an assistant with the Northwestern Wildcats for three seasons, coaching defensive backs for two seasons (1976-77) and running backs for one season (1978). He earned three letters as a quarterback at Ohio Wesleyan, and earned a master's degree in education from Northwestern in 1978.

Born 4-2-54, Rees and his wife, Susan, have three children (Danny, Meghan and Tommy).

JIM ZECHES REGIONAL SCOUT

Jim Zeches is in his third season with the San Francisco 49ers as a regional scout.

Zeches came to the 49ers staff after spending 12 years in various positions with Washington State University. Zeches served as the recruiting coordinator for the Cougars during his last seven years. He originally joined the WSU staff in 1989 as defensive line coach and moved to outside linebackers from 1991-94. In addition to coordinating the recruiting, Zeches also coached the tight ends his final two seasons.

A Los Angeles native, Zeches earned two varsity letters while playing center at Cal-State Northridge (1971-72). Following five years of coaching preps, Zeches served as a graduate assistant at UCLA from 1978-80 under Terry Donahue. Zeches joined Dennis Green's staff at Northwestern in 1981 coaching the defensive line until '86.

In 1987, Zeches began his 14-year tenure under Mike Price by taking the inside linebackers coaching spot on Price's Weber State staff. Zeches was hired as defensive line coach when Price was named the Cougars head coach in '89.

Born 10-4-50, Zeches and his wife, Kathy, have one son, Brian, who is a quarterback at Idaho State. The couple resides in Tempe, AZ.

JOHN BRUNNER PERSONNEL CONSULTANT

John Brunner is in his 13th season with the 49ers and begins his first season as a personnel consultant.

He has 20 years experience as an NFL assistant coach and scout, including duties with Detroit (running backs coach, 1980-82), Green Bay (running backs coach, 1983), Tampa Bay (offensive coordinator, 1984), New England (scout, 1985-86) and Minnesota (running backs coach, 1987-91).

Brunner played college football at Maryland (1955-56) and East Stroudsburg State (1958-59). After earning his master's degree in physical education from East Stroudsburg in 1960, he coached high school and college football for 20 years, holding positions at Middletown (NY) High (1960-66), Villanova (1967-69), Temple (1970-73 & 1977-79) and Princeton (1974-75).

Born in Perkesie, PA (9-6-37), Brunner has seven children: Scott (former NFL quarterback), Jack, Penny, Jan, Jeff, Todd (regional scout for the 49ers) and Mark. John and his wife, Pat, reside in Clearwater, FL.

DREW CASANI PRO/COLLEGE PERSONNEL

Drew Casani is in his fourth season with the 49ers Personnel department. He joined the 49ers in June of 2000.

His duties include assisting director of pro personnel Bill McPherson and general manager Terry Donahue within the personnel department in a variety of areas, including the evaluation of college and professional players. Serving as the draft room coordinator, he is responsible for the organization of data for the draft. In addition, he manages the 49ers College Scouting software and database, assists in advance scouting of upcoming opponents and monitors league transactions.

Prior to the 49ers, Casani spent five seasons coaching at Loyola (Los Angeles, CA) High, where he was a standout linebacker as a student-athlete. He was named CIF Southern Section Defensive Player-of-the-Year and Southern California High School Player-of-the-Year in 1990.

The 30-year old Casani attended Arizona State from 1992-94 where he was a walk-on linebacker. After ASU, he attended Loyola Marymount, where he earned his bachelor's degree in business administration in 1998. He also played rugby at LMU, lettering three years and set the single-season scoring title with 22 tries (touchdowns) and won MVP honors.

Born 1-6-73, he is single and resides in San Mateo, CA.

MIKE WILLIAMS PRO/COLLEGE PERSONNEL

Mike Williams is in his fourth season with the 49ers. He joined the 49ers in 1999 as a volunteer in the personnel department and became full-time as a player personnel assistant in the spring of 2000.

His duties include advance scouting, evaluating free agents, setting up free agent workouts, establishing and maintaining contacts with player agents and coordinating draft room operations.

Prior to the 49ers, Williams was the defensive coordinator at De Anza College in Cupertino, CA in 1998. He served one year as the linebackers coach at Southern Utah University in 1997. Before working at Southern Utah, he was the defensive coordinator at St. Lawrence (Santa Clara, CA) High for three seasons. While volunteering for the 49ers in 1999, he taught at St. Lawrence.

Williams earned a bachelor's degree in economics from Santa Clara University in 1989, where he was a four-year starter at safety and graduated as the school's all-time leading tackler. He attended Mater Dei (Santa Ana, CA) High, where he participated in football, basketball and track.

He and his wife, Holly, reside in Menlo Park, CA.

TODD LAZENBY HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Todd Lazenby is in his eighth year with the 49ers and first as head athletic trainer.

In 2001, Lazenby and the rest of the 49ers athletic trainers were honored by their peers with the prestigious NFL Athletic Training Staff of the Year Award. The Ohio native was particularly active in treating and rehabbing both Bryant Young (leg) and Garrison Hearst (ankle) from career-threatening injuries.

Lazenby joined the organization following five years with the HealthSouth Corporation in Orlando, FL, where he was the staff athletic trainer. During his tenure with HealthSouth (1991-95), Lazenby coordinated the HealthSouth golf program, covered high school athletics and treated patients in the clinic. He arrived with familiarity to the 49ers organization, having worked the team's 1990 training camp.

Prior to joining HealthSouth in 1991, Lazenby served as a graduate assistant on the training staff at Ohio State University. While with the Buckeyes, he worked with a number of sports including the football, ice hockey and men's gymnastics teams, among a host of others.

Lazenby earned a bachelor's degree from Ohio State in health education and a master's degree in sports management. He is a certified member of the NATA.

He and his wife, Stevie, have a son, Caleb (8-3-95), and a daughter, Lilli (12-10-98). The family lives in Milpitas, CA.

JEFF TANAKA ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Jeff Tanaka is in his fifth year as an assistant athletic trainer. He was promoted this season and will coordinate the rehabilitation programs of the 49ers injured players. He spent the two previous years at the University of California in the same capacity.

In 2001, Tanaka and the rest of the 49ers athletic trainers were honored by their peers with the prestigious NFL Athletic Training Staff of the Year Award.

Tanaka had four stints in the professional ranks before his tenure at Cal, beginning with a training camp internship with the Los Angeles Raiders in 1994. He then spent two seasons as a graduate assistant with the 49ers (1995-96), before accepting a position as an assistant athletic trainer for the Amsterdam Admirals of NFL Europe in 1997.

After one season in Amsterdam, Tanaka spent the next three years at Cal, where he was head athletic trainer for men's basketball, the men's and women's swim teams, as well as assisting with the football team.

Jeff received a bachelor's degree in physical education from Cal Poly San Luis Obispo in 1994 and recently completed his thesis at San Jose State to earn a master's degree in kinesiology. As a student trainer at Cal Poly, Tanaka had experience with all 17 sports for the Mustangs, including football, basketball and women's volleyball. While serving his graduate assistantship through San Jose State, he was the first athletic trainer at Santa Teresa (CA) High, where he implemented the program and facility.

Born and raised in San Jose, CA (4-14-71), Tanaka graduated from Branham High. He is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA) and California Athletic Trainers' Association (CATA).

Jeff is single and resides in San Jose, CA.

DIONNE CALHOUN ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Dionne Calhoun enters his first season as assistant athletic trainer with the 49ers. He spent last season as an intern for San Francisco and was a training camp intern from 1999-01.

Prior to getting the full-time position with San Francisco, Dionne worked the early part of 2003 as a trainer at Pacific Thex and was responsible for implementing rehab programs. Prior to the 49ers, he worked at South Bay Spine and Sport as an athletic trainer, designing and implementing post-operative rehab programs and assessing patients.

Dionne received a bachelor's degree in kinesiology, with an emphasis in athletic training, from San Diego State University in 2000. While a student at SDSU, he was a student trainer and helped with the football, men's basketball, hockey, lacrosse, rugby and men's volleyball programs. After graduation, he was the head football trainer at Marion Catholic (Imperial Beach, CA) High.

Born (7-9-76) in Lynwood, CA, Calhoun graduated from Banning (Wilmington, CA) High in 1995. He is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA) and California Athletic Trainers' Association (CATA).

Dionne is single and resides in Redwood City, CA.

STEVE URBANIAK EQUIPMENT MANAGER

After four seasons with the 49ers as an assistant, Steve Urbaniak takes over as equipment manager for the 2003 season.

He came to San Francisco in 1999 after serving a one-year internship with the Miami Dolphins in 1998. While in Miami, he served as a member of the host team assigned to the Denver Broncos prior to Super Bowl XXXIII.

Urbaniak attended East Carolina University, where he helped the Pirates reach consecutive Liberty Bowls as a punter before spending two years as the team's student manager. He graduated with a degree in therapeutic recreation in 1998. A certified athletic equipment manager, Urbaniak is also a member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association. He added acting to his resume in 1998, playing a small role in the feature film

Any Given Sunday.

Urbaniak was born (1-6-76) in Lowville, NY. He and wife, Jessica, have one son, Adam, 7, and reside in San Jose, CA.

TOP OF THE LINE

Dennis Erickson finished his career sixth among active coaches in winning percentage (.715), trailing Marshall's Bob Pruett, Tennessee's Phillip Fulmer, Florida State's Bobby Bowden, Penn State's Joe Paterno and Michigan's Lloyd Carr.

The 49ers Foundation was established in 1991 as the non-profit community outreach extension of the San Francisco 49ers. It is dedicated to enhancing the educational, social and cultural needs of our community. The 49ers Foundation offers unique resources and financial support to non-profit organizations, working to enrich and strengthen communities throughout the greater San Francisco Bay Area.

The money raised by the 49ers Foundation is allocated through grants to local Bay Area charities. The 49ers Foundation enables individuals and corporations to make contributions to help those in need of assistance in our community. Participation in one of several outstanding events or programs through charitable donations is a win-win for everyone.

The 49ers Foundation awarded grants totaling over $800,000 in 2002-03. Recipients included the 49ers Academy in East Palo Alto, the YMCA of San Francisco, Teach for America, Architectural Foundation of San Francisco, East Side College Preparatory School, Young Dreams, Boys and Girls Club, Omega Boys and Girls Club and the VNA & Hospice Foundation.

The 49ers Academy

Since opening in 1995, the 49ers Academy in East Palo Alto has received a steady stream of support from the entire 49ers organization. From owners Denise DeBartolo York and John York to 49ers defensive tackle Bryant Young and his wife Kristin, there has been a strong commitment to the ideals of the 49ers Academy.

The school provides students in grades five through eight with comprehensive academic, social and emotional services such as conflict resolution, art therapy and grief counseling.

49ers Community Quarterback Awards

The 49ers Foundation selected Ethel Chong, a 91-year-old volunteer at Open Heart Kitchen in Livermore, as the recipient of the 2002 49ers Community Quarterback Award. Chong has spent the past eight years helping prepare meals for those in need in the Tri-Valley Area. Along with Chong, the 49ers Foundation recognized the outstanding community service of nine other exceptional finalists.

Bay Area All-Star Scholarship Team

The Bay Area All-Star Scholarship Team is a unique collaboration between the San Francisco 49ers, the San Francisco Giants, the Oakland A's, the Golden State Warriors, the San Jose Sharks and the Oakland Raiders to provide scholarship assistance to deserving Bay Area high school students. Each team has a special presentation to honor the winners collectively. The program began in 1996 and has received national recognition for its ability to bring all teams in one market together for a worthy cause.

Fundraising Activities

The 49ers Foundation presents a variety of fundraising activities during the year to bring players and fans together to raise the funds necessary to grant to charitable organizations. They include:

• 49ers Foundation Celebrity Ski Classic

The 49ers Foundation Celebrity Ski Classic has grown into one of the best social and fundraising events in 49ers history. The Third Annual Celebrity Ski Classic brought 49ers players, coaches and management together with Olympians and top corporate executives in a combined effort to support the 49ers Foundation. The event was held in March 2003 at the beautiful Resort at Squaw Creek in Lake Tahoe, CA.

• 49ers Foundation Golf Tournament

The 10th Annual 49ers Foundation Golf Tournament was held May 4-5, 2003. The pre-tournament dinner was hosted at 49ers headquarters in Santa Clara Sunday evening, May 4, followed by a very successful day of golf at Castlewood Golf and Country Club in Pleasanton Monday, May 5.

• Open Your Hearts to the Children

The 49ers Foundation, working together with Hedge Funds Care, a group of concerned Hedge Funds professionals dedicated to raising money for child abuse treatment and prevention in Northern California, conducted a dinner and auction gala at the Westin St. Francis Hotel in March 2003. The event was attended by more than 550 people and raised $550,000.

49ERS FOUNDATION GRANT FUNDING

WHO IS ELIGIBLE FOR A GRANT AND HOW DO YOU APPLY?

If you are a 501 (C) (3) non-profit organization, located in the greater San Francisco Bay Area, you are eligible for a grant.

Proposals are accepted year round. Grants are awarded throughout the year and a few charities will be chosen to attend a check presentation at a 49ers home game.

Requests should be no more than two pages and must include the following information:

- A description of the organization
- A description of the project in need of funding
- A copy of the organization's IRS determination letter granting tax exempt status
- A list of prior contributors

Please be advised that we do not fund the following areas:

- Land, building or vehicle purchases
- Endowments
- Political campaigns
- Religious organizations (Projects to promote given religion)
- Loans of any type
- Personal scholarships (Ask for further information on the Bay Area All-Star Scholarship Team (BAAST) Program)
- Travel
- Organizations based outside the greater Bay Area

Tom Bowen, Executive Director
49ers Foundation
4949 Centennial Blvd.
Santa Clara, CA 95054-1229
Attn: Grant Funding

Due to the volume of proposals we receive, not all funding requests can be fulfilled.

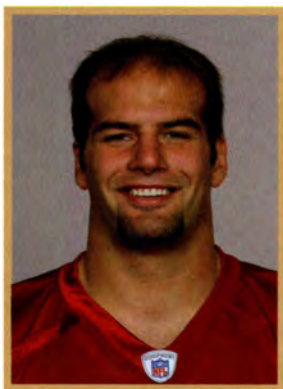

Please allow four to six weeks for review of your proposal. All applicants will be notified of our decision.

Non-profit organizations are only eligible to receive a maximum of one grant within a two-year period.

Did You Know...

For all his life, Fred has been breaking horses in and around Alabama. The purpose of breaking horses is to transform a wild horse into a tame horse in order for people to be able to handle them suitably. Whenever Fred finds time and makes his way home to Alabama, he and his brother-in-law spend time out on the ranch working with the wild horses. At times, Fred will ride the wild horse until it becomes used to the human touch.

PARTIAL SHUTOUTS

The 49ers have a knack for holding opponents scoreless one quarter at a time. When holding opponents scoreless in at least one of four quarters, the 49ers are 22-10 in postseason play. When holding opponents scoreless for at least two quarters, the 49ers are 12-3. The 49ers have not accomplished the latter, however, since December 29, 1996 in a 14-0 Wild Card victory over Philadelphia.

40 PLUS

Rookie kicker Jeff Chandler made an impact on the kicking game in 2002. Chandler connected on kicks of 47 (career-high) and 42 yards against Green Bay (12-15-02). It was the first time a 49ers kicker made two field goals from 40 yards or more outdoors since Gary Anderson kicked a 43 and a 40-yarder vs. New Orleans (9-14-97). Wade Richey made kicks of 42 and 43 yards at New Orleans (10-11-98), but those kicks were made inside the Louisiana Superdome.

TWO FOR TWO

Jeff Garcia owns the two best seasons of passing to two wide receivers in 49ers history. In 2002, Terrell Owens and Tai Streets combined for 172 receptions and in 2000 Owens and Jerry Rice combined for 172 receptions. Joe Montana's best passing season to two wide receivers was in 1990 when Rice recorded 100 receptions and John Taylor grabbed 49 balls for a total of 149 receptions. Steve Young's best season throwing to two wide receivers was in 1995 when Jerry Rice made 122 receptions and J.J. Stokes had 38 receptions for a total of 160. With 172 receptions by the team's top two receivers in 2000 and 2002, Garcia has proven that he is better at getting the ball to multiple wide receivers than any quarterback in 49ers history.

JEFF GARCIA'S FOURTH QUARTER COMEBACKS

(8) Regular season (1) Postseason

September 9, 2001 vs. Atlanta, 16-13 (OT) – The 49ers began the fourth quarter with a 13-3 deficit. Garcia hit WR J.J. Stokes with a 16-yard touchdown pass to bring the 49ers within three at 13-10. Garcia then moved the team down to the Falcons two-yard line and K Jose Cortez nailed a 20-yard field goal to send the game into overtime. On the first possession of overtime, Garcia led the team to the Falcons six-yard line where Cortez kicked the 24-yard game winning field goal.

October 14, 2001 at Atlanta, 37-31 (OT) – Trailing 20-17 entering the fourth quarter, Atlanta kicked a field goal to push the score to 23-17 early in the fourth. Garcia moved the team down to the Atlanta two-yard line where RB Kevan Barlow plunged in for a touchdown to give the 49ers a one-point lead at 24-23. Atlanta answered back with a 47-yard touchdown and a two-point conversion to push the score to 31-24. Garcia hooked up with WR Terrell Owens on a 17-yard strike with 17 seconds remaining to knot the score at 31. After failing to score on their first possession of overtime, the 49ers forced the Falcons to punt. Garcia then moved the 49ers from their own 33 to the 48 and hit Owens with a 52-yard touchdown strike with 6:26 remaining in overtime for the 37-31 victory.

November 11, 2001 vs. New Orleans, 28-27 – The 49ers began the fourth quarter trailing 24-21. With 11:06 remaining, Garcia hit TE Eric Johnson on a 10-yard touchdown strike to take a 28-24 lead. The Saints hit a 36-yard field goal with 7:56 remaining to cut the lead to 28-27, but could not score again and the 49ers notched a one-point victory.

November 18, 2001 at Carolina, 25-22 (OT) – Trailing 22-14 with 1:52 remaining in the fourth quarter, the 49ers took the ball from their own 34 and moved down to the Carolina seven-yard line. There, Garcia connected with WR Terrell Owens on a seven-yard touchdown strike to bring the score to 22-20 with one second remaining in regulation. Garcia then hooked up with TE Eric Johnson for the two-point conversion to knot the score at 22. On the first possession of overtime, Garcia led the 49ers from their own 26, down to the Carolina eight-yard line, where K Jose Cortez kicked a 26-yard field goal for the 25-22 overtime victory.

September 5, 2002 vs. New York Giants, 16-13 – Tied 13-13 with 1:49 left to play in the fourth quarter, Garcia and the 49ers took possession at their own 30-yard-line. Garcia quickly found WR Terrell Owens for a 33-yard gain, then hit WR J.J. Stokes to put the team in field goal range. Garcia then handed the ball off to RB Garrison Hearst on three consecutive plays to run down the clock before K Jose Cortez kicked the game-winning 36-yard field goal.

October 14, 2002 vs. Seattle Seahawks, 28-21 – Trailing 21-20 with 10:11 left to play, the 49ers took over on their own 32-yard-line. Garcia hit RB Garrison Hearst with a 16-yard pass on third-and-four to keep the drive alive, then found WR Terrell Owens along the left sideline for a 37-yard touchdown. Garcia hooked up with Hearst again for the two-point conversion to give the 49ers a 28-21 win.

November 3, 2002 vs. Oakland Raiders, 23-20 (OT) – Tied at 13-13 entering the fourth quarter, Garcia led the 49ers down the field, connecting with WR Tai Streets on a two-yard touchdown reception. After Oakland tied the game at 20, Garcia engineered a drive down the field, setting up a potential game-winning field goal that was missed. The 49ers regained possession in overtime and Garcia again mounted an impressive 17-play drive, going 5-for-6 for 30 yards. This set up the eventual game winning kick by K Jose Cortez for the 23-20 victory.

December 8, 2002 vs. Dallas Cowboys, 31-27 – Trailing 27-17 with less than seven minutes remaining in the game, Garcia connected with WR Tai Streets on a 23-yard touchdown reception. After the 49ers defense forced the Cowboys to miss a 47-yard field goal, Garcia calmly marched the 49ers on a 13-play, 63-yard drive. He completed five passes for 49 yards and rushed for two first downs on the drive. He eventually found WR Terrell Owens in the back of the end zone for an eight-yard touchdown pass and the 31-27 victory.

January 5, 2003 vs. New York Giants (NFC Wild Card Game), 39-38 – Trailing 38-22 at the beginning of the fourth quarter, Garcia engineered the second largest comeback in NFL postseason history. Garcia hooked up with WR Terrell Owens at the beginning of the final quarter for the touchdown and two-point conversion to bring the score to 38-30. He led the 49ers on a 15-play, 74-yard drive which ended in a K Jeff Chandler field goal, which brought the 49ers within five points. He then reeled off an impressive nine-play, 68-yard drive which was capped off by a game-winning 13-yard touchdown to WR Tai Streets.

Did You Know...

Scott finds time to unwind in the offseason by mending fences on his ranch in Montana. He learned how to mend when he worked on a ranch during his spring breaks in college. While the upkeep of a ranch can be a lot of work, Gragg loves it because it gives him the chance to be his own boss and spend as much time outside as possible.

EIGHT ROUND HELP

San Francisco has had several undrafted free agents play key roles on the team. LB Brandon Moore signed as a rookie free agent before the 2002 season. Moore saw action in 13 games during 2002 season, starting two as a rookie. The 49ers signed S Ronnie Heard as a rookie free agent before the 2000 season. Heard has contributed as a starter as well as in nickel and dime defense and on special teams. In fact, Heard participated in 79.7 percent of the special team plays, the most on the team in 2001. S Zack Bronson joined the 49ers after he went undrafted in 1997. In 2001 Bronson set a CAREER-HIGH with seven interceptions. Bronson also recorded 165 return yards and scored on two of those interceptions, including a TEAM RECORD 97-yard touchdown return at Chicago (10-28-01). T Derrick Deese originally signed with the 49ers as a rookie free agent in 1992. The versatile lineman has seen time at all five positions along the offensive front during his 11-year career. Deese led the way for the 49ers to record a 1,000-yard rusher for a TEAM-RECORD fifth consecutive year in 2001.

Did You Know...

While he has not achieved executive chef status yet, Ronnie is a whiz around the kitchen. He learned how to cook when he was eight years old and continues to do all the cooking at home. He watches the Food Channel religiously and has aspirations of going to culinary school when he is finished playing football. In the meantime, Ronnie has spent many an off day in several Bay Area restaurants, learning from some of San Francisco's top chefs, including Traci DesJardins and Victor Scargle.

YARDS AFTER CATCH

With 4,125 yards receiving and 1,862 yards gained after the catch in 2002, the 49ers skill positions are one of the most dominating units in the NFL after the ball gets in their hands. The 49ers recorded more than 45 percent of their receiving yards after catching the ball in 2002. Although Terrell Owens led the team with 716 yards after the catch, Kevan Barlow had the highest average after the catch (8.0 yards). Of Barlow's 139 yards receiving, 86.3 percent of those yards came after the catch, which also led the team.

WINNING 100

When Garrison Hearst breaks the 100-yard barrier, it bodes well for the 49ers. Since 1997, Hearst has recorded 16 100-yard rushing games (including one in the playoffs, 128 vs. Green Bay in 1998). In those 16 games, the 49ers are 15-1. They are 14-1 in regular season games. Hearst is also second in team history with 15 career 100-yard games behind Joe Perry's 18.

PERSONAL: Rashad Holman was born (1-17-78) in Louisville, KY...Prepped at Male (Louisville, KY) High...Named All-State by Associated Press, Louisville Courier-Journal and Lexington Herald-Leader as senior...Also named All-District and All-County...Caught 27 passes for 780 yards as senior...Also registered 65 tackles and rushed for 392 yards...Accounted for 19 touchdowns in final season...Member of State Championship team in 1993...Lettered three years in football and basketball and two years in baseball...Single...Resides in Louisville, KY.

Did You Know...

From the time he learned to read, Rashad has loved reading encyclopedias. He has a passion for facts and learning about things he doesn't know and he found encyclopedias to be a perfect solution to his questions. He especially loves getting the annual year in review and ranking his hometown Louisville against other cities. He looks at air pollution, population growth, weather and anything else that the book has to offer. To add to his love of reading, his mother once tried to introduce him to novels but he never got into it because they weren't real and encyclopedias had the facts that Rashad craved.

POSTSEASON PLAYERS

Once again, the 49ers opened the postseason door. In fact, that door has opened for them more than any team since 1992. San Francisco qualified for nine of the last 11 postseasons. Green Bay earned a spot for the eighth time in the last 11 seasons, one off the pace.

COMEBACK KIDS

In terms of points, the 49ers 24-point comeback win against the New York Giants is the fifth greatest turnaround in NFL history. It is the second best comeback in postseason history, trailing only Buffalo's 32-point rally against Houston in 1992. What makes San Francisco's comeback all the more impressive is that they did it in just 19:27 and they scored on all four of their remaining possessions, three touchdowns and one field goal. Of the top five rally wins in NFL history, the 49ers join the St. Louis Cardinals as the only teams to score on all of their final possessions to win. The Cardinals rallied from a 28-3 deficit in 16:41, scoring three touchdowns on their three offensive possessions and adding a fumble return for the fourth touchdown. The 16:41 elapsed is the shortest amount of time needed to comeback, while San Francisco's is second. The 49ers averaged 1.25 points per minute.

Did You Know...

It is hard to imagine Terrell Owens ever freezing up under the spotlight, but that's exactly what happened when he made a recent celebrity appearance on Wheel of Fortune. Terrell was raised by his grandmother, Alice Black, who had strict rules that included no sports and virtually no television. The one program he was allowed to watch was Wheel of Fortune and when he made the guest appearance he found himself awestruck when he touched and heard the wheel.

TO'S TDS

Terrell Owens has found a safe haven in the end zone in the last three years. He is the touchdown receiving leader with 42 since 2000.

T.O. TIMES TWO

Terrell Owens has proven that he has a nose for the end zone. In 2002, he was quite proficient at doing it more than once a game. Owens recorded five multiple touchdown games last season, which matched the career-high he established in 2001. The NFL record of seven multiple touchdown games is held by Cris Carter (1995) and Jerry Rice (1987).

Did You Know...

Growing up, Tony wanted to play football. He wanted to play the sport so badly that he would put on his dad's old football helmet and go outside and head butt the walls. While his parents admired his passion they weren't pleased with the stucco that fell off the walls.

Did You Know...

During his junior and senior year at Crossland High Julian got a job installing and repairing air conditioning and heating units. While Peterson naturally enjoyed building and working with his hands, the job required training. He had to take a three-hour, five day a week course at Crossland before he and his classmates could see time in the field.

SPECIAL PLAYER

It sounded special when Julian Peterson lined up at four positions against Dallas – linebacker, defensive end, strong safety and cornerback. That's because it was special. The Hall of Fame confirmed that Peterson is the first player since the NFL-AFL merger in 1970 to play four positions in one game.

Mike is in the initial stages of starting his own car collection. Currently he has a 1971 Chevy Impala with 20-inch rims and a 450-horsepower racing engine. Eventually, he would like to enter his car in some car shows on the West Coast because he believes there is a difference between how they build up cars on the East Coast and on the West Coast. In the near future, Mike plans on purchasing and restoring a 1971 Oldsmobile Cutlass.

Did You Know...

Rashaan's success as a running back earned him the Heisman Trophy as a junior at Colorado. However, he did not take a traditional route to achieve that success. Sure he starred in high school before receiving a scholarship and later getting drafted in the NFL, but he played eight-man football at La Jolla Country Day High in San Diego. It was a different version, but the only game he enjoyed.

Did You Know...

Footballs aren't the only thing Tai loves to catch. His father taught him to fish when he was just a kid and since then he's tried to hit the water whenever he's not on the field with the 49ers or coaching AAU basketball. Tai once saw someone catch a 30-pound catfish, but claims that catching the big one isn't his goal. The big one might not be the prize he has his eyes on, but he admits he loves the opportunity to try and out catch his dad.

70-70 CLUB

Despite the legacy of great wide receivers in San Francisco, the 49ers have had its top two wideouts register 70 or more receptions in the same season only twice in team history. Terrell Owens (97) and Jerry Rice (75) were the first 49ers wide receiver combination to reach the 70-catch plateau. In 2002, Owens finished with 100 receptions for 1,300 yards, while Tai Streets had 72 for 756 yards to join the club. There have been four other 49ers combinations to reach 70-70, but they were either a wide receiver and a running back, or a wide receiver and tight end.

ONE TWO PUNCH

The production the 49ers have gotten out of Tai Streets was noticeable in 2002. The increase in production has given the 49ers a formidable one-two receiving punch. In fact, Terrell Owens and Streets combined for 118 receptions for 1,313 yards in the final eight games of the season, an average of 14.8 receptions for 164.2 yards per game.

MOST IMPROVED

Tai Streets has made an immediate impact with his increased role in the offense. The five-year veteran caught 44 more receptions in 2002 than 2001, good for the third-highest improvement in team history. With 756 receiving yards, Streets improved by 411 yards, good for sixth all-time in team history.

Did You Know...

Whenever Fred Weary has gotten his hands on the football he has made the most of his opportunities, especially the first times he has touched it. The first time Fred ever touched a football in a little league, high school and college game he scored a touchdown. He ended that streak in the NFL, but barely. As a running back in his first little league game with the S.Y.A.A. Stars, Fred ran 60 yards for a touchdown on his very first carry. Then on his first touch in high school Fred returned a kickoff 88 yards for a touchdown. He kept the streak going at Florida as a freshman when he recovered a blocked punt against Ole Miss and returned it 14 yards for a touchdown. In the NFL, it was the second touch that got him into the end zone. In his rookie year with New Orleans he intercepted two passes against Atlanta and on the second pick he took it back 63 yards for the score.

6-1 234

Arizona

PRO: Signed by 49ers as undrafted free agent (5-2-03).

COLLEGE: Finished two-year career at Arizona with 122 tackles and four interceptions...Started 11-of-12 games as senior, finishing second on team with 77 tackles...Also registered three interceptions, one sack, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery...Earned squad's Special Teams Player-of-the-Year and first-team All-Pac-10 honors on special teams...Started all 11 games as junior, finishing with 45 tackles, two sacks, one interception, two passes defended and one forced fumble...Named Most Improved Defensive Player on team...Redshirted first year at Arizona...Registered 216 tackles, 8.5 sacks, three interceptions and one fumble return for touchdown in two-year career at Mesa (San Diego, CA) Junior College...Was also conference champion in track and field.

PERSONAL: Born Raymond Eugene Wells (8-20-80) in Oakland, CA...Earned two varsity football letters at Mount Miguel (Spring Valley, CA) High...Named first-team All-Conference in football for two years and was team captain...Notched 155 tackles, four interceptions, 6.5 sacks and three forced fumbles as senior...Had 95 tackles, two interceptions and seven sacks as junior...All-City track selection, team captain and CIF champion in hurdles...Married longtime girlfriend, Arika, in San Diego, CA on July 20, 2002...Resides in Tucson, AZ.

LB Derek Smith led the 49ers in tackles again in 2002 and it was his sixth consecutive season with 100 or more tackles.

LEADING THE WAY

With 49ers fullback Fred Beasley as the lead blocker, the 49ers backfield has rushed the ball 274 times for 1,287 yards for 4.7 yards per carry. When he is not leading the way, the 49ers backs rushed the ball 125 times for 510 yards for 4.1 yards per carry. An example of his dominance as a lead blocker was the first game against Seattle (10-14), when the 49ers rushed for 95 yards on 17 carries (5.6 avg.) with Beasley lead blocking. Without him, the backs had 14 yards on five carries (2.8 avg.).

STRONG STARTERS

Many things contributed to San Francisco's fast return from salary cap oblivion. One factor was acquiring talent, both young and experienced, that was capable of making an impact, especially on defense. All but one of the 49ers starting defensive players was selected in the first three rounds of the NFL draft. San Francisco had four first rounders (Young, Carter, Plummer and Peterson), two second rounders (Webster, Parrish) and four third-round picks (Flanigan, Ulbrich, Engelberger and Smith) on their starting defense in 2002. Zack Bronson is the only undrafted starter on the unit.

REVAMPED ROSTER

A closer look at the 49ers depth chart last season shows that the 49ers have been successful with the players they have drafted and signed as free agents over the last four years. San Francisco acquired 14 of their 22 starters either via the draft or free agency since 1999. They have landed their leading passer (Jeff Garcia), tackler (Derek Smith) and interceptor (Tony Parrish) through free agency. San Francisco also drafted its leading sacker (Andre Carter) during that time.

THE MAGIC NUMBER IS 17

If San Francisco holds its opponents to 17 points or less, they are usually successful. The 49ers have a 35-game winning streak in these games dating back to the season opener in 1997 against Tampa Bay (13-6 loss). The team has an overall record of 278-53-4 since 1950 when it has held its opponent to 17 points or less.

DEJA-VU

For the first time in team history, San Francisco rushed for the same amount of yards and touchdowns. What's more interesting is that the feat occurred in successive seasons. The 49ers rushed for 2,244 yards and 16 rushing touchdowns in 2001 and 2002. San Francisco rushed 20 more times in 2001 (509 attempts) than in 2002 (489 attempts) to reach the same amount.

GAME 1
VS. NEW YORK GIANTS
SEPTEMBER 5, 2002 @ GIANTS STADIUM
WON 16-13      RECORD 1-0

K Jose Cortez made up for two early misses, kicking a 36-yard field goal with six seconds remaining, lifting the 49ers to a 16-13 victory over the New York Giants in the season opener for both teams.

The big play on the 49ers game-winning drive came courtesy of WR Terrell Owens. He turned a 14-yard catch from QB Jeff Garcia into a 33-yard gain to put the 49ers within striking distance at the Giants 37-yard line.

San Francisco's defense came up with the game's first big play when S Tony Parrish intercepted a QB Kerry Collins pass deep in Giants territory. The 49ers offense had the ball first-and-goal, but was unable to capitalize after Cortez's field goal attempt was blocked.

New York took advantage of the missed 49ers field goal, and several defensive penalties, to put the first points of the game on the board with a 29-yard field goal from K Matt Bryant. This gave the Giants a 3-0 lead with 5:52 remaining in the first quarter.

After another Cortez missed field goal, the Giants launched a quick nine-play drive that ended with a 33-yard field goal by Bryant to end the first half.

The 49ers took advantage of good field position for the first time in the game, resulting in an eight-play, 52-yard scoring drive that was capped by a nine-yard RB Garrison Hearst touchdown reception giving the 49ers a 10-6 lead.

The 49ers took over at their own 48-yard line after a bad punt from Giants P Matt Allen. Driving down to the Giants 34-yard line, the 49ers appeared to be in trouble facing third-and-three. A quick swing pass to RB Kevan Barlow turned into a 29-yard catch-and-run, putting the 49ers within striking distance. Three plays later Garcia connected with Hearst for the touchdown.

San Francisco extended its lead with a 33-yard field goal from Cortez. His second field goal of the day gave the 49ers a 13-6 lead with just over eight minutes remaining in the game.

Cortez's game-winning field goal came just after a Giants 14-play, 77-yard scoring drive that ended with a one-yard touchdown run by RB Tiki Barber to tie the game, 13-13, with 1:55 remaining.

Defensively, the 49ers received a monster performance from LB Jamie Winborn, who finished with a career-high 16 tackles. CB Jason Webster added 12 stops and Parrish finished with seven. Parrish, LB Julian Peterson and S Zack Bronson recorded interceptions.

Offensively, Garcia led San Francisco with 166 yards passing. Hearst had 40 yards rushing and Barlow added 67 total yards.

GAME 2

VS. DENVER BRONCOS

SEPTEMBER 15, 2002 @ 3COM PARK

LOST 24-14 RECORD 1-1

The Denver Broncos took advantage of some self-destructive 49ers behavior and a strong running attack to defeat the San Francisco 49ers, 24-14, in their home opener.

San Francisco committed 10 untimely penalties for 114 yards. The infractions took their toll in the second half and turned what was a close game into a Broncos rout. Denver controlled the line of scrimmage, rushing for 201 yards on 36 carries, good for a 5.6 yard average per carry.

The 49ers started the game strong, with QB Jeff Garcia finding WR Terrell Owens for an eight-yard touchdown reception in the second quarter.

After the two teams exchanged possessions, K Jason Elam cut into San Francisco's lead with a 28-yard field goal.

Leading 7-3 at halftime, San Francisco opened the second half on a downward slide they could not correct. Denver took advantage of three 49ers penalties and quickly marched down the field.

The Broncos embarked on a 74-yard drive, aided by 24 yards of penalties, that resulted in a one-yard touchdown pass from QB Brian Griese to FB Mike Anderson.

With time running out in the third quarter and the Broncos facing third-and-four from the 49ers 40-yard line, Griese launched a desperation bomb towards WR Rod Smith in the end zone. Contact between S Ronnie Heard and Smith resulted in a pass interference call and a 39-yard penalty.

Two plays later Olandis Gary punched into the end zone from the one-yard line.

The Broncos widened their lead with an 11-yard touchdown pass from Griese to WR Scottie Montgomery. It was Montgomery's first career touchdown reception.

The 49ers responded in the two-minute drill with a one-yard touchdown sneak by Garcia. He led the 49ers with 205 yards passing. RB Kevan Barlow was San Francisco's top ground gainer with 47 yards. Defensively, LB Julian Peterson led the way with eight tackles and one sack. CB Jason Webster added seven tackles and S Tony Parrish recovered a fumble.

GAME 3 VS. WASHINGTON REDSKINS SEPTEMBER 22, 2002 @ 3COM PARK WON 20-10 RECORD 2-1

Illness and injury turned into a battle of attrition as the 49ers used their ground attack to secure a 20-10 victory over the visiting Washington Redskins in San Francisco.

The 49ers first score of the game came courtesy of their defense, which played an inspired four quarters. On the Redskins second possession of the day, LB Julian Peterson stripped RB Stephen Davis of the ball and S Tony Parrish recovered and ran 10 yards before being tackled at the Washington 14-yard line. Two plays later RB Kevan Barlow strolled in untouched from seven yards out and the 49ers had a lead they would not relinquish.

Washington put its first points of the game on the board with a 33-yard field goal by K James Tuthill before WR Terrell Owens stole the show. Owens turned what was a broken play into a thing of highlight film beauty.

Benefiting from a 23-yard CB Jimmy Williams punt return, the 49ers had first-and-10 from the Washington 38-yard line. On the very first play, QB Jeff Garcia handed off to Owens on an apparent reverse, but Owens twice pulled up to pass and twice eluded Redskins defenders before reversing direction.

As he cut back towards the Redskins sideline, Owens received a big block from RB Garrison Hearst, who leveled CB Fred Smoot at the 30-yard line. Continuing down the sideline, Owens picked up another big block from the most unlikely of sources when Garcia took down S Sam Shade at the four-yard line as Owens hopped his way into the end zone.

The 38-yard run was part of a 252-yard rushing day for the 49ers that had a pair of backs surpass the 90-yard mark. Hearst would finish the day with 19 carries for 97 yards and Barlow added 94 yards on 15 carries.

K Jose Cortez completed the 49ers scoring with field goals of 33 and 35 yards. The Redskins received a 19-yard touchdown from QB Shane Matthews to TE Zeron Flemeister.

QB Tim Rattay replaced Garcia at quarterback for the 49ers to open the second half. Garcia had been battling the stomach flu and was given an IV at halftime. He returned for one series in the third quarter, but was quickly pulled and Rattay finished the game behind center.

Garcia completed 10-of-19 passes for 84 yards in his limited action. Rattay was 5-of-9 for 41 yards.

GAME 4 VS. ST. LOUIS RAMS OCTOBER 6, 2002 @ 3COM PARK WON 37-13 RECORD 3-1

A complete offensive performance and an opportunistic defense were the keys to the 49ers ending their six-game losing streak against St. Louis with a resounding 37-13 victory in San Francisco.

The Rams, starting QB Jamie Martin in place of the injured QB Kurt Warner, began the scoring with a 38-yard field goal by K Jeff Wilkins.

San Francisco responded with its own field goal, a 33-yarder by K Jose Cortez, to knot the score at three apiece.

The 49ers grabbed the lead when QB Jeff Garcia connected with WR J.J. Stokes on a 13-yard touchdown pass.

San Francisco added to its lead with a seven-play, 96-yard scoring drive, capped by a six-yard touchdown run over the left guard by Garcia. The key play on the drive was a 51-yard reception by Stokes from Garcia.

Cortez added another field goal, this time from 21 yards out, to extend the 49ers lead to 20-3. The field goal was a result of a 50-yard interception return of a Martin pass by S Tony Parrish.

However, the play that turned out to be the nail in the coffin was a 37-yard interception return for a touchdown by CB Jason Webster on a pass intended for RB Marshall Faulk. The play occurred with four seconds left in the half and extended San Francisco's lead to 27-6.

The 49ers widened their lead on a 32-yard Cortez field goal and a 16-yard touchdown run by RB Garrison Hearst. The Rams tacked on their final score in the fourth quarter on a seven-yard touchdown pass to RB Lamar Gordon.

Garcia completed 18-of-26 passes for 214 yards, throwing and running for one touchdown apiece. Hearst paced a strong running game with 116 of the 49ers 179 total rushing yards.

Parrish had a stellar day, recording a takeaway for the fourth consecutive game. He finished with seven tackles and four passes defended. LB Derek Smith also added a game-high 11 tackles.

GAME 5
VS. SEATTLE SEAHAWKS
OCTOBER 14, 2002 @ SEAHAWKS STADIUM
WON 28-21 RECORD 4-1

WR Terrell Owens' two touchdown scores and two interceptions by the 49ers defense were enough to hold off an inspired Seattle Seahawks squad, 28-21, on Monday Night Football. With the victory, the 49ers improved to 4-1 overall.

Seattle took a 14-13 lead at halftime, despite two K Jose Cortez field goals and a QB Jeff Garcia-to-Owens touchdown pass. The 49ers managed to keep the game close despite losing players at a rapid rate. S Zack Bronson suffered a broken foot, RB Terry Jackson tore the ACL in his right knee and DE John Engelberger had a high ankle sprain that kept him out of action.

The second half opened as a ground game for both teams. San Francisco started the second-half scoring, when pinned at their own one-yard line, kept the ball on the ground eight times for 47 yards on a 99-yard scoring drive. The drive was capped with a six-yard scoring plunge by RB Kevan Barlow to put the 49ers up, 20-14, with 5:22 remaining in the third quarter.

The Seahawks quickly answered the 49ers scoring drive with one of their own, traveling 76 yards in eight plays and capping the drive with a one-yard run by RB Shaun Alexander. Alexander carried five times for 48 yards in the series.

Owens again came up big for the 49ers when he hauled in a 37-yard pass from Garcia that put the 49ers ahead by five. San Francisco followed that up with a two-point conversion pass from Garcia to RB Garrison Hearst and the 49ers led by seven, 28-21, with 5:14 remaining.

Owens finished the game with six receptions for 84 yards and two touchdowns. Garcia had perhaps his finest all-around game of the season, finishing 16-of-29 for 202 yards and two scores. He also rushed seven times for 48 yards.

The 49ers defense received interceptions from Bronson and CB Ahmed Plummer.

GAME 6

VS. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS

OCTOBER 20, 2002 @ LOUISIANA SUPERDOME

LOST 35-27 RECORD 4-2

After leading for much of the game, two second-half turnovers and the inability to stop RB Deuce McAllister led to the New Orleans Saints posting a 35-27 victory over the 49ers in the Superdome.

San Francisco opened the scoring on the game's opening possession. QB Jeff Garcia calmly led the team downfield on a 12-play, 77-yard scoring drive that was capped with a four-yard touchdown pass to WR Terrell Owens.

The Saints answered immediately, thanks to a solid 38-yard kick return by WR Michael Lewis. QB Aaron Brooks connected with McAllister on a four-yard touchdown pass that capped the 11-play, six-minute drive.

The 49ers answered on their next possession. Taking over at the 17-yard line, Garcia again directed an impressive drive completing 3-of-3 passes and rushing for 12 yards to put the 49ers within scoring position. A 12-yard pass to RB Kevan Barlow put the team on the two, where RB Garrison Hearst punched it over the goal line.

San Francisco's defense then came up with a fumble by Lewis that was recovered by DT Jim Flanigan. Eleven plays and 63 yards later, K Jose Cortez gave the 49ers a 10-point lead with his 24-yard field goal.

The Saints responded with a 46-yard field goal by K John Carney to make the score 17-10 San Francisco at halftime.

The second half opened with the Saints scoring on a Carney field goal. The 49ers responded with Hearst's eight-yard touchdown run on the team's first possession of the second half, extending the 49ers lead to 24-13. The drive was the third scoring drive of 11 plays or longer for the 49ers.

But that was about as good as it would get for the 49ers, who struggled to finish the game. WR Joe Horn caught a 10-yard touchdown pass from Brooks to make the score 24-19 in favor of the 49ers with 12:35 left in the game. The Saints attempted the two-point conversion, but McAllister was denied short of the goal line by LB Jeff Ulbrich.

On the 49ers next possession, Barlow's fumble led to a 20-yard touchdown pass from Brooks to Horn, their second connection of the day. The score and subsequent missed two-point conversion gave the Saints a 25-24 lead.

The teams then traded field goals to make the score 28-27 in favor of New Orleans with over three minutes remaining. The 49ers offense took over, but the drive was short-lived as Garcia was intercepted by CB Ken Irvin at the 49ers 37-yard line.

The interception led to a one-yard touchdown run by Brooks that put the Saints up by seven. There was a penalty called on New Orleans for illegal substitution, but it was declined by the 49ers who instead chose to get the ball back with two minutes left and trailing by eight.

The 49ers launched a last ditch effort down to the New Orleans 39-yard line, but Barlow was unable to get out of bounds in time as the game ended.

GAME 7 VS. ARIZONA CARDINALS OCTOBER 27, 2002 @ 3COM PARK WON 38-28 RECORD 5-2

In a game for first place in the NFC West, S Ronnie Heard recorded the first three-interception game of his career to lead San Francisco to a 38-28 victory against the Arizona Cardinals. With the win, the 49ers improved to 5-2 overall and took the lead in the NFC West with a 3-0 mark.

San Francisco's defense came up with a turnover on the game's first play from scrimmage. DE Andre Carter sacked QB Jake Plummer and forced the ball loose which was recovered by DT Dana Stubblefield. Four plays later, K Jose Cortez connected on a 45-yard field goal to give the 49ers a 3-0 lead.

San Francisco extended its lead to 10-0 after a 21-yard QB Jeff Garcia-to-WR Terrell Owens touchdown pass. The 21-yard score capped a nine-play, 73-yard drive. Garcia was 4-of-7 for 63 yards on the drive.

Garcia's second touchdown toss of the day was a 47-yard connection to WR Tai Streets. The play was set up by a 17-yard interception return by Heard, who came up with the loose ball after Jake Plummer's pass to David Boston was knocked away by CB Jason Webster.

San Francisco's special teams unit led to the fourth score of the day. CB Jimmy Williams' 43-yard punt return had the 49ers in great position at the Cardinals 43-yard line. Seven plays later, RB Kevan Barlow trotted in from five yards out to give the 49ers a 24-0 lead in the second quarter.

Arizona's offense finally got rolling on its ensuing possession. The Cardinals marched 68 yards in eight plays, capping the drive with a seven-yard touchdown run by RB Marcel Shipp with 9:22 remaining in the first half.

Heard came up big again late in the second quarter. With the Cardinals driving at the 49ers 17-yard line, Plummer looked for TE Freddie Jones in the left corner of the end zone. Heard broke around Jones and grabbed his second interception of the day.

San Francisco's offense took over at the 20-yard line where Garcia and Owens would connect for their second touchdown of the day, this time a 61-yarder to close out the half.

Arizona opened the second half with an impressive scoring drive of its own. Plummer did most of the damage on the drive and capped it with a 34-yard touchdown run straight down the middle of the field. The Cardinals kept coming on their next possession. Plummer again led the team downfield, marching 68 yards in 12 plays. Shipp capped the drive with his second touchdown of the day, this one from 11 yards out that cut the 49ers lead to 10 points at 31-21.

The 49ers and Garcia answered the Cardinals challenge with a solid scoring drive. Williams had a 50-yard kickoff return that put the 49ers into Arizona territory. Seven plays later, Garcia connected with Barlow from nine yards out, pushing the lead back to 17 points.

The Cardinals would answer the 49ers score with an 11-play, 69-yard scoring drive that was capped with a seven-yard touchdown run by Thomas Jones. The 49ers lead was cut to 10 at 38-28.

After a San Francisco punt, the Cardinals took over. Plummer led Arizona down the field on successive passes of 22 and 25 yards to Boston and WR Frank Sanders respectively. On the fifth play of the drive at the San Francisco 25-yard line, Heard intercepted his third pass of the day to end Arizona's scoring threat.

The 49ers took over and ran out the final five minutes of the game to secure the victory.

GAME 8 VS. OAKLAND RAIDERS NOVEMBER 3, 2002 @ NETWORK ASSOC. COLISEUM WON 23-20 (OT) RECORD 6-2

K Jose Cortez missed a chance to win the game in regulation when his 27-yard kick was wide left, but made good on his shot at redemption. His 23-yard effort in overtime lifted the 49ers to a 23-20 win over the Raiders in Oakland.

QB Jeff Garcia and WR Terrell Owens shined with impressive performances. Garcia finished the day 25-of-36 for 282 yards and two touchdowns. He also rushed 10 times for 46 yards on the day. Owens finished with 12 receptions for 191 yards, despite battling leg cramps for the entire second half.

The 49ers offense and offensive line performed best when the pressure was on. The unit held the ball for a 13-play drive at the end of regulation, then added a 17-play drive in overtime for the game winner – an incredible 30 consecutive plays on offense.

Oakland scored first after a fumble by RB Garrison Hearst that was recovered at the 32-yard line. The Raiders capitalized, completing a five-play, 32-yard drive when QB Rich Gannon connected with WR Jerry Porter for a one-yard touchdown and a 7-0 Oakland lead.

After a 20-yard field goal by Cortez, LB Brandon Moore stripped the ball from Oakland's Ronald Curry on the ensuing kickoff. The ball was recovered by S Jason Moore deep in Raiders territory.

The 49ers offense took over at the 16-yard line and on the third play of the drive, Garcia hit WR Cedrick Wilson from 11 yards out to give the 49ers a 10-7 lead. The touchdown reception was the first of Wilson's career.

The Raiders tied the game on a 42-yard field goal by K Sebastian Janikowski with nine minutes remaining in the second quarter. Oakland later took a 13-10 lead with 15 seconds remaining in the half on a 23-yard field goal by the Oakland kicker.

The second half opened with San Francisco wasting little time in tying up the ballgame. The 49ers took the opening possession of the second half and marched 60 yards in nine plays. Cortez capped the drive with his second field goal of the day, this one from 22 yards out to tie the score at 13.

San Francisco surged ahead when Garcia connected with WR Tai Streets from three yards out to cap a 15-play, 88-yard drive that took up 8:49 off the clock.

On the ensuing kickoff, Cortez kicked the ball out of bounds and Oakland took over at its 40-yard line. The 49ers defense appeared to have come up with a big third down stop, but the Raiders converted a fourth-and-three with a 15-yard pass from Gannon to Porter. Three plays later, former 49ers RB Charlie Garner rambled in from 10 yards out to tie the score at 20.

San Francisco took over and marched 13 plays and was in scoring position before Cortez missed his 27-yard effort to send the game into OT. The 49ers again launched an impressive drive – this one 17 plays in length – that ended with the 23-yard game winner by Cortez.

MOVING FORWARD

There are not many players more proficient at breaking tackles than Kevan Barlow. He has the knack of almost always gaining positive yardage. In fact, he has gained yards 85.8 percent of the time he touches the ball. Of the 304 touches he has in a 49ers uniform, he has lost yards only 22 times, or 7.23 percent of the time. He loses yardage once in every 13.8 times he touches the ball. He has produced positive yardage 261 of the 304 times he has handled the ball. He has amassed 600 yards after contact for a 3.6 average. In 2002, Barlow gained 72 percent of his 833 total yards after contact.

GAME 9
VS. KANSAS CITY CHIEFS
NOVEMBER 10, 2002 @ 3COM PARK
WON 17-13      RECORD 7-2

For the 49ers it was one amazing half of offensive football and one swatted ball from LB Julian Peterson that proved to be the difference in their 17-13 victory over the visiting Kansas City Chiefs.

The 49ers offense made it look easy in the first half as they scored on three of four possessions. San Francisco scored on drives of 15, 11 and 11 plays, and had control of the ball for more than 23 minutes in the opening half to take a 17-10 lead into halftime.

San Francisco took the opening kickoff and drove 56 yards in 15 plays, capping the effort with a 42-yard field goal from K Jose Cortez to take a 3-0 lead.

Kansas City responded with a nine-play, 48-yard drive on the ensuing possession. K Morten Anderson capped the scoring drive with a 33-yard field goal to tie the score at three.

The 49ers second drive was an 11-play, 71-yard effort that was capped by a five-yard touchdown run from RB Garrison Hearst. Hearst's scoring run was set up by a 19-yard reverse by WR Terrell Owens. Owens took the ball from Hearst and ran down the Chiefs sideline, picking up a block from QB Jeff Garcia along the way.

Kansas City wasted little time in slicing through the 49ers defense. RB Priest Holmes capped the four-play, 50-yard drive with a 12-yard touchdown run. The drive was set-up by a 36-yard kick-off return from WR Dante Hall.

The 49ers third score of the day capped an 11-play, 58-yard drive that took 6:26 off the clock. San Francisco converted all three third downs on the drive, including the six-yard touchdown run by RB Kevan Barlow.

San Francisco's defense came up with the first three-and-out of the game on Kansas City's next possession. DT Dana Stubblefield provided the key blow with a six-yard sack of QB Trent Green on third-and-nine, forcing a Kansas City punt.

The scoring cooled considerably in the second half with the Chiefs finally breaking the ice early in the fourth quarter. Anderson's second field goal of the day brought Kansas City within four points, 17-13, with 14:21 remaining in the game.

That amazing first half gave way to a second half that saw the 49ers come close to losing the game before Peterson saved the day. With the Chiefs driving in 49ers territory and time running out, Green lofted a fourth-down pass intended for TE Tony Gonzalez, but Peterson was there to bat the ball away and give it back to the 49ers offense.

Hearst led the 49ers in rushing with 15 carries for 69 yards, including his five-yard touchdown run.

GAME 10 VS. SAN DIEGO CHARGERS NOVEMBER 17, 2002 @ QUALCOMM STADIUM LOST 20-17 (OT) RECORD 7-3

San Francisco went into overtime for the second time in three weeks when they were defeated by San Diego 20-17 at Qualcomm Stadium.

Taking over at their own 31-yard line, QB Drew Brees calmly led the Chargers downfield, completing two key third-down passes along the way. The end result was a perfectly struck 40-yard field goal by K Steve Christie that gave San Diego the 20-17 victory.

The 49ers WR Terrell Owens was heavily involved in the offense. QB Jeff Garcia hit Owens on a 32-yard fly pattern for a touchdown with 1:04 remaining in the second quarter to tie the score at seven.

Owens second touchdown on the day was a 76-yard catch-and-run from Garcia on the third play of the second half to give the 49ers a 14-7 lead.

Owens' second score was notable in that it was the 40th time that he and Garcia connected for a touchdown and marked the 15th career game in which Owens has scored multiple touchdowns.

Cortez added a 24-yard field goal later in the third quarter to extend the lead to 10 points, 17-7, but that would be all for the 49ers.

The Chargers cut the 49ers lead to seven on a 36-yard field goal by Christie with 5:10 remaining. San Diego sent the game into overtime with Fred McCrary's one-yard touchdown pass from Brees with 35 seconds remaining to tie the score at 17.

The 49ers special teams surrendered a 40-yard kickoff return to open overtime, but the defense held against the short field, and the 49ers offense took over, setting up K Jose Cortez's missed effort from 41 yards and Christie's winning kick.

Owens finished the day with seven receptions for 171 yards and two scores. Garcia threw for 337 yards and two touchdowns.

Brees threw for 336 yards against the 49ers secondary.

GAME II VS. PHILADELPHIA EAGLES NOVEMBER 25, 2002 @ 3COM PARK LOST 38-17    RECORD 7-4

In a game where Philadelphia played without injured QB Donovan McNabb, the 49ers were handed a 38-17 defeat at the hands of the Eagles.

One of the lone bright spots for San Francisco was the play of WR Terrell Owens, who had yet another 100-yard, multi-touchdown outing.

It was an unfortunate ending for the Eagles starting QB Koy Detmer, who left the game late in the third quarter with a dislocated left elbow. Detmer, who was being tackled by DE Chike Okefor, braced his fall on his left arm when the injury occurred.

Detmer finished the night 18-of-26 for 227 yards and two touchdowns. He also rushed once for a score before leaving the contest.

The loss of Detmer didn't stop the Eagles. QB A.J. Feeley replaced Detmer and promptly tossed a one-yard scoring pass to TE Chad Lewis.

Philadelphia received big plays from every facet of its team. RB Brian Mitchell scored on a 76-yard punt return and the combination of Eagles quarterbacks had little trouble with an ineffective 49ers defense.

Philadelphia's WR Todd Pinkston hauled in a 25-yard pass from Detmer early in the second quarter to put the Eagles on the board first.

The Eagles extended their first half lead late in the second quarter. Detmer threw his second touchdown pass of the night, this one to WR Antonio Freeman.

It took almost two full quarters, but the 49ers offense finally found some rhythm and it came, as usual, courtesy of Owens. QB Jeff Garcia connected with Owens on a 32-yard strike down the middle of the field to the Eagles 27-yard line. Six plays later the pair connected again, this time on a three-yard fade pattern to put the 49ers on the board. Owens' touchdown pulled the 49ers to within seven points, 14-7, with 6:16 remaining in the first half.

The 49ers special teams surrendered the Eagles second score of the day. P Jason Baker's punt was returned 76 yards for a touchdown by Mitchell, who became the NFL's all-time leader in return scores with 13.

The score at halftime was 21-7 Philadelphia.

K Jeff Chandler drilled the first field goal of his NFL career, a 35-yard effort to open the second half scoring. The kick capped a nine-play, 59-yard drive on the opening possession of the third quarter.

Philadelphia quickly matched the 49ers field goal with a seven-play, 64-yard scoring drive that was capped with a one-yard run by Detmer.

On the next Philadelphia drive, Feeley promptly tossed the aforementioned one-yard touchdown to Lewis.

San Francisco answered immediately with a no huddle offense that resulted in Owens' second score of the night. Garcia completed four-of-four passes for all of the drive's 68 yards.

Philadelphia would add a K David Akers field goal to make the final score 38-17.

GAME 12

VS. SEATTLE SEAHAWKS

DECEMBER 1, 2002 @ 3COM PARK

WON 31-24 RECORD 8-4

RB Garrison Hearst ran for 124 yards and a career-high three touchdowns as the 49ers beat the Seahawks, 31-24, in San Francisco. The win improved the 49ers record to 8-4 on the season.

Hearst added his third touchdown of the day as the 49ers took a 31-10 lead over the Seahawks with 13:25 remaining in the game. Hearst's score capped a 10-play, 94-yard drive that began after the defense recorded their second takeaway of the game.

The Seahawks rallied with two scores after that to cut the 49ers lead to seven points at 31-24 with less than two minutes remaining. Seattle recovered the onside kick and was driving, but QB Matt Hasselback was picked off by CB Rashad Holman at the 49ers 31-yard line to seal the victory.

San Francisco closed the first half with a scoring frenzy after not scoring for the first 24 minutes of the game. The 49ers posted 17 points to take a 17-3 lead over Seattle as the teams entered halftime.

CB Jimmy Williams returned a punt 89 yards for a touchdown with 2:48 left in the first half. The last time the 49ers had a punt return for a touchdown was 1998 when CB R.W. McQuarters scored against the St. Louis Rams.

Williams' touchdown came after Hearst punched it in from five yards out to cap a 14-play, 70-yard drive to give the 49ers a 7-3 lead with 5:45 remaining in the second quarter.

San Francisco's third score came on a 23-yard K Jeff Chandler field goal with just over 20 seconds remaining in the first half.

Hasselback led the Seahawks on a 12-play, 91-yard drive that was capped with a 20-yard field goal from K Rian Lindell to put them on the board first. Hasselback completed six-of-eight passes on the drive.

The second half scoring kicked off with an assist from the 49ers defense. S Tony Parrish, making his first start at free safety, came up with an interception and returned it deep into Seahawks territory. Three plays later, Hearst scored from one-yard out to extend the San Francisco lead to 24-3.

Seattle scored on a 36-yard WR Darrell Jackson touchdown pass from Hasselback to cut the 49ers lead to 14 points, 24-10, before Hearst answered with his third score of the game.

GAME 13 VS. DALLAS COWBOYS DECEMBER 8, 2002 @ TEXAS STADIUM WON 31-27 RECORD 9-4

QB Jeff Garcia threw two fourth-quarter touchdowns to WR Terrell Owens as the 49ers defeated Dallas 31-27 in Dallas. Not only did Owens' touchdowns give the 49ers the win, but the victory gave the 49ers their first NFC West Championship since 1997.

Owens' first scoring catch of the day was a thing of beauty, but it was his second that stole the show. His grab of a Jeff Garcia pass in the end zone with 15 seconds remaining was the difference maker.

The Pro Bowl wide receiver finished the day with 12 catches for 123 yards and two touchdowns. Eight of his receptions came after halftime and six of his receptions came in the fourth quarter.

Garcia rallied back from a tough first half to finish 36-of-55 for 276 yards and three touchdowns through the air. He added a 21-yard rushing effort in the second quarter to account for the team's lone score of the half.

WR Tai Streets finished with six receptions for 36 yards and one score.

S Tony Parrish played an inspired game with his dislocated elbow. The veteran had two interceptions, one of which led to a 49ers score. LB Julian Peterson displayed his versatility against Dallas, lining up at defensive line, safety and cornerback throughout the game. LB Derek Smith recorded his 100th tackle of the season.

While the 49ers left town with the win, it did come at a cost as an already injury depleted team lost more players to injury. G Eric Heitmann broke a hand in the second half; RB Garrison Hearst hyper-extended his knee in the first half and did not return to the game; KR/CB Jimmy Williams tore his MCL; and CB Ahmed Plummer strained his groin late in the fourth quarter.

GAME 14 VS. GREEN BAY PACKERS DECEMBER 15, 2002 @ 3COM PARK LOST 20-14 RECORD 9-5

The Packers used a two touchdown second half to hold off a late 49ers drive to post a 20-14 victory under wet and windy conditions at 3Com Park.

Driving rain fell throughout the game and certainly inhibited both teams during the opening half. A pair of field goals from K Jeff Chandler gave the 49ers a 6-3 lead over Green Bay as the teams combined for just 191 yards of total offense.

Favre and the Packers stormed out of the gates in the second half with two touchdown drives in the third quarter to take a lead they would not relinquish.

Green Bay's first score came on a 79-yard, nine-play drive on the opening possession of the second half. RB Ahman Green capped the drive with a nine-yard touchdown run.

The Packers second score was set-up by an interception and long return from their defensive unit. QB Jeff Garcia's pass hit G Matt Willig in the back and bounced into the arms of DE Vonnie Holliday. Holliday lateraled to LB Naill Diggs who returned the ball to the 49ers 29-yard line.

Favre converted the turnover into a touchdown, connecting with WR Donald Driver on a five-yard touchdown, giving the Packers a 17-6 lead.

The 49ers got back into the game with another amazing play from their big-game wide receiver. WR Terrell Owens caught a ball from Garcia at the 20-yard line and ran right through the attempted tackle of CB Mike Mackenzie into the end zone.

Green Bay would extend its lead to six points on another K Ryan Longwell field goal with 4:29 remaining in the game, seemingly plenty of time for the 49ers to launch a scoring drive.

San Francisco did respond by driving down deep in Packers territory, but its drive stalled short on fourth down en route to the Green Bay victory.

Garcia finished the day 19-of-34 for 156 yards with one touchdown and one interception. RB Garrison Hearst had 12 carries for 51 yards to pace the 49ers ground game.

Despite missing an assortment of starters, the 49ers defensive unit did play well for much of the game. LB Derek Smith had 17 tackles, one below his career-high.

GAME 15 VS. ARIZONA CARDINALS DECEMBER 21, 2002 @ SUN DEVIL STADIUM WON 17-14 RECORD 10-5

The 49ers posted a 17-14 decision over the Arizona Cardinals to earn their 10th victory of the year.

QB Jeff Garcia completed 23-of-39 passes for 256 yards and one touchdown. With WR Terrell Owens out of the game, Garcia turned his attention to WR Tai Streets, who finished with eight receptions for a career-high 90 yards.

San Francisco opened the game with a defensive stop and an impressive scoring drive. FB Fred Beasley caught a 25-yard touchdown pass from Garcia to cap the eight-play, 63-yard drive.

The Cardinals fought their way back into the game on the arm and legs of QB Jake Plummer. Plummer directed a 16-play, 68-yard drive and capped it with a four-yard touchdown pass to WR Kevin Kasper.

San Francisco answered the Arizona score with a time-consuming scoring drive to close out the first half. K Jeff Chandler knocked home a 24-yard field goal to cap a 16-play, 60-yard, 6:52 drive that gave San Francisco a 10-7 lead.

The 49ers opened the second half like a determined team. WR Cedrick Wilson opened with a 37-yard kick return. Garcia connected with Streets on a 33-yard pass play and two plays later RB Garrison Hearst capped the frenzied drive with an eight-yard touchdown run. The touchdown run by Hearst was his career-high eighth rushing score of the year and gave the 49ers a 17-7 lead with 13:17 remaining in the third quarter.

The Cardinals again clawed their way back into the game on the arm of Plummer and hands of Kasper. The pair hooked up for the second time, the latest score coming with just over four minutes remaining to bring the Cardinals within three points, 17-14.

Electing to kickoff deep instead of trying the onside kick, the Arizona tactic failed as the 49ers reeled off a succession of first downs, forcing the Cardinals to use all of their time outs.

With two minutes remaining Garcia began the kneel down process to run out the clock.

DE Andre Carter paced the 49ers defensive effort with two sacks, bringing his season total to 11.5. He became the first defensive end to record double-digit sacks since Chris Doleman and Roy Barker did it in 1998.

GAME 16
VS. ST. LOUIS RAMS
DECEMBER 30, 2002 @ EDWARD JONES DOME
LOST 31-20 RECORD 10-6

The 49ers began the game with a strong first half. However, St. Louis scored 31 second half points, including 28 in the fourth quarter, to post a 31-20 win over San Francisco on Monday Night Football.

The Rams took the lead in the fourth quarter on a score from their defense. CB Dre Bly stripped RB Garrison Hearst of the ball and raced into the end zone for the touchdown. That play immediately followed a 26-yard touchdown pass from QB Jamie Martin to WR Isaac Bruce that brought St. Louis to within three points at 20-17 with just over seven minutes remaining in the game.

The Rams then put the final nail in the 49ers coffin when, facing a fourth-and-one, Martin hit TE Ernie Conwell on a 32-yard touchdown.

The touchdown pass was the second of the half for Martin. The Rams also received a field goal from K Jeff Wilkins.

The 49ers had an impressive showing offensively and defensively in the first half. QB Tim Rattay threw two touchdown passes and the 49ers outgained St. Louis 224 yards to 33 while building a 17-0 lead at halftime.

San Francisco took the opening possession and launched the longest drive of the NFL season, marching 81 yards in 20 plays and holding the ball for an incredible 12:07.

The 49ers capped the drive with a 19-yard field goal from K Jeff Chandler to take a quick 3-0 lead over the Rams. Hearst rushed eight times for 32 yards on the drive. The 20-play drive is the longest in the NFL since December 3, 1961 when the Baltimore Colts accomplished the feat.

On their second possession, RB Kevan Barlow's 35-yard run put the 49ers within striking distance at the St. Louis 22-yard line. Five plays later Rattay, in for starter QB Jeff Garcia, drilled a two-yard touchdown pass to WR Tai Streets and the 49ers extended their lead to 10-0. The touchdown toss was the first of Rattay's NFL career.

Rattay and Streets would hook up one more time in the opening half, connecting on a 27-yard touchdown to extend the lead to 17 points.

The 49ers were without three offensive starters who were inactive for the game: T Derrick Deese, WR Terrell Owens and G Ron Stone missed the game with various injuries.

GAME 17

VS. NEW YORK GIANTS

NFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

JANUARY 5, 2003 @ 3COM PARK

WON 39-38 RECORD 11-6

Buried in a 24-point playoff hole, the San Francisco 49ers exploded to record the second largest comeback in postseason history with a dramatic 39-38 victory over the New York Giants in the NFC Wild Card Game.

The 49ers trailed 38-14 with four minutes left in the third quarter, but scored 25 unanswered points on two touchdown passes and a scoring run by QB Jeff Garcia, as well as two two-point conversion catches by WR Terrell Owens.

The game ended just as exciting. After Garcia drove his team 68 yards in just over two minutes for the winning score, QB Kerry Collins got New York to the San Francisco 28 with six seconds left. LS Trey Junkin, signed earlier in the week, made a low snap that P Matt Allen couldn't handle.

Allen then threw a desperate pass that fell incomplete. After New York was penalized for illegal men downfield, San Francisco leaped, sprinted and collapsed onto the field in a raucous celebration before an exhausted home crowd.

The 49ers rally was the biggest in NFC playoff history. Only Buffalo's 32-point comeback in a 41-38 victory over Houston in January 1993 was by a larger margin in the postseason.

Garcia finished the day 27-of-44 for 331 yards and three touchdowns. He rushed for 60 yards, including a 14-yard score on the first play of the fourth quarter. Two of Garcia's touchdown throws went to Owens, who had nine catches for 177 yards.

The Giants won four straight to make the postseason and dominated the first 40 minutes. Collins was 29-of-43 for 342 yards with four touchdowns, and expertly guided New York to a lead that seemed insurmountable. WR Amani Toomer caught eight passes for 136 yards and three touchdowns and RB Tiki Barber added 115 yards rushing and 62 yards receiving.

San Francisco rallied with purpose and poise. Owens caught a 26-yard touchdown pass late in the third quarter to start the rally and made big catches on every drive – right up to the final minutes, when Garcia found WR Tai Streets for the winning score.

After Owens caught a 26-yard touchdown pass and a two-point conversion with 2:03 left in the third, Garcia rushed for a 14-yard score and threw another conversion pass to Owens five seconds into the fourth quarter. Jeff Chandler added a 25-yard field goal with 7:49 left.

Collins responded and drove New York 38 yards, but Bryant – kicking out of a poor hold thanks to a poor snap by Junkin – missed a 42-yard field goal with 3:01 left.

Garcia took over, converting two straight third downs for the NFL leaders in that category. TE Eric Johnson caught a 25-yard pass to the New York 25 and Garcia scrambled 12 yards to set up his scoring pass to Streets.

GAME 18

VS. TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

JANUARY 12, 2003 @ RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM

LOST 31-6 RECORD 11-7

San Francisco's Super Bowl hopes ended with a 31-6 loss against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game on the road at Raymond James Stadium.

The 49ers trailed 28-6 heading into halftime and although the defense held Tampa Bay to only three points in the second half, San Francisco was held scoreless en route to the Buccaneers victory.

Tampa Bay started the scoring with a two-yard touchdown run by FB Mike Alstott on a 12-play, 74-yard drive.

San Francisco answered with a 12-play, 63-yard drive capped by a 24-yard field goal by K Jeff Chandler. The highlight of the drive was a 30-yard pitch and catch by WR Tai Streets from QB Jeff Garcia.

Tampa Bay exploded for 21 points in the second quarter, highlighted by two touchdown passes by QB Brad Johnson. Johnson connected on a 20-yard pass to WR Joe Jurevicius and a 12-yard pass to TE Rickey Dudley. In between the two scores, Chandler kicked his second field goal of the game for San Francisco, this time from 40 yards out.

Alstott added another two-yard touchdown run to end the first half and K Martin Gramatica added a 19-yard field goal to close the scoring for both teams.

LB Derek Smith led San Francisco with a game-high 14 tackles. LB Julian Peterson and LB Jeff Ulbrich added 11 tackles apiece. CB Rashad Holman led a banged up secondary with one interception. The unit was minus starting CB Jason Webster who was inactive with an ankle injury. CB Ahmed Plummer left the game when he separated his right shoulder and did not return. FS Zack Bronson left the game in the third quarter when he aggravated his broken foot and SS Tony Parrish played the contest with a dislocated elbow.

LB Shelton Quarles led Tampa Bay with nine tackles and Defensive Player-of-the-Year LB Derrick Brooks added seven tackles and one interception.

DRIVE ALIVE

San Francisco was the top-ranked team in the league at converting third downs into first downs in 2002. The 49ers moved the chains 52.3 percent of the time on third down, the highest percentage ever during a 16-game season. San Francisco finished the season with the second highest conversion rate in NFL history. Cincinnati converted 54.1 percent of their third down attempts in the strike-shortened 1982 season.

ANNUAL LEN ESHMONT AWARD

The Len Eshmont Award, the 49ers most prestigious annual honor, has been given each year to the 49er who best exemplifies the “inspirational and courageous play” of Len Eshmont. A member of the original 1946 49ers team, Eshmont coached at Navy and Virginia following his playing days with the 49ers. Eshmont died in 1957.

FIRST CONTACT

When the 49ers break tackles, it results in victories. The 49ers compiled 2,483 yards after the first hit in 2002. With 6,375 total yards on the season, the 49ers gained 38.9 percent of their yards after contact was initiated. In the 11 victories, the 49ers gained 40.3 percent of their yards after contact. The team leader in yards after contact was Garrison Hearst with 794 yards. Over 57 percent of his total yards (1,391) were gained after the first hit.

BOBB MCKITTRICK AWARD

This award is given annually to the 49ers offensive lineman who best exemplifies the dedication, excellence and commitment of offensive line coach Bobb McKittrick, a five-time Super Bowl Champion.

In 1999, the San Francisco 49ers, under the direction of Bill Walsh, established the Bobb McKittrick Award. The award is meant to honor those offensive linemen who have best represented the courage, intensity and sacrifice displayed by the late coach McKittrick during his 21 years of service with the 49ers.

"Bobb gave distinguished service to the organization since our renaissance in 1979. He was a vital factor in five Super Bowl Championships, the evolution of a dynasty and in the production of some of the finest offensive linemen in football. Offensive linemen don't receive the recognition they so richly deserve. This gives us a venue to honor their sacrifices and achievements," Walsh said.

A bronze plaque of McKittrick hangs in the 49ers locker room surrounded by the photographs of the McKittrick Award winners.

LEN ESHMONT AWARD

Tony Parrish — Named the recipient of the team's most prestigious honor. Parrish played with many injuries in 2002 and overcame surgery in the offseason to have a tumor removed from his testicle. He recorded a CAREER-HIGH seven interceptions which led the team. Parrish was the first player ever to win the award in his inaugural season. In a vote by teammates, the award is given annually to the 49er player who best exemplifies the "inspirational and courageous play" of Len Eshmont.

BOBB MCKITTRICK AWARD

Scott Gragg — Gragg has started in 112 consecutive contests, which is the most among NFL offensive tackles, and has helped the 49ers sport one of the league's most dominant rushing attacks, ranking sixth in the NFL in rushing with an average of 140.3 yards per game. This is the first McKittrick Award for Gragg in his three years in San Francisco. The award was established by the 49ers in 1999 in honor of longtime offensive line coach Bobb McKittrick and is given annually to the 49ers offensive lineman who best represents the courage, intensity and sacrifice displayed by Coach McKittrick during his 21 years of service with the 49ers.

MATT HAZELTINE AWARD

John Keith — In memory of former 49ers linebacker Matt Hazeltine, who died of ALS (Lou Gehrig's disease), the award is given annually to the most courageous and inspirational 49ers defensive player. Keith battled with numerous injuries during the 2002 season, including a broken hand.

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

Tony Parrish — Named the 49ers recipient after starting every game in 2002, despite having a tumor removed from his testicle in the offseason and playing the final month of the season with a dislocated elbow.

GARRY NIVER AWARD

Dana Stubblefield — Given annually to the 49er player who is most professional with the media.

NFC PLAYER-OF-THE-WEEK/MONTH

Jamie Winborn — Defensive Player of the Week (Week 1) — Winborn posted a CAREER-HIGH 16 tackles (13 solo), including three tackles for loss, and a CAREER-HIGH 1.0 sack in the 49ers opening game of the season, a 16-13 win over the New York Giants. His 16 tackles were the most by a 49er in a game since Ken Norton Jr. posted 19 against Carolina (11-8-98).

Ronnie Heard — Defensive Player of the Week (Week 8) — Heard recorded the first three interceptions of his career, helping the 49ers defeat NFC West foe Arizona 38-28. He also added four tackles and four passes defended on the way to his first career Player of the Week Award. It was the most interceptions in a game by a 49ers player since Rod Woodson intercepted three passes against New Orleans (9-14-97).

Julian Peterson — Defensive Player of the Week (Week 10) — Peterson and the 49ers defense held the high-powered Kansas City Chiefs offense to only 14 points. He limited Pro Bowl tight end Tony Gonzalez to only one reception for six yards. In the 17-14 win, Peterson recorded four tackles and a crucial pass defended on fourth-and-11 to seal the victory.

Jimmy Williams — Special Teams Player of the Week (Week 13) — Williams averaged 46.0 yards on two punt returns, including an 89-yard touchdown, giving the 49ers a 14-3 second-quarter lead over Seattle. The touchdown was the first of Williams' career and was the longest by a 49er since John Taylor returned a team-record 95-yard punt for a touchdown vs. Washington (11-21-88). Williams also averaged 21.3 yards on three kickoff returns, helping San Francisco to an average drive start on its own 41-yard line.

Tony Parrish — Defensive Player of the Week (Week 14) — Starting his 77th consecutive game, Parrish was part of a defense that allowed only 147 passing yards and 257 total yards at Dallas. Despite playing with a dislocated elbow, he had a CAREER-HIGH two interceptions and added two passes defended and two tackles in the win, which earned the 49ers the NFC West division title.

Jeff Garcia — Offensive Player of the Week (Wild Card Week) — Garcia earned the honors after leading the 49ers to the second largest comeback in NFL postseason history. Garcia rallied the 49ers offense from 24 points down to beat the New York Giants in the NFC Wild Card Game 39-38. Garcia set POSTSEASON CAREER-HIGHS in every category, completing 27-of-44 passes for 331 yards and three touchdowns. Garcia also set POSTSEASON CAREER-HIGHS in rushing, leading the team with 60 yards rushing on seven carries, including a 14-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter.

SCRAMBLE DRILL

Making plays on the move is nothing new for Jeff Garcia. Over the last two seasons, Garcia has been highly dangerous when flushed out of the pocket. Since 2001, including the postseason, Garcia is 135-of-190 for 1,549 yards with 11 touchdowns, one interception and a quarterback rating of 112.3 when removed from the pocket. He also has rushed 75 times for 535 yards and four touchdowns when forced out.

30 SOMETHING

San Francisco's commitment to the running game not only helps balance the offense, it often equates to victories. The 49ers have posted a 17-2 record when rushing the ball 30 or more times since 2001. The last time San Francisco lost when rushing 30 or more times was against St. Louis (12-30-02), when the 49ers rushed 36 times for 193 yards.

TIME CONSUMING

The 49ers became the best in the NFL at producing lengthy and time consuming drives in 2002. For example, against the St. Louis Rams (12-30-02), the 49ers first drive of the game was a 20-play, 78-yard drive that chewed up 12:07. The drive was the most time consuming in the NFL in 2002. The second-longest drive was when Jacksonville had a 10:04 drive in Week 1. The 20 plays the 49ers produced against the Rams were the most by a 49ers team since December 3, 1961, when the 49ers took the ball 95 yards in 20 plays against the Baltimore Colts. The 12:07 is the most time consuming drive by the 49ers since September 25, 1988, when they drove the ball 18 plays for 85 yards while taking 12:09 off the clock against Seattle.

49ERS PLAYOFF HISTORY

'57 Detroit Lions 31, 49ers 27 NFL Divisional Playoff December 22 at Kezar Stadium (San Francisco, CA)

San Francisco made its first playoff appearance as an NFL team a memorable one, but came up a bit short against the Detroit Lions at venerable Kezar Stadium.

QB Y.A. Tittle completed 18-of-31 passes for 248 yards and three touchdowns for the 49ers. Tittle connected with HB R.C. Owens on a 34-yard scoring toss to record the first ever postseason touchdown for San Francisco. He also had touchdown connections with RB Hugh McElhenny and WR Billy Wilson. McElhenny caught six passes for a game-high 96 yards and rushed for 82 yards on 14 carries.

'71 49ers 24, Washington Redskins 20 NFC Divisional Playoff December 26 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB John Brodie completed 10-of-19 passes for 176 yards and two touchdowns as San Francisco advanced to the NFC Championship Game with a 24-20 win over Washington at a wet and windy Candlestick Park.

Brodie hit WR Gene Washington on a 78-yard play for his first touchdown of the game that helped tie the score at 10-10. On the next 49ers possession Brodie connected with WR Bob Windsor on a two-yard toss into the corner of the end zone that led to a 17-10 lead.

The 49ers would insure the victory when DT Bob Hoskins pounced on an errant snap from center and recovered for a touchdown with just under three minutes remaining in the game. LB Frank Nunley led the defensive effort with 11 tackles and a blocked field goal.

Dallas Cowboys 30, 49ers 28 NFC Divisional Playoff December 23 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Roger Staubach came off the bench to rally the Dallas Cowboys with two touchdown passes in the closing minutes of regulation to post a 30-28 come-from-behind win over the 49ers.

Staubach connected with WR Billy Parks on a 20-yard touchdown with 1:30 remaining in the game. On the ensuing onside kick the Cowboys recovered and three plays later Staubach connected with WR Ron Sellers for the game winner.

The outcome overshadowed several sparkling individual efforts for the 49ers. RB Vic Washington set a club record with his 97-yard touchdown return on the opening kickoff. RB Larry Schreiber also established a then club record by scoring three rushing touchdowns.

LB Ed Beard led the Niners defense with 10 tackles while DE Cedrick Hardman added three sacks.

49ers 38, New York Giants 24 NFC Divisional Playoff January 3 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

San Francisco returned to the playoffs for the first time since 1972 and posted its first postseason win since 1971 with a 38-24 triumph over the visiting New York Giants.

Aiding the 49ers cause was CB Ronnie Lott who intercepted two passes, including one he returned 20 yards for a touchdown, and recorded five tackles.

Offensively, the Niners were paced by QB Joe Montana who completed 20-of-31 passes for 304 yards and two touchdowns. Montana hit TE Charle Young on an eight-yard toss in the first quarter and connected with WR Freddie Solomon on a 58-yard strike in the second. Solomon finished the day with six receptions for 107 yards. He was joined by WR Dwight Clark who had five receptions for 104 yards.

'81 49ers 28, Dallas Cowboys 27 NFC Championship January 10 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

In the most memorable playoff game to date, the 49ers and Cowboys staged an epic battle. In what was a fitting ending for some and a heartbreaking one for others, it was the 49ers who came out on top 28-27.

QB Joe Montana capped a brilliant day with a six-yard touchdown pass to WR Dwight Clark late in the fourth quarter to overcome a six-point deficit. "The Catch," as it would come to be known, capped a 13-play, 89-yard drive that took over four minutes off the clock.

Montana finished the day with 286 yards on 22-of-35 passing and three touchdowns. Clark had one of his finest days, posting eight receptions for 120 yards and two touchdowns.

CB Carlton Williamson led the defensive charge with 12 tackles. LB Jack Reynolds added nine stops and DT Archie Reese added six.

'81 49ers 26, Cincinnati Bengals 21 Super Bowl XVI January 24 at Silverdome (Pontiac, MI)

QB Joe Montana accounted for two first half touchdowns and K Ray Wersching added two field goals as San Francisco built a 20-0 lead at the half and held on for a 26-21 victory over the Bengals for its first Super Bowl Championship.

Montana scored on a one-yard run in the first quarter and in the second he led the team on a 12-play, 92-yard drive that resulted in an 11-yard scoring toss to FB Earl Cooper. For the game, Montana completed 14-of-22 passes for 157 yards.

Wersching also had an impressive outing. The veteran kicker connected on all four field goal attempts in the game, hitting from 22, 26, 40 and 23 yards.

The 49ers defense kept the potent Bengal attack in check for much of the game. Cincinnati QB Ken Anderson warmed up in the second half with three touchdowns, two of them on pass plays to TE Dan Ross, but two fourth quarter field goals by Wersching put the game out of reach.

LB Jack Reynolds keyed the 49ers defense with seven tackles and one sack. LB Bob Leopold also recorded seven tackles and NT Archie Reese added six stops.

Washington Redskins 24, 49ers 21 NFC Championship January 8 at RFK Stadium (Washington, DC)

Mark Moseley connected on a 25-yard field goal with 40 seconds remaining to hand San Francisco a heartbreaking 24-21 defeat in the NFC Championship Game at RFK Stadium.

The defeat was especially hard to swallow after the 49ers fought back from a 21-0 deficit with 21 fourth-quarter points. QB Joe Montana hit WR Mike Wilson on a five-yard scoring strike 30 seconds into the fourth, snapping the shutout. On the next 49ers possession, Montana hit WR Freddie Solomon on a 76-yard bomb to pull within seven at 21-14.

The Redskins went three-and-out on their next possession, which led to another Montana-to-Wilson touchdown and a tie ballgame. Unfortunately for the 49ers, the Redskins would launch a six-minute drive that led to the Moseley field goal and the end of the season.

Montana finished the game with his typically excellent numbers: 27-of-48 for 347 yards and three touchdowns. Solomon caught eight passes for 106 yards and one touchdown.

DT Pete Kugler led the defensive charge with 10 tackles. He was joined by S Carlton Williamson with eight tackles and linebackers Riki Ellison and Keena Turner had six stops each.

'84 49ers 21, New York Giants 10 NFC Divisional Playoff December 29 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Joe Montana rushed for 63 yards, passed for 309 yards and the 49ers earned a date in the NFC Championship Game with a 21-10 win over the New York Giants.

San Francisco drew first blood when Montana hooked up with his favorite target, WR Dwight Clark, on a 21-yard scoring toss just three minutes into the first quarter. Clark would finish the day with 112 yards on nine receptions.

On the Giants next possession, it was S Ronnie Lott who intercepted a QB Phil Simms pass and returned it 38 yards to the New York 12-yard line. Two plays later, Montana hit TE Russ Francis on a nine-yard strike to extend the lead to 14-0.

New York would pull within three following LB Harry Carson's interception and touchdown return off a tipped Montana pass seven minutes into the second quarter. Three minutes later, the 49ers answered when Montana hit WR Freddie Solomon on a 29-yard scoring completion to put San Francisco up 21-10.

DE Fred Dean recorded seven tackles and two sacks for the inspired 49ers defense. LB Jack Reynolds added five tackles.

'84 49ers 23, Chicago Bears 0 NFC Championship January 6 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

San Francisco advanced to Super Bowl XIX with a 23-0 win over the visiting Chicago Bears. The story of the day was the 49ers defense that recorded nine sacks and held the Bears to 186 yards of total offense.

Leading the charge for the defense were DE Gary Johnson and DT Michael Carter. Neither Johnson nor Carter were starters in the game, yet they led the squad with two sacks and six tackles each. LB Riki Ellison recorded a team-high eight tackles.

Offensively, San Francisco was led by QB Joe Montana and RB Wendell Tyler. Montana threw for 233 yards and one touchdown, a 10-yard toss to WR Freddie Solomon in the fourth quarter. Tyler had 68 yards on 10 carries and scored on a nine-yard jaunt early in the third quarter.

'84 49ers 38, Miami Dolphins 16 Super Bowl XIX January 20 at Stanford Stadium (Palo Alto, CA)

QB Joe Montana passed for 331 yards and accounted for four touchdowns to lead San Francisco to a 38-16 win over the Miami Dolphins. For his efforts, Montana was named Super Bowl MVP for the second time in his career. The game was played at nearby Stanford Stadium in Palo Alto in front of 84,059 fans.

Montana's first touchdown of the day came on a 33-yard strike to RB Carl Monroe late in the first quarter. He followed that with an eight-yard scoring toss to RB Roger Craig in the second quarter. On the next 49ers possession, Montana added his third score of the day, this time taking it in himself on a six-yard run.

His fourth and final score came on a 16-yard pass to Craig midway through the third quarter. Craig also had an impressive day totaling 135 yards of total offense and added two scores.

San Francisco rolled up an impressive 537 yards of total offense in the game, including 211 rushing yards.

S Carlton Williamson and CB Eric Wright each intercepted a QB Dan Marino pass. LB Keena Turner led the team with six tackles.

'87 Minnesota Vikings 36, 49ers 24 NFC Divisional Playoff January 9 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

Minnesota WR Anthony Carter and K Chuck Nelson each established NFL postseason records as the Vikings posted a 36-24 win over hometown San Francisco at Candlestick Park.

Carter caught 10 passes from QB Wade Wilson for an NFL postseason record 227 yards. Carter broke the old record of 198 yards that was set by E Tom Fears of the Los Angeles Rams in 1950 against the Chicago Bears.

Nelson set his record by kicking five field goals, breaking the old mark of four that was done eight times.

San Francisco was led offensively by QB Steve Young, who spelled QB Joe Montana early in the second half. Young completed 12-of-17 passes for 158 yards and one touchdown. He also ran for a team-high 72 yards on six carries and had a five-yard touchdown run.

S Jeff Fuller established a new 49ers postseason record when he returned an interception 48 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter. LB Mike Walter posted nine tackles and S Ronnie Lott added eight.

49ers 34, Minnesota Vikings 9 NFC Divisional Playoff January 1 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

RB Roger Craig and WR Jerry Rice entered the NFL record books as the 49ers advanced to the NFC Championship Game with a convincing 34-9 win over the visiting Minnesota Vikings at Candlestick.

Rice set a record with three touchdown receptions that he shares with five other players. He scored on receptions of two, four and 11 yards, all thrown by QB Joe Montana. Rice closed the day with five receptions for 61 yards.

Craig entered the record book courtesy of his 80-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter. The run was the longest touchdown run and the longest run from scrimmage in team postseason history. Craig broke the old record established by RB Marcus Allen with his 74-yard touchdown run against the Washington Redskins in 1983. Craig finished the day with 135 yards on 21 carries and two touchdowns.

The 49ers defense also posted a strong day, recording six sacks, two interceptions and one fumble recovery. S Ronnie Lott had a big day with four tackles, two interceptions and three passes defensed. DE Larry Roberts recorded two and a half sacks.

49ers 28, Chicago Bears 3 NFC Championship January 8 at Soldier Field (Chicago, IL)

Game time temperatures were in the teens and the wind chill was 26 below zero, but the San Francisco 49ers were hot, as they rolled to a 28-3 win over the Chicago Bears at Soldier Field.

QB Joe Montana hit WR Jerry Rice on a 61-yard scoring toss in the first quarter and a 27-yard scoring toss in the second as the 49ers took a 14-3 lead into the half. In the third quarter, it was again the mastery of Montana, who connected with TE John Frank on a five-yard touchdown pass to extend the lead to 21-3.

FB Tom Rathman capped a solid day with a four-yard burst into the end zone with 8:07 remaining in the fourth quarter. Rathman finished with 36 yards rushing and caught five passes for 51 yards.

The San Francisco defensive charge was led by LB Mike Walter, who posted a game-high 11 tackles and forced a fumble. S Jeff Fuller recorded nine tackles and intercepted a pass.

Offensively, Rice finished with 11 receptions for 133 yards and two touchdowns while Montana completed 17-of-27 passes for 288 yards.

Super Bowl XXIII

January 22 at Joe Robbie Stadium (Miami, FL)

In what proved to be the most exciting Super Bowl game of the decade, it was the play of a collected veteran that delivered San Francisco its third NFL Championship. QB Joe Montana connected on 23-of-36 passes for 357 yards, but no completion would be more important than his last.

The game opened at a stand still with neither team having any ability to move the ball offensively. San Francisco opened the scoring on a 41-yard field goal by K Mike Cofer late in the first quarter. The Bengals responded with K Jim Breech's 34-yard field goal and the teams headed to the half locked in a 3-3 tie.

The third quarter began with the teams trading field goals before the Bengals broke the touchdown drought. Following a 49ers field goal, Cincinnati KR Stanford Jennings took the Cofer kickoff and returned it 93 yards for a touchdown.

It didn't take long for San Francisco to respond. Montana hit WR Jerry Rice for a 31-yard completion and followed that with a swing pass that RB Roger Craig turned into a 40-yard gain. Two plays and 16 seconds later, Montana found Rice in the corner of the end zone for a 10-yard touchdown.

An 11-play, 46-yard drive by the Bengals resulted in a 46-yard field goal by Breech, giving Cincinnati a 16-13 lead and leaving the 49ers just 3:20 on the clock. San Francisco received the kickoff and returned it to the 20, but a penalty moved the ball back to the eight-yard line. What happened next is legendary.

Montana connected on five consecutive passes to move the ball to the Bengals 35. A holding penalty moved the ball back 10 yards, but Montana responded with a 27-yard completion to Rice and another first down. A quick hit to Craig followed by a timeout left the Niners with second and two from the Bengals 10-yard line. Following the timeout, Montana hit WR John Taylor in the middle of the end zone for a touchdown and San Francisco had its third Super Bowl title of the decade.

49ers 41, Minnesota Vikings 13

NFC Divisional Playoff

January 6 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Joe Montana threw four touchdown passes and RB Roger Craig rushed for 118 yards as the 49ers advanced to the NFC Championship Game with a convincing 41-13 win over the visiting Minnesota Vikings at Candlestick Park.

The Vikings opened the scoring on a K Rich Karlis field goal nine minutes into the first quarter, but from that point on it was all San Francisco. The 49ers erupted for 28 consecutive points before halftime to put the game away early.

Just 20 seconds after the Vikings initial score, Montana connected with WR Jerry Rice for the first of his four touchdown passes of the afternoon. The play started simply enough before, in true Rice fashion, he turned a seven-yard gain into a 72-yard touchdown. Following an interception by S Chet Brooks, Montana hit TE Brent Jones for an eight-yard touchdown pass and the rout was on.

Montana would add touchdown passes to WR John Taylor and another to Rice before handing the game over to reserve QB Steve Young. On the day, Montana completed 17-of-24 passes for 241 yards.

The 49ers defense would also contribute a score, courtesy of S Ronnie Lott, who intercepted a QB Tommy Kramer pass and returned it 58 yards for a touchdown.

'89 49ers 30, Los Angeles Rams 3 NFC Championship January 14 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

The 49ers defense intercepted QB Jim Everett three times and held the Los Angeles Rams to 156 yards of total offense as San Francisco earned its fourth trip to the Super Bowl that decade with a 30-3 win at Candlestick Park in the NFC Championship.

San Francisco QB Joe Montana was superb in his direction of the 49ers offense, completing 26-of-30 passes for 262 yards and two touchdowns. His first touchdown pass of the game came with 11:27 remaining in the second quarter when he hit TE Brent Jones on a 20-yard strike to give the 49ers a 7-3 lead.

CB Tim McKyer intercepted an Everett pass giving the 49ers possession at the Los Angeles 27-yard line. A five-play drive culminated in a one-yard touchdown run by RB Roger Craig.

It wouldn't take long for San Francisco to strike again. Gaining possession with 3:10 remaining in the second, Montana calmly directed a 14-play, 97-yard drive that ended with an 18-yard scoring toss to WR John Taylor.

K Mike Cofer accounted for the final nine points on three field goals in the second half.

Offensively, Montana was joined by Craig who rushed for 94 yards on 24 carries. WR Jerry Rice caught six passes for 55 yards and FB Tom Rathman added 63 yards rushing and 48 yards receiving.

'89 49ers 55, Denver Broncos 10 Super Bowl XXIV January 28 at Louisiana Superdome (New Orleans, LA)

WR Jerry Rice scored three touchdowns, FB Tom Rathman scored twice and QB Joe Montana earned his third Super Bowl MVP award as the San Francisco 49ers cruised to their fourth NFL Championship of the decade with a resounding 55-10 win over the Denver Broncos. The game was played before a crowd of 72,919 at the Louisiana Superdome in New Orleans, LA.

Rice scored on touchdown catches of 20, 38 and 28 yards en route to a seven-reception, 148-yard outing. Rathman scored his two touchdowns on runs of one and three yards.

The real story of the game was the play of Montana. He completed a sensational 22-of-29 passes for 297 yards and five touchdowns. He was masterful in his direction of the 49ers offense, leading the team on scoring drives of 66, 69 and 71 yards.

The 49ers defense proved to be as devastating as the offense. San Francisco harassed Denver QB John Elway all game, intercepting him twice and sacking him on six occasions. DE Daniel Stubbs led the way with two sacks and was joined by four others who had one sack each. DE Kevin Fagan had six tackles and LB Matt Millen added five.

49ers 28, Washington Redskins 10

January 12 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Joe Montana completed 22-of-31 passes for 274 yards and two touchdowns as San Francisco advanced to the NFC Championship with a 28-10 win over the visiting Washington Redskins.

The Redskins opened the scoring on a 31-yard touchdown reception from QB Mark Rypien to WR Art Monk. The 49ers answered with a one-yard touchdown run by FB Tom Rathman that capped an eight-play, 74-yard drive to tie the score at 7-7.

Washington added a 44-yard field goal by K Chip Lohmiller just before the end of the first quarter to take a 10-7 lead. That would be all of the scoring for the Redskins as the 49ers would reel off 21 consecutive points over the next three quarters.

Montana hit WR Jerry Rice on a 10-yard strike to complete a 10-play drive, giving San Francisco its first lead of the game four minutes into the second quarter. Five minutes later, the 49ers would extend their lead to 21-10 thanks to an eight-yard touchdown pass from Montana to WR Mike Sherrard.

It was the 49ers defense that would cap the scoring for the day. Following a scoreless third quarter, DT Michael Carter intercepted a Rypien pass that had been tipped by DE Charles Haley and returned it 61 yards for a touchdown.

CB Don Griffin and DE Kevin Fagan had seven tackles each to lead the 49ers defense.

New York Giants 15, 49ers 13 NFC Championship January 20 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

Kickers and defense were the story of the day at Candlestick as the Giants used five field goals from K Matt Bahr and the Giants defense held San Francisco to 39 yards on the ground to defeat the 49ers 15-13.

In the first two quarters, it was Bahr and 49ers K Mike Cofer who provided all the scoring. Bahr connected on a pair of field goals from 28 and 42 yards out. Cofer added field goals of 47 and 35 yards, and the teams entered the half in a 6-6 tie.

San Francisco opened the scoring in the third quarter on a 61-yard touchdown pass to WR John Taylor from QB Joe Montana to take a 13-6 lead. From that point on, it was all New York and Matt Bahr.

Bahr kicked field goals of 46 and 38 yards to pull the Giants within one at 13-12 with 5:47 remaining. San Francisco took over at its own 20-yard line, but five plays later DT Erik Howard forced a 49ers fumble and LB Lawrence Taylor recovered at the Giants 43-yard line with 2:36 remaining. A pair of QB Jeff Hostetler completions to TE Mark Bavaro and WR Stephen Baker had the Giants in field goal range at the 49ers 29-yard line with 1:10 remaining in the contest. Three plays later Bahr added his fifth field goal of the day, this one from 42 yards away, as time expired.

Montana completed 18-of-26 passes for 190 yards and one touchdown. Taylor caught two passes for 75 yards, including the 61-yard touchdown. WR Jerry Rice added five catches for 54 yards.

Defensively, San Francisco was led by LB Bill Romanowski's seven tackles. DT Jim Burt, DT Pierce Holt and DE Charles Haley added one sack each.

49ers 20, Washington Redskins 13 NFC Divisional Playoff January 9 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Steve Young threw for 227 yards, including two touchdown passes, and rushed for an additional 73 yards to lead San Francisco to a hard fought 20-13 win over the visiting Redskins at Candlestick Park.

Young tossed a five-yard touchdown pass to WR John Taylor to open the scoring at the 11:48 mark of the first quarter. The teams traded field goals, and then Young hit TE Brent Jones on a 16-yard scoring strike and K Mike Cofer added the extra point to give San Francisco a 17-3 lead at halftime.

The Redskins answered with 10 consecutive points on a K Chip Lohmiller field goal and a QB Mark Rypien one-yard touchdown plunge to cut the 49ers lead to 17-13. The locals responded with a 14-play, 59-yard drive that resulted in a 33-yard Cofer field goal with 2:22 remaining.

The San Francisco defense did the rest, sacking Rypien four times on its final drive before forcing the Redskins to turn the ball over on downs.

DT Pierce Holt had four tackles, including three sacks, to pace a determined Niners defense. CB Don Griffin posted a team-high six stops in the victory.

'92 Dallas Cowboys 30, 49ers 20 NFC Championship January 17 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Troy Aikman completed 24-of-34 passes for 322 yards and two touchdowns as the Cowboys claimed a 30-20 win over the 49ers. The game was played before 64,920 fans at a rainy Candlestick Park.

Dallas opened the scoring with a 20-yard field goal by K Lin Elliott. The 49ers answered with a one-yard run by QB Steve Young to take a 7-3 lead after the first quarter. Cowboy RB Emmitt Smith scored the first of his two touchdowns on a four-yard run at the 5:05 mark of the second quarter to put Dallas up 10-7. San Francisco tied the score three minutes later on a 28-yard field goal by K Mike Cofer.

FB Daryl Johnston scored the first points of the second half on a three-yard run at the 10:45 mark of the third quarter to put the Cowboys ahead 17-10. Cofer added a field goal for the 49ers to make the score 17-13 heading into the fourth quarter.

It was a battle between Aikman and Young in the fourth. Aikman hit Smith on a 16-yard scoring strike at the 12:25 mark, extending the Dallas lead to 24-13. Young answered back with a nine play, 93-yard drive resulting in a five-yard scoring toss to WR Jerry Rice to trim the Cowboy lead to 24-20. It didn't take long for Dallas to respond. On a first and 10 from their own 21, Aikman hit WR Alvin Harper on a crossing pattern that Harper turned into a 70-yard completion. Three plays later Aikman hit WR Kelvin Martin for a six-yard touchdown to secure the win.

Rice had an outstanding day receiving, finishing with eight catches for 123 yards and one touchdown. Young completed 25-of-35 passes for 313 yards and one touchdown.

CB Eric Davis had six tackles to lead the 49ers defense. S Dana Hall, CB Don Griffin and LB Bill Romanowski added five tackles each. DT Ted Washington and DE Kevin Fagan had two sacks each for San Francisco.

'93 49ers 44, New York Giants 3 NFC Divisional Playoff January 15 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

It was a watered down 49ers attack at Candlestick Park as RB Ricky Watters established an NFL single-game playoff record with five rushing touchdowns in the 44-3 win over the visiting New York Giants.

Watters scored on runs of one, one, two, six and two yards as he compiled 118 rushing yards on 24 carries. He also caught a team-high five passes for 46 yards from QB Steve Young, who finished the day completing 17-of-22 passes for 226 yards in the victory.

The 49ers defense stepped up their play in the win as well. New York was held to 194 total yards, with only 41 yards rushing. DT Dana Stubblefield had two sacks and LB Bill Romanowski added a team-high five tackles.

The game was marked by several milestone events:

- Attendance of 67,143 set a 49ers and Candlestick Park record (since broken).
- 44 points are most scored by 49ers in an NFC Playoff Game.
- Watters sets NFL single-game record for postseason rushing touchdowns (5), postseason touchdowns (5) and points scored (30).

NFC Championship
January 23 at Texas Stadium (Irving, TX)

The Cowboys broke a 7-7 tie by scoring 21 unanswered points in the second quarter, and that proved to be the difference in their 38-21 win over the visiting 49ers.

The game was played before 64,902 at Texas Stadium.

The 49ers opened the scoring on a five-yard touchdown run by RB Emmitt Smith at 8:14 of the first quarter. San Francisco responded with a seven-yard touchdown reception by FB Tom Rathman from QB Steve Young early in the second quarter to tie the score. That would be as close as the 49ers would get, as Dallas answered with a 21-point outburst in the final 10 minutes of the second quarter to take a 28-7 halftime lead.

San Francisco scored its second touchdown of the game at the 5:47 mark of the third quarter. RB Ricky Watters capped a six-play, 43-yard drive with a four-yard scamper into the end zone. Dallas sealed the game by scoring 10 consecutive points on a 42-yard touchdown reception by WR Alvin Harper from reserve QB Bernie Kosar and adding a 50-yard field goal from K Eddie Murray. The 49ers would add another touchdown on a one-yard plunge by Young, capping a 17-play, 94-yard drive.

San Francisco was paced offensively by Young, who completed 27-of-45 passes for 287 yards and one touchdown. He also ran for a team-high 38 yards. Watters added 37 yards on 12 carries and one touchdown.

LB Michael Walter led the 49ers defense with eight tackles. He was joined by S Merton Hanks and DT Dennis Brown who had seven stops each.

'94 49ers 44, Chicago Bears 15 NFC Divisional Playoff January 7 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

FB William Floyd rushed for three touchdowns and the 49ers defense held Chicago to just 247 yards in a 44-15 rout of the Bears. Floyd's three scores established him as the first rookie to hit paydirt three times in an NFL playoff game.

The Bears actually took an early 3-0 lead on a 29-yard field goal by K Kevin Butler. The Niners bounced back, however, lighting up the scoreboard for 37 unanswered points to put the game away.

San Francisco's first points were the result of a 13-play, 68-yard drive that ended with a two-yard run by Floyd. CB Eric Davis then intercepted QB Steve Walsh on the Bears next possession and moments later, QB Steve Young connected with TE Brent Jones for an eight-yard scoring play.

The Niners continued to roll in the second quarter, increasing the lead to 30-3 at the half on touchdown runs by Floyd and Young, sandwiched around a K Doug Brien field goal. Floyd's third touchdown of the game midway through the third quarter increased the lead to 37-3 and completed the afternoon's work for many of the San Francisco starters.

LB Gary Plummer led a spirited defensive effort, tying the 49ers single-game postseason record with 13 tackles. The 49ers defense also sacked Chicago quarterbacks four times, led by DE Tim Harris' two.

'94 49ers 38, Dallas Cowboys 28 NFC Championship January 15 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

CB Eric Davis returned an interception 44 yards for a touchdown and forced a fumble that San Francisco converted into another touchdown. Those plays set the stage for a defensive effort that produced five takeaways in San Francisco's 38-28 NFC Championship win over the Dallas Cowboys. The game was played before a Candlestick Park-record 69,143 (since broken).

On the third play of the game, Davis, playing a disguised zone coverage, stepped in front of a QB Troy Aikman pass and sprinted to the end zone. Three plays later, he stripped the ball from WR Michael Irvin and S Tim McDonald recovered. Five plays later, QB Steve Young hit FB Ricky Watters in the flat on a play that produced a 29-yard touchdown and a 14-0 lead.

The ensuing kickoff saw 49ers RB Adam Walker jar the ball loose from Dallas returner Kevin Williams and K Doug Brien recovered the fumble. It took seven plays before FB William Floyd plunged in from the one to make it 21-0 with 7:33 remaining in the first quarter.

Dallas began its comeback on the next series. Facing third and 23 from the San Francisco 44, Aikman hit Irvin for a touchdown that cut the score to 21-7. Following a Brien field goal of 34 yards, RB Emmitt Smith capped a 63-yard drive with a four-yard run that narrowed the gap to 24-14. The crucial point in the game came seconds before the first half expired. With eight seconds remaining, Young found WR Jerry Rice for a 28-yard score, giving the 49ers a 31-14 lead heading into the locker room.

The teams traded touchdowns in the second half with the 49ers holding off a strong Dallas charge in the fourth quarter. Young completed 13-of-29 passes for 155 yards and two touchdowns. He also rushed for 47 yards and another score. Watters led the ground game, compiling 72 yards, while TE Brent Jones and Floyd each had three receptions.

Defensively, LB Ken Norton Jr. paced the squad with 10 tackles, while Davis and McDonald added seven. Davis also had two interceptions and a forced fumble. CB Deion Sanders had an interception, along with five passes defended, while DT Rhett Hall and DE Tim Harris each had two sacks.

'94 49ers 49, San Diego Chargers 26 Super Bowl XXIX January 29 at Joe Robbie Stadium (Miami, FL)

QB Steve Young set a Super Bowl record with six touchdown passes and WR Jerry Rice hauled in three scoring passes for the second time in his career in the world championship game. The 49ers stars led an offensive explosion that carried the team to a 49-26 win over San Diego.

San Francisco wasted little time getting on the scoreboard as it took just three plays following the game's opening kickoff to crack the Chargers end zone. Following a FB William Floyd four-yard run and an 11-yard pass from Young to WR John Taylor, Young connected with Rice streaking down the middle of the field for a 44-yard scoring strike.

Following a San Diego punt, San Francisco was back in the end zone again after only three plays as Young, once again, challenged the middle of the Chargers defense, this time with a pass to RB Ricky Watters, which netted a 51-yard score. The Chargers made things close for awhile, however, putting together a 13-play, 78-yard drive that concluded with a RB Natrone Means one-yard touchdown plunge to make it 14-7 after one quarter of play.

The 49ers began to break the game open in the second quarter. They followed the San Diego touchdown with a 70-yard drive that culminated with a five-yard scoring pass from Young to Floyd. Two possessions later, following a partially blocked punt by RB Adam Walker, the Niners drove 49 yards for another score on an eight-yard toss from Young to Watters. K John Carney's 31-yard field goal with less than two minutes remaining in the half closed the margin at intermission to 28-10.

The Niners put the game away in the third quarter, running the lead to 42-10 on a pair of long drives that ended with Watters' third score of the evening, a nine-yard blast up the middle, and a 15-yard pass from Young to Rice. Rice caught his third touchdown of the night on a seven-yard toss from Young in the fourth quarter, enabling Young to break QB Joe Montana's record of five Super Bowl touchdown passes. Young was named the game's Most Valuable Player, while Rice turned in the second best receiving performance in Super Bowl history with 10 catches for 149 yards, while tying his own record with three scoring receptions.

Green Bay Packers 27, 49ers 17 NFC Divisional Playoff January 6 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

Aided by a swarming defense that caused four turnovers, the Green Bay Packers defeated the 49ers 27-17 at 3Com Park.

A record crowd of 69,311 saw the Packers advance to the NFC Championship Game, while the 49ers one-year reign as world champions ended with an overall record of 11-6.

Green Bay took its opening drive and marched to the San Francisco 26 before settling for a field goal attempt. However, K Chris Jacke's 44-yard attempt was blocked by S Tim McDonald and the 49ers took over at their 34. On the first play from scrimmage, QB Steve Young hit FB Adam Walker in the flat, but LB Wayne Simmons jarred the ball loose and CB Craig Newsome returned the fumble 31 yards for the touchdown. Green Bay also scored on its next two possessions, a three-yard pass from QB Brett Favre to TE Keith Jackson and a 13-yard toss from Favre to TE Mark Chmura. San Francisco scored its first points of the game late in the half when K Jeff Wilkins nailed a 21-yard field goal with two minutes remaining.

The 49ers took their first possession of the third quarter and marched 80 yards for a touchdown, when Young plunged in from the one, cutting the deficit to 21-10. On the 14-play drive, Young was 9-of-10 and ran the ball twice. Again, the Packers responded to the challenge, using a pair of Jacke field goals (27 yards in the third quarter, 26 yards in the fourth quarter), and boosted Green Bay's lead to 27-10. San Francisco's final score of the season came on a two-yard plunge by RB Derek Loville with 50 seconds remaining in the game.

Young completed 32 passes in an NFL postseason record 65 attempts, for 328 yards and two interceptions. He also led the 49ers in rushing, gaining 77 yards in nine attempts, including a 40-yard sprint after he was flushed from the pocket. Rice led the receivers with 11 catches for 117 yards, while TE Brent Jones gained 112 yards on eight receptions.

Defensively, T Dana Stubblefield recorded a team-high 10 tackles and a sack for a loss of five yards, while LB Ken Norton Jr. added nine tackles.

49ers 14, Philadelphia Eagles 0 NFC Wild Card December 29 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

On a wet and windy Sunday at 3Com Park, San Francisco opened its 1996 postseason by defeating the Philadelphia Eagles 14-0 in the NFC Wild Card Game.

Led by its marquee players QB Steve Young and WR Jerry Rice on offense, and a defense that recorded the team's first postseason shutout since the 1984 NFC Championship Game, the 49ers advanced to the Divisional Playoff round.

Following a scoreless first quarter, Young led the offense on a 10-play, 74-yard drive that concluded with the Pro Bowl quarterback scoring on a gutty nine-yard run off a quarterback draw. On that play Young broke four tackles while fighting his way to payday.

Twice in the second quarter the Eagles mounted long drives only to be denied just short of the endzone by Niners interceptions. Philadelphia's first trip ended with CB Marquez Pope intercepting a QB Ty Detmer pass on San Francisco's seven-yard line. Late in the quarter the Eagles marched 59 yards on 10 plays moving to the 49ers five-yard line. Facing third and four, Detmer's attempt to WR Chris T. Jones was picked off by DE Roy Barker, who had dropped off into zone-blitz coverage.

The only scoring in the second half occurred on the Niners second possession of the third quarter. On that drive, Rice made a spectacular one-handed catch that resulted in a 36-yard gain. He scored on a three-yard pass from Young on the next play from scrimmage.

Young finished as the game's leading rusher with 65 yards, while also completing 14-of-21 tosses for 161 yards. Rice had four catches for 50 yards and his 19th career postseason touchdown (17th receiving). RB Terry Kirby added 43 yards rushing.

The Niners defense, which held Eagles RB Ricky Watters to 57 rushing yards, was led by LB Ken Norton Jr.'s team postseason-record 12 solo tackles. DT Bryant Young registered two sacks and LB Lee Woodall added a sack among his six total stops.

'96 Green Bay Packers 35, 49ers 14 NFC Divisional Playoff January 4 at Lambeau Field (Green Bay, WI)

Missed opportunities, including a total of five turnovers, spelled defeat for the San Francisco 49ers in their NFC Divisional Playoff Game with the Green Bay Packers. Played before a record Lambeau Field crowd of 60,787, the 49ers fell 35-14 in a game that featured 34-degree weather (with a wind chill of nine) and driving rain.

It didn't take long for the Packers to take a lead. After forcing San Francisco to punt on its first series, WR Desmond Howard took P Tommy Thompson's punt, split the coverage down the middle of the field and raced for a 71-yard touchdown. Then, with seven minutes remaining in the opening stanza, Howard struck again. He returned a punt 46 yards to the San Francisco seven, and two plays later, QB Brett Favre threw a four-yard scoring pass to WR Andre Rison to make it 14-0.

San Francisco then mounted a comeback in the second quarter. Trailing 21-0, the tide began to turn when 49ers special teams standout Curtis Buckley recovered a muffed punt at the Green Bay 26. Moments later, QB Elvis Grbac, replacing the injured QB Steve Young (ribs), hit RB Terry Kirby with an eight-yard pass, cutting the deficit to 21-7 at the half.

On the opening kickoff of the third quarter, San Francisco CB Steve Israel recovered a loose ball on the Packers four, setting the stage for Grbac's scamper into the end zone. The 49ers fate was sealed, however, on the ensuing Packers drive. Marching 72 yards in 12 plays (10 of which were runs), Green Bay scored when FB Edgar Bennett fumbled before crossing the goal line; but before the 49ers defenders could react, WR Antonio Freeman fell on the loose ball, giving the hosts a 28-14 advantage. Bennett scored on an 11-yard run, and two more fumbles in the fourth quarter snuffed out any hope the 49ers had in getting back into the game.

Young played the first nine plays at quarterback before giving way to Grbac late in the first quarter. Elvis completed 19-of-36 for 125 yards with one touchdown and three interceptions and led the team in rushing with 32 yards. Backfield mates Kirby and RB William Floyd had six receptions each, while WR Jerry Rice had a team-high 36 yards receiving.

Defensively, LB Ken Norton Jr. posted eight tackles and LB Gary Plummer added seven. All-Pro DT Bryant Young left the game late in the first quarter because of a neck injury. He was taken to the hospital for tests, which were negative.

'97 49ers 38, Minnesota Vikings 22 NFC Divisional Playoff January 3 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

RB Terry Kirby rushed for a career-high 120 yards and scored two touchdowns, leading the San Francisco 49ers to a 38-22 victory over the Minnesota Vikings in the NFC Divisional Playoffs at 3Com Park.

In addition to Kirby's heroics, QB Steve Young completed 21-of-30 passes for 224 yards and a touchdown, WR J.J. Stokes had 101 yards receiving and LB Ken Norton Jr. returned an interception 23 yards for a touchdown.

San Francisco's first score came compliments of a Minnesota special teams miscue. P Mitch Berger's punt sailed off the side of his foot and into the crowd after going only 12 yards. The 49ers took over on the Vikings 26, and four plays later, FB William Floyd scored from the one and the 49ers led 7-0. Less than a minute later, the visitors tied the game on a 66-yard scoring pass from QB Randall Cunningham to WR Cris Carter. In the second quarter, the 49ers again took advantage of a poor kick by Berger — this time a punt of 29 yards — to take a 14-7 lead. Moving 61 yards in only four plays, and aided by three Minnesota penalties, Kirby scored the first of his two touchdowns on a one-yard plunge. The game-breaker occurred two plays later when the San Francisco defense flushed Cunningham out of the pocket, he threw over an onrushing DE Roy Barker and into the hands of Norton, who ran untouched into the end zone.

In the third quarter, K Gary Anderson connected on a 34-yard field goal to build the lead to 24-7, but Cunningham and Carter hooked up again for a score, closing the gap to 24-14. On the ensuing series, the 49ers marched 75 yards in seven plays, highlighted by two Kirby runs of 22 and 14 yards. Then Young hit WR Terrell Owens, with one of the prettiest touchdowns of the year, as the second-year receiver shook off a defender, then dove into the end zone for the score. Kirby finished the scoring in the fourth quarter with another one-yard run.

CB Tyrone Drakeford had six tackles and a pair of passes defended to pace the defense. Barker also recorded San Francisco's only sack of the game.

'97 Green Bay Packers 23, 49ers 10 NFC Championship January 11 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

RB Dorsey Levens rushed for 114 yards and WR Antonio Freeman caught four passes for 104 yards and a touchdown to lead visiting Green Bay to a 23-10 win in the NFC Championship Game. The game was played before 68,987 under windy and rainy conditions at 3Com Park.

The Packers opened the scoring late in the first quarter. After San Francisco punted on its first series, QB Brett Favre led Green Bay on a 10-play, 76-yard drive that resulted in a K Ryan Longwell 19-yard field goal. Favre completed three-of-four passes for 37 yards in the series.

Green Bay continued its scoring in the second quarter. S Eugene Robinson intercepted a QB Steve Young pass and returned it 58 yards to the San Francisco 28. Two plays later, Favre threw a 27-yard scoring pass to Freeman to make the score 10-0.

San Francisco then broke the drought with a scoring drive beginning with 4:23 remaining in the second. Following a missed field goal by Longwell, the 49ers took possession at their own 38.

A pair of Young completions for 32 yards had the Niners in Packers territory, but two holding penalties brought the ball back to the original line of scrimmage. On a key third down with 26 yards to go, Young completed a 48-yard pass to WR Terrell Owens to the Packers 10-yard line. The drive resulted in a 28-yard field goal by K Gary Anderson.

Green Bay answered on its next possession. Freeman returned the kickoff 18 yards to the Packers 27. Two plays later, Favre hit Freeman for a 40-yard completion to the San Francisco 25. Longwell connected on a 43-yard field goal to make the halftime score 13-3.

After a scoreless third quarter, Green Bay extended its lead to 16-3 on a 25-yard field goal by Longwell. The Packers added seven more after a five-yard touchdown run by Levens to make the score 23-3.

San Francisco closed out the game by scoring on the ensuing kickoff. Chuck Levy returned Longwell's kick 95 yards for a touchdown. Levy's return was the second longest postseason return for San Francisco, trailing the 97-yard touchdown return by Vic Washington vs. Dallas in 1972.

Young completed 23-of-38 passes for 250 yards and one interception. RB Terry Kirby ran for a team-high 21 yards on six carries. WR J.J. Stokes caught six passes for 87 yards, including a long of 43.

Defensively, San Francisco was led by S Merton Hanks with eight tackles. LB Ken Norton Jr., LB Lee Woodall, LB Gary Plummer and S Tim McDonald had seven tackles each.

49ers 30, Green Bay Packers 27

NFC Wild Card

January 3 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Steve Young threw three touchdown passes, including a 25-yard strike to WR Terrell Owens with three seconds remaining, as San Francisco edged Green Bay, 30-27.

The 49ers forced three Green Bay turnovers and racked up 178 yards rushing, including 128 yards on 22 carries by RB Garrison Hearst, but still needed last-second heroics to defeat their rival and nemesis.

On a crystal clear day in the Bay Area, it was the Packers who opened the scoring on a 23-yard field goal from K Ryan Longwell midway through the first quarter. San Francisco answered with help from a big play defense. S Merton Hanks forced a fumble by RB Dorsey Levens, and the ball was recovered by DE Chris Doleman at the Green Bay 19-yard line. Three plays later Young connected with TE Greg Clark from one yard out for the touchdown and a 7-3 lead.

Just four seconds into the second quarter, the Packers regained the lead on a two-yard scoring toss from QB Brett Favre to WR Antonio Freeman. The score capped a nine-play, 62-yard drive. San Francisco tied the score on the first of three K Wade Richey field goals, this one from 34 yards out with 6:53 remaining in the half. The Packers surged back ahead with 36 seconds remaining when Levens bowled into the end zone from two yards out. The extra point by Longwell was good and Green Bay took a 17-10 halftime lead.

The third quarter opened with another big play from the 49ers defense. With Green Bay driving at its own 41-yard line, DE Charles Haley pressured Favre into an errant pass that was intercepted by LB Lee Woodall and returned 17 yards to the Packers 33-yard line. Five plays later, the score was tied for a third time when Young hit Clark from eight yards out for the score.

The 49ers reclaimed the lead midway through the quarter on a team postseason record and career-long 48-yard field goal from Richey. The kick capped an 11-play, 48-yard drive that took 5:33 off the clock.

In a game that saw five lead changes and three ties, the fourth quarter became particularly dramatic. Longwell answered Richey's 48-yard kick with a 37-yard effort of his own to tie the game at 20-20 at the beginning of the fourth. On the ensuing possession, San Francisco marched 51 yards in 10 plays and capped the drive with a 40-yard field goal by Richey to reclaim the lead at 23-20. With 4:19 remaining in the game, Green Bay took over at its own 11-yard line. From there, Favre would lead his team on a nine-play, 89-yard scoring drive. The drive was capped when Favre hit Freeman from 15 yards out for the touchdown and a 27-23 lead with 1:56 remaining in the game.

The Packers touchdown set up one of the most memorable sequences in 49ers history. San Francisco took possession at its own 24-yard line with 1:50 remaining and three timeouts to its credit. From there Young would lead the team on a drive for the ages. Young opened the drive with completions of 17 and nine yards to WR J.J. Stokes. His third straight completion was for three yards to FB Marc Edwards, who broke three tackles to pick up a first down. After using the first timeout, Young threw incomplete to Stokes and then had a six-yard completion to WR Jerry Rice. The 49ers second timeout was followed by a nine-yard completion to RB Terry Kirby who ran out of bounds at the Green Bay 32-yard line. A seven-yard completion to RB Garrison Hearst was followed by the 49ers final timeout with 14 seconds remaining on the clock. After the timeout, Young passed incomplete to Stokes with eight seconds to play. On the next play Young dropped back, stumbled and threw a 25-yard touchdown strike to Owens who was sandwiched in the end zone by S Pat Terrell and S Darren Sharper.

CB Marquez Pope and Woodall paced the defensive effort with eight tackles each. Woodall also recorded an interception and had two passes defended. DT Brentson Buckner added six tackles, while LB Ken Norton Jr. and DT Junior Bryant recorded five stops each. CB Darnell Walker added an interception.

'98 Atlanta Falcons 20, 49ers 18 NFC Divisional Playoff January 9 at Georgia Dome (Atlanta, GA)

With San Francisco's NFL-leading run game a mere shell of itself, the Atlanta Falcons forced three turnovers and held off the 49ers, 20-18, in the NFC Divisional Playoff at the Georgia Dome.

San Francisco's hope of controlling the game on the ground came to a screeching halt on the first play of the game when RB Garrison Hearst fractured the tibia in his left leg on an inside run that had gained seven yards. With Hearst out and RB Terry Kirby hobbled with a bruised leg, the 49ers managed just 46 yards on the ground.

Atlanta's rushing attack flourished in the first half thanks to the power running of RB Jamal Anderson, who scored on a two-yard run in the first quarter to give the Falcons a 7-0 lead.

Atlanta increased its lead to 14-0 when Anderson finished off a 34-yard run with a spread eagle dive into the end zone with 3:12 left in the second quarter. The touchdown run capped a seven-play, 82-yard drive.

San Francisco snatched the momentum from the Falcons by putting together a pair of scoring drives just before the half. The 49ers answered Atlanta's second touchdown march with a nine-play, 80-yard drive that concluded with the familiar end zone combination of QB Steve Young to

WR Jerry Rice from 17 yards out. It was Rice's 20th career postseason touchdown. With just under one minute to play in the first half, DE Charles Haley chased QB Chris Chandler and deflected his pass into the waiting arms of DT Junior Bryant, who returned it four yards to the Atlanta 36-yard line. K Wade Richey made it a 14-10 game at the half with a 36-yard field goal as time expired.

The 49ers carried that momentum into the third quarter, nearly tripling Atlanta's offensive output in the second half (187 yards to 68). But turnovers did not allow them to complete the comeback. The Falcons thwarted two drives with a pair of interceptions, including one by S Eugene Robinson that was returned 77 yards, to set up a K Morten Andersen 29-yard field goal. Leading 17-10, Andersen added another 32-yard field goal to give the Falcons a 10-point edge with 10:33 remaining.

San Francisco responded to Atlanta's three pointer with a 13-play, 87-yard drive that Young finished himself with an eight-yard touchdown run. A two-point pass from QB Ty Detmer to TE Greg Clark made it 20-18 with 2:57 left.

After Atlanta used up 2:19 of the clock, the 49ers got the ball back at their own four-yard line but were only able to move to the 26 before Young's hail mary attempt was intercepted as time expired.

After rushing for 83 yards on 13 carries in the first half, Anderson was limited to 30 yards on 16 carries in the second half by San Francisco's defense. LB Winfred Tubbs made a game-high 10 tackles, while DE Chris Doelman made six stops and one sack.

Green Bay Packers 25, 49ers 15

January 13 at Lambeau Field (Green Bay, WI)

In their first postseason appearance since 1998, the 49ers dropped a hard-fought 25-15 decision to the Green Bay Packers in the NFC Wild Card game at Lambeau Field.

With a game-time temperature of 28 degrees, the 49ers won the opening coin toss and elected to receive. The two teams traded punts until Green Bay marched 40 yards in seven plays to score the first points of the game when QB Brett Favre hooked up with WR Antonio Freeman on a five-yard touchdown pass. DT Dana Stubblefield blocked the extra point to keep the score 6-0. After another 49ers punt, the Packers began their third possession of the game from their own 19-yard line. On the second play from scrimmage, Favre was intercepted by CB Ahmed Plummer, who returned it to the Green Bay 22. San Francisco picked up two first downs as they moved the ball down to the Green Bay 16-yard line, where the drive stalled. San Francisco K Jose Cortez had his 34-yard field goal attempt blocked and the score remained 6-0 early in the second quarter. After the Packers were forced to punt, San Francisco took possession at its own 14 with 7:06 remaining in the half. QB Jeff Garcia went six-of-nine for 61 yards and RB Garrison Hearst carried the ball three times for 13 yards, including a two-yard touchdown plunge with 15 seconds remaining in the half, to cap off a 15-play, 86-yard drive. After a Cortez extra point, the 49ers went in with a 7-6 halftime lead.

On their first possession of the second half, the Packers took over on their own 20-yard line. They moved the ball down to the San Francisco eight-yard line where K Ryan Longwell nailed a 26-yard field goal for the 9-7 lead. After the 49ers couldn't get anything going on offense, they punted back to Green Bay. It took only four plays for the Packers to take advantage with a 19-yard pass from Favre to TE Bubba Franks. The two-point conversion failed and the score remained 15-7.

The 49ers picked up one first down on their next drive before punting for the fifth time of the game. The Packers were forced into a three-and-out and San Francisco took over at its own 39-yard line. The 49ers marched 61 yards in six plays, culminating with Garcia hitting WR Tai Streets on a 14-yard touchdown strike and again on the two-point conversion to tie the score at 15. The Packers answered on their next possession with a 10-play, 45-yard drive as Longwell connected on a 45-yard field goal to push the score to 18-15. With 5:03 remaining in the game, the 49ers had moved the ball down to the Green Bay 41, when Garcia's pass intended for WR Terrell Owens was tipped by CB Mike McKenzie into the hands of CB Tyrone Williams at the Green Bay seven-yard line. Favre led the Packers on an eight-play, 93-yard drive ending with an RB Ahman Green nine-yard touchdown run and the 25-15 lead. RB Paul Smith took the ensuing kickoff on the 13-yard line and ran it back 16 yards before being hit by WR Cory Bradford and fumbling. The Packers recovered the fumble and ran out the clock for the 25-15 victory.

January 5 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

Buried in a 24-point playoff hole, the San Francisco 49ers exploded to record the second largest comeback in postseason history with a dramatic 39-38 victory over the New York Giants in the NFC Wild Card Game.

The 49ers trailed 38-14 with four minutes left in the third quarter, but scored 25 straight points on two touchdown passes and a scoring run by QB Jeff Garcia, as well as two, two-point conversion catches by WR Terrell Owens.

The game ended just as exciting. After Garcia drove his team 68 yards in just over two minutes for the winning score, QB Kerry Collins got New York to the San Francisco 28 with six seconds left. LS Trey Junkin, signed earlier in the week, made a low snap that P Matt Allen couldn't handle.

Allen then threw a desperate pass that fell incomplete. After New York was penalized for illegal men downfield, San Francisco leaped, sprinted and collapsed onto the field in a raucous celebration before an exhausted home crowd.

The 49ers rally was the biggest in NFC playoff history. Only Buffalo's 32-point comeback in a 41-38 victory over Houston in January 1993 was by a larger margin in the postseason.

Garcia finished the day 27-of-44 for 331 yards and three touchdowns. He rushed for 60 yards, including a 14-yard score on the first play of the fourth quarter. Two of Garcia's touchdown throws went to Owens, who had nine catches for 177 yards.

The Giants won four straight to make the postseason and dominated the first 40 minutes. Collins was 29-of-43 for 342 yards and four touchdowns, and expertly guided New York to a lead that seemed insurmountable. WR Amani Toomer caught eight passes for 136 yards and three touchdowns and RB Tiki Barber added 115 yards rushing and 62 yards receiving.

San Francisco rallied with purpose and poise. Owens caught a 26-yard touchdown pass late in the third quarter to start the rally and made big catches on every drive—right up to the final minutes, when Garcia found WR Tai Streets for the winning score.

After Owens caught a 26-yard touchdown pass and a two-point conversion with 2:03 left in the third, Garcia rushed for a 14-yard score and threw another conversion pass to Owens five seconds into the fourth quarter. Jeff Chandler added a 25-yard field goal with 7:49 left.

Collins responded and drove New York 38 yards, but Bryant — kicking out of a poor hold thanks to a poor snap by Junkin—missed a 42-yard field goal with 3:01 left.

Garcia took over, converting two straight third downs for the NFL leaders in that category. TE Eric Johnson caught a 25-yard pass to the New York 25 and Garcia scrambled 12 yards to set up his winning pass to Streets.

Tampa Bay Buccaneers 31, 49ers 6 NFC Divisional Playoff January 12 at Raymond James Stadium (Tampa, FL)

San Francisco's Super Bowl hopes ended with a 31-6 loss against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game on the road at Raymond James Stadium.

The 49ers trailed 28-6 heading into halftime and although the defense held Tampa Bay to only three points in the second half, San Francisco was held scoreless en route to the Buccaneers victory.

Tampa Bay started the scoring with a two-yard touchdown run by FB Mike Alstott on a 12-play, 74-yard drive.

San Francisco answered with a 12-play, 63-yard drive capped by a 24-yard field goal by K Jeff Chandler. The highlight of the drive was a 30-yard pitch and catch by WR Tai Streets from QB Jeff Garcia.

Tampa Bay exploded for 21 points in the second quarter, highlighted by two touchdown passes by QB Brad Johnson. Johnson connected on a 20-yard pass to WR Joe Jurevicius and a 12-yard pass to TE Rickey Dudley. In between the two scores, Chandler kicked his second field goal of the game for San Francisco, this time from 40 yards out.

Alstott added another two-yard touchdown run to end the first half and K Martin Gramatica added a 19-yard field goal to close the scoring for both teams.

LB Shelton Quarles led Tampa Bay with nine tackles and Defensive Player-of-the-Year Derrick Brooks added seven tackles and one interception.

FAST, YOUNG AND HEALTHY

When Terry Donahue took over as general manager of the 49ers, his mission was to make the 49ers "fast, young and healthy." San Francisco's roster has greatly improved since 1999, primarily through the draft. In 1999, there were 19 players drafted by the 49ers on the roster. That number increased to 28 in 2000 and to 32 in 2002. As young talent was added, the age of the roster decreased. In 2000, the average age of the offensive starters was 29.4 and the defense was 26.9. Those averages dropped to 28.1 and 26.6, respectively, in 2002. The impact has been obvious. The team had two Pro Bowlers in 1999, three in 2000 and six in each of the last two years.

49ERS HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS (NFL 1949-02)

Following are the team's historical highlights beginning with its first year in the NFL:

1949 - December 10, the NFL and AAFC announced that the two leagues will merge. The NFL agrees to adopt Baltimore, Cleveland and San Francisco as new franchises.

1950 - The 49ers struggled in their NFL debut, winning only three games. A rival coach described them as "not big enough or tough enough."

1951 - In an amazing reversal of form sparked by a great rookie group, the 49ers were in the race until the season's final day and finished only a half game off the top. Led by LB Hardy Brown and his famed "shoulder tackle," the club had one of the toughest defensive units in the League. QB Y.A. Tittle and E Billy Wilson began their great 49er careers.

1952 - After a blazing start, the 49ers slumped in mid-season. HB Hugh "The King" McElhenny came off the University of Washington campus to become the NFL PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR and the most feared runner in football.

1953 - The 49ers had their best NFL showing posting a 9-3 record, normally good enough for a championship. Detroit, however, was 10-2. Two of San Francisco's losses came with QB Y.A. Tittle sidelined because of a severe facial injury. The three defeats were by a total of nine points. FB Joe "The Jet" Perry became one of the few players in pro history to gain more than 1,000 yards in a single season. E Gordy Soltau was the league's top scorer for the second straight year.

1954 - The 49ers jumped out to a blazing start, posting a 4-0-1 record through the season's first five games. However the early momentum was slowed by injuries to three key members of the legendary "Million Dollar Backfield." QB Y.A. Tittle, HB Hugh McElhenny and FB Joe Perry all missed action with different injuries, but Perry returned to become the first player to record 1,000 yards rushing in consecutive seasons.

1955 - With HB Hugh McElhenny hobbled by a foot injury, the 49ers had their second-worst season in history under Norman P. Strader, who succeeded Buck Shaw as head coach.

1956 - In head coach Frankie Albert's first year at the helm, the 49ers were in last place at mid-season with a 1-6 record. They went 4-0-1 in their last five games for a brilliant stretch drive.

1957 - This undoubtedly was one of the most emotional and dramatic seasons in 49ers history. Every game was a "cliffhanger" and the "Alley Oop" pass from QB Y.A. Tittle to rookie HB R.C. Owens became a household byword. Emotions reached a peak when the beloved Tony Morabito collapsed and died of a heart attack at the Chicago Bears game on Oct. 27. Trailing 17-7, the 49ers fought back for a great victory, 21-17. The magnificent E Billy Wilson caught a pass from Tittle for the winning touchdown in the fourth quarter. Tied with Detroit at 8-4 when the season ended, the 49ers lost the playoff game, 31-27, after holding a 27-7 lead in the third quarter.

1958 - An up-and-down season finished on a high note with victories over Green Bay and Baltimore. The 6-6 record, however, was blackened by the 33-3 and 56-7 lacerations at the hands of the Los Angeles Rams. Head coach Frankie Albert resigned at the end of the year.

1959 - With Howard W. "Red" Hickey in charge, the 49ers were in contention all the way and QB John Brodie came into his own at quarterback when he led the team to a 21-20 upset of Cleveland. HB J.D. Smith, a converted defensive back, became the second 49er to accumulate more than 1,000 yards rushing.

1960 - Howard W. "Red" Hickey saved a seemingly hopeless season when he installed his "shotgun attack" and the club captured four of its last five games, including a 30-22 upset of Baltimore.

1961 - The success of Howard W. Hickey's shotgun amazed the football world, especially in a 49-0 victory over Detroit. QB Billy Kilmer, a passing-running rookie from UCLA, was made to order for the new offense. When the shotgun stopped, QB John Brodie took over again in the "T" formation and had the finest season in 49er QB annals. Indicating the evenness of NFL competition, the 49ers were playing for a second-place tie, plus a trip to the Runner-up Bowl at Miami, or a fifth-place position on the last day of the season. The Colts again won by three points, but 1961 will remain as one of the most exciting and interesting years in 49ers history.

1962 - For the first time since 1956, the 49ers finished a frustrating season with more defeats than victories. In so doing, the honored adage of "it's easier to win at home than on the road," proved false—the 49ers won only one of seven at Kezar Stadium, but captured five of seven road contests.

1963 - A multitude of injuries to key personnel started the 49ers off to a disappointing 2-12 season. One of the victories, however, was a 20-14 upset of ultimate world champion Chicago, the only league defeat suffered by the Bears all season.

1964 - Club chief executive Victor P. Morabito died of a heart attack in May. Injuries to key personnel prevented the 49ers from gaining enough offensive momentum to forge a winning season despite having one of the toughest defensive units in the league. Outstanding rookie performances by E Dave Parks, QB George Mira and LB Dave Wilcox also took some of the sting from the 4-10 record.

1965 - Outstanding offensive performances enabled the 49ers to jump from the bottom to fourth place in the Western Division as the team led the NFL in both scoring and total offense. QB John Brodie was the most productive passer in the NFL, E Dave Parks led the league in receiving and rookie FB Ken Willard and veteran HB John David Crow, acquired in an offseason trade, led a strong ground game. The 7-6-1 record included a season-opening 52-24 victory over the Chicago Bears, marking the most points scored by the 49ers in NFL play.

1966 - After a somewhat slow start, the 49ers got in gear just before the midway point and became one of only two teams to beat the eventual world champion Green Bay Packers. After that, they finished with a respectable 6-6-2 record and were in the battle for second place in the Western Division until the final league game. G John Thomas and E Dave Parks were All-Pro, and they joined G Howard Mudd, C Bruce Bosley, FB Ken Willard and LB Dave Wilcox in the Pro Bowl.

1967 - An auspicious start (5-1) disintegrated into disappointment for the 49ers as injuries took a heavy toll and a six-game losing streak took them out of the running. QB George Mira came off the bench to lead the squad to two season-ending victories and salvage a 7-7 record. There were bright spots, however, as QB John Brodie and the 49ers were the only team to beat the power-laden Rams in a league game. G Bruce Bosley played in the Pro Bowl for the second straight season.

1968 - Under new coach Dick Nolan, the 49ers posted a 7-6-1 record. The season turned on key wins over the New York Giants, 26-10, and Green Bay, 27-20. Brilliant performances by QB John Brodie, WR Clifton McNeil and RB Ken Willard led a prolific offense, while DT Charlie Krueger, LB Dave Wilcox and DB Kermit Alexander sparked a revitalized defense. McNeil and G Howard Mudd were chosen All-NFL and were joined by Wilcox, Willard and Alexander in the Pro Bowl.

1969 - Beset by injuries that nearly decimated the defensive unit, the 49ers struggled through the early part of the season. They went winless in their first five games before beating Baltimore, the first time they had beaten the Colts in 13 previous games. The 49ers finished 4-8-2 and five players—HB Jimmy Johnson, LB Dave Wilcox, G Elmer Collett, RB Ken Willard and rookie WR Gene Washington—were selected to the Pro Bowl. Johnson was also All-Pro and winner of the Len Eshmont Award.

1970 - This was the greatest year since the club became a member of the NFL in 1950. The team recorded a 10-3 record and captured the Western Division (NFC) Championship. In a season of superlatives, QB John Brodie was the NFL'S PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR, CB Bruce Taylor was NFC ROOKIE-OF-THE-YEAR, Coach Dick Nolan was a near-unanimous choice as NFC COACH-OF-THE-YEAR. Brodie, WR Gene Washington, LB Dave Wilcox and HB Jimmy Johnson were All-Pro and joined T Len Rohde in the Pro Bowl.

1971 - The 49ers forged a 9-5-0 record and won their second consecutive NFC Western Division title, clinching the crown on the final day by beating Detroit, 31-27, the identical score by which the Lions had knocked the 49ers out of championship play in 1957. The season also was the club's first in its plush new home, Candlestick Park. C Forrest Blue, LB Dave Wilcox and CB Jimmy Johnson were All-Pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by TE Ted Kwalick, WR Gene Washington, RB Vic Washington, DE Cedrick Hardman and CB Bruce Taylor.

1972 - Early-season inconsistency, compounded by an injury to QB John Brodie in the fifth game of the season, cast appall on the 49ers prospects for a third-straight NFC Western Division title, but QB Steve Spurrier stepped in for Brodie and turned things around with a brilliant, poised performance. In the final quarter of the final game against Minnesota, the recovered Brodie relieved Spurrier and threw two TD passes in a 20-17 win over the Vikings. The victory clinched divisional title No. 3, but Spurrier's nine-game contribution was the key. C Forrest Blue, DB Jimmy Johnson, TE Ted Kwalick, WR Gene Washington and LB Dave Wilcox were All-Pro selections.

1973 - In what was both a disappointing and significant year, the 49ers were 5-9 after tackling the NFL's toughest schedule, a rash of key injuries and an unsettled quarterback situation. It also marked the end of the brilliant careers of QB John Brodie and DT Charlie Krueger, both of whom retired at year's end. C Forrest Blue and LB Dave Wilcox were voted All-Pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by TE Ted Kwalick, G Woody Peoples and P Tom Wittum.

1974 - The 49ers used five different quarterbacks after an injury to starter QB Steve Spurrier, a week before the season opened, sidelined him for most of the year. After winning the first two games, the club lost a team-record seven straight and then closed with a rush, winning four of its last five to finish the season 6-8. RB Wilbur Jackson was named The Sporting News ROOKIE-OF-THE-YEAR and was named to the NFL All-Rookie team along with QB Tom Owen and DB Mike Holmes. C Forrest Blue and P Tom Wittum were All-NFC and selected for the Pro Bowl along with HB Jimmy Johnson. A knee injury forced perennial All-Pro LB Dave Wilcox to retire after a brilliant 11-year career with the 49ers.

1975 - A strong defensive performance throughout the season couldn't offset an erratic offense troubled by an unsettled quarterback situation and a rebuilding offensive line. The high point of the 5-9 season was a 24-23 win over Los Angeles to end a 10-game losing streak to the Rams. At season's end, DE Cedrick Hardman was the club's first-ever two-time Len Eshmont Award winner.

1976 - A turnaround year for the 49ers as the team, under coach Monte Clark, posted an 8-6 record, their first winning season since 1972. With new QB Jim Plunkett at the controls, the 49ers got off to their best start ever (6-1), before hitting a mid-season four-game losing streak knocking the club out of playoff contention. The season saw the emergence of a powerful defensive unit that led the league in quarterback sacks with 61. RB Delvin Williams set a 49ers single-season rushing record with 1,203 yards. DE Tommy Hart was named All-Pro and played in the Pro Bowl along with Williams, DE Cleveland Elam and LB Dave Washington. C Randy Cross was an All-Rookie team selection. Hart became a two-time winner of the Len Eshmont Award and CB Jimmy Johnson retired after a brilliant 16-year career with the 49ers.

1977 - In the 32nd year of their existence, the 49ers began a new era. On March 31, 1977, the club became the property of Edward J. DeBartolo Jr. and came under the guidance of Joe Thomas as general manager. The changeover was made more dramatic because the San Francisco 49ers were one of the few NFL franchises which had never previously changed ownership or location. On the field, under Coach Ken Meyer, the 49ers ran hot and cold. The club lost its first five games, then won five of the next six before dropping the final three contests to finish 5-9. SS Mel Phillips was named winner of the coveted Len Eshmont Award. DE Cleveland Elam was selected All-Pro and played for the NFC in the Pro Bowl.

1978 - The 49ers suffered through their longest season as the club fell to 2-14 and three coaches were hired and fired in less than 12 months. First Head Coach Pete McCulley departed after nine games with a 1-8 record, and his replacement, Fred O'Connor, was let go at the end of the year as the team won just one of its final seven contests. Bill Walsh was hired as the new coach and general manager. RB Paul Hofer, who replaced RB O.J. Simpson when the newly-acquired star went to the sidelines for the year with a shoulder injury, was named recipient of the Len Eshmont award.

1979 - The 49ers suffered through their second consecutive 2-14 season, but there were several indications of improvement. San Francisco went from virtually the worst-ranked offensive team in the league in '78 to one of the most productive in '79, ranking first in passing offense in the NFC and sixth in total offense in the NFL. RB Paul Hofer again was the Len Eshmont Award recipient and individual leader, racking up 615 yards rushing and an additional 662 yards receiving on 58 catches in only seven starts. QB Steve DeBerg broke Fran Tarkenton's NFL record for completions by connecting on 347 passes. K Ray Wersching set a club record with an 83.3 field goal percentage and also led the league with that mark. RB O.J. Simpson retired from the 49ers and the NFL, finishing as the second leading rusher of all time with 11,236 yards.

1980 - In their second season of the Bill Walsh era, the 49ers showed gradual improvement in their rebuilding program. A three-game winning streak to open the season, combined with a three-game victory string from Week 12 through Week 14, enabled the Niners to post a 6-10 season, tripling the number of victories from each of the previous two 2-14 campaigns. Week 14 was a day when the 49ers made NFL history. That December 7 at Candlestick Park, the 49ers overcame a 35-7 halftime deficit against the New Orleans Saints to win in overtime, 38-35. The 28-point comeback was the biggest comeback in NFL history. E Jim Stuckey and P Jim Miller were named to All-Rookie teams, while another rookie, FB Earl Cooper, led the NFC in receptions with 83, the most catches ever by an NFL rookie. WR Dwight Clark caught 82 passes to break the team wide receiver mark, and QB Joe Montana set the club passing percentage record at .645 with 176 completions in 273 attempts.

1981 - It was a year of firsts and bests for the 49ers in 1981. In his third season as head coach and general manager, Bill Walsh guided San Francisco to a 16-3 record (best record in the league that year), the NFC Western Division title (first since '72), the NFC Championship crown (first ever for the 49ers) and the World Championship/Super Bowl XVI win (first ever for the 49ers). Walsh earned every possible NFC COACH-OF-THE-YEAR award and all seven NFL COACH-OF-THE-YEAR honors, while six 49ers were named to the Pro Bowl—WR Dwight Clark, C Randy Cross, QB Joe Montana, DE Fred Dean, S Ronnie Lott and S Dwight Hicks. Three San Francisco players were selected to All-Pro teams as recognized by the NFL—Cross, Lott and Dean. Montana, who led the NFC in passing in '81, was named MVP of Super Bowl XVI (for leading his team to a 26-21 win over the Cincinnati Bengals of the AFC). Dean was picked UPI NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR, NFL OUTSTANDING DEFENSIVE LINEMAN-OF-THE-YEAR (NFL Players Association) and NFC DEFENSIVE PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR (Kansas City Committee of the 101). San Francisco opened and closed the season in Pontiac, MI in drastically different styles. The 49ers lost two of their first three games of 1981, including the season opener on the road against Detroit, then ran off seven wins—before a loss to Cleveland 15-12—and ran off eight more wins (including playoffs), the NFC Championship and Super Bowl XVI). The 49ers won 15 of their last 16 games, beat five opponents twice—including all three post-season foes—and became the first team since Chicago in 1945-47 to go from the worst NFL record (2-14 in 1979) to the league's best (13-3 in '81) in just three seasons. All this happened with three rookies (S Carlton Williamson, CB Eric Wright and Lott) starting in the defensive secondary. Those three rookies, along with Montana, Clark, Cross, WR Freddie Solomon and Hicks, combined with "old veterans" Dean and LB Jack "Hacksaw" Reynolds, formed a nucleus of world championship vintage.

1982 - As defending world champions, the San Francisco 49ers did not enjoy the 1982 season, but then not many NFL fans, coaches and players throughout the league did either (except maybe in Washington, where the Redskins were Super Bowl XVII champs). The Niners fell to 3-6 and missed out on the playoffs. In the strike-shortened season, San Francisco went winless at home (0-5) but did manage a 3-1 road record (the Niners were 0-2 prior to the 57-day players' strike and 3-4 following it). WR Dwight Clark had an outstanding season, leading the NFL with 60 receptions and being named consensus All-Pro and NFL PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR by Sports Illustrated. LB Keena Turner (second team All-Pro), S Ronnie Lott (Pro Bowl), C Randy Cross (Pro Bowl), S Dwight Hicks (Pro Bowl), T Keith Fahnhorst and QB Joe Montana (NFL record for five straight 300-yard passing games) were bright spots in an otherwise disappointing season.

1983 - For the second time in three seasons, San Francisco played in the NFC Championship Game. The '83 49ers were 10-6 (third best regular season victory total in club history) and NFC Western Division Champions (fifth time since 1970, second time since 1981). In the playoffs, San Francisco squeezed past Detroit, 24-23, but lost to Washington, 24-21, in the NFC Championship contest. Individual standouts included QB Joe Montana (the league's No. 1 all-time QB entering the 1984 season), S Ronnie Lott (making his third Pro Bowl appearance in as many years), DE Fred Dean (leading the NFC in sacks with 17.5), DE Dwaine Board (second in sacks with 13),

CB Eric Wright (team leader in interceptions with seven, two for scores), WR Dwight Clark (team leader with 70 receptions and eight TDs), WR Freddie Solomon (club record 21.4 yards per catch), K Ray Wersching (team-record 126 points, including a perfect 51-of-51 PATs), offensive linemen C Randy Cross, T Keith Fahnhorst and G John Ayers, RB Roger Craig (752 yards rushing, 427 receiving), RB Wendell Tyler (856 rushing yards, 285 receiving) and NFL All-Rookie team pick LB Riki Ellison (two interceptions in the playoffs).

1984 - The 49ers experienced the most successful regular season in NFL history by winning a league record 15 games, including all eight road contests—setting yet another NFL standard. The Niners broke 14 team records in '84, while becoming the first NFL team to sweep all of its conference games, and the first NFC West unit to win all contests within the division. Led by RB Roger Craig and QB Joe Montana, San Francisco capped the year by routing the Miami Dolphins in Super Bowl XIX, 38-16. The win was the 18th victory of the '84 campaign, establishing an NFL standard for wins in a single season (including playoffs). San Francisco scored a team-record 475 points. The 49ers defense was the stingiest in the NFL in '84, allowing a league-low 227 points scored. Honors were numerous, including Pro Bowl recognition for 10 of Bill Walsh's charges—Montana, RB Wendell Tyler, T Keith Fahnhorst, C Randy Cross and C Fred Quillan on offense and S Dwight Hicks, S Ronnie Lott, S Carlton Williamson and CB Eric Wright (the entire Niners' secondary), and LB Keena Turner on defense.

1985 - At 10-6, San Francisco qualified for postseason play for the fourth time since 1981. Offensively, RB Roger Craig and WR Jerry Rice emerged as potent weapons in the attack. Craig became the first NFL player to surpass 1,000 yards rushing and receiving in the same season. Rice was named NFC ROOKIE-OF-THE-YEAR and set the team record for first-year players with 927 receiving yards. The defense experienced the influx of four new starters in '85 (NT Michael Carter, LB Todd Shell, LB Michael Walter and DE John Harty). Carter won a berth on the Pro Bowl team, as did DBs Eric Wright and Carlton Williamson.

1986 - The 49ers captured their fourth NFC Western Division title since 1981.

Offensively, the team was led by All-Pro wide receiver WR Jerry Rice, who paced the NFL with 1,570 receiving yards and 15 touchdowns. Those marks established club standards in addition to Rice's team-record 16 total scores.

The defense managed 49 takeaways, tying the Kansas City Chiefs for NFL leadership. San Francisco's 39 interceptions and 578 return yards set team records, while five scores on interceptions returns tied another club mark. S Ronnie Lott tied HB Dave Baker's 1960 team record with 10 interceptions.

The output by young players was vital due to major injuries suffered by many starting veterans. San Francisco made 20 roster moves during the season, shuffling players in and out of action. QB Joe Montana missed Weeks 2-9 due to back surgery, while backup signal-caller Jeff Kemp did not play Weeks 8-11 due to a hip injury.

1987 - The San Francisco 49ers marched to an NFL regular season best 13-2 record. It marked a league-leading third time in the decade of the '80s that the team either tied or posted the best won-loss percentage during the regular season. San Francisco led the NFL with 5,987 total yards and was best among league defenders allowing 4,095 total yards. It was the first time in Niners history that the team led the league in fewest total yards allowed.

WR Jerry Rice set NFL records with 22 receiving touchdowns and scoring receptions in 13 consecutive games. The durable wide-out received postseason Most Valuable Player awards from nearly every news agency and sports publication.

QB Joe Montana won the first NFL passing title of his nine-year career and set a team record with 31 touchdown passes. S Ronnie Lott, Montana and Rice were joined by NT Michael Carter and RB Roger Craig on the NFC squad in the 1988 Pro Bowl.

1988 - The 49ers climaxed their 1988 season in thrilling fashion with a dramatic touchdown drive in the waning seconds of Super Bowl XXIII. QB Joe Montana's 10-yard scoring toss to WR John Taylor with 34 seconds remaining in the contest gave the Niners their third Super Bowl win of the decade and the rights to the title "Team of the 1980s."

The world championship game against the Cincinnati Bengals was a microcosm of the entire '88 campaign. San Francisco opened the year strong with a 5-2 record, but by Week 12 were 6-5, two games out of first place with only five contests to play.

That week's victory over Washington launched a four-game winning streak that resulted in the Niners moving up from third to first place in the NFC West standings and earning a third consecutive NFC Western Division title. As the season ended RB Roger Craig broke the team's single season rushing record (finishing with 1,502 yards) and K Mike Cofer established new Niners single season standards for field goals attempted (38) and made (27).

WR Jerry Rice went on a playoff tear that included: an NFL postseason record-tying three touchdown receptions against Minnesota, the Montana-to-Rice battery hooked-up on first half touchdowns of 61 and 27 yards at Chicago, and concluded with a Super Bowl XXIII MVP performance of 11 receptions for a Super Bowl record 215 yards and a touchdown.

Defenders S Ronnie Lott, DE Charles Haley, NT Michael Carter, along with Rice, Taylor and Craig, were selected to the Pro Bowl.

1989 - George Seifert was named head coach of the San Francisco 49ers just four days after the team had won its third World Championship under retiring head man Bill Walsh. Seifert's quest for the title was tested early and often as the 49ers endured nail-biting wins at Indianapolis (30-24) and Tampa Bay (20-16) to open the season. QB Joe Montana threw for 428 yards and five touchdowns, including a team-record four TD tosses in the fourth quarter resulting in a 10-point victory (38-28) in Philadelphia.

Under first-year offensive coordinator Mike Holmgren, the Niners accumulated more yardage than any other NFL team. WRs Jerry Rice and John Taylor, RB Roger Craig, G Guy McIntyre and QB Joe Montana were 1990 Pro Bowl participants. Rice's 1,483 receiving yards paced the league. Craig exceeded 1,000 yards rushing for the second consecutive season and running mate FB Tom Rathman led NFC running backs with 73 receptions.

Montana had the best season of his career. A consensus PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR, Montana's 112.4 quarterback rating set a then NFL single-season record. Montana was selected by his teammates as the '89 recipient of the Len Eshmont Award.

Fueled by Rice's 72-yard first quarter catch-and-run for a score, the 49ers exploded for 27 first half points and cruised to a 41-13 victory against Minnesota in their opening '89 playoff contest.

The 49ers faced Los Angeles in the NFC Championship Game. The Niners started slowly, however. Two long, second-quarter scoring drives and a touchdown set up by an interception gave San Francisco a 21-3 lead at intermission. Cofer's three field goals cushioned San Francisco's lead as the team advanced to Super Bowl XXIV with a satisfying 30-3 win.

The 49ers displayed optimal performance at the highest level of competition while securing their second consecutive World Championship. The resounding 55-10 defeat of the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXIV was a convergence of talent and technique, planning and purpose. San Francisco tied or set nearly 40 Super Bowl records and Montana was honored with the game's MVP award for an unprecedented third time.

1990 - The Niners finished the season with an NFL-best 14-2 mark and came within four seconds (in a 15-13 loss to the NY Giants) of earning their third consecutive trip to the Super Bowl.

In addition to recording the NFL's best won-loss mark for the second straight season, the 49ers captured the NFC Western Division title for the fifth consecutive year and the eighth time since 1981 ('81, 1983-84, 1986-90). San Francisco claimed its 11th Division crown since the NFL/AFL merger of 1970, more than any NFC Western Division opponent (the Rams were second with eight), and second most in NFL history (behind Miami's 13 AFC East titles).

San Francisco opened the 1990 season with a team-record 10 consecutive victories. The 49ers also posted an 8-0 mark on the road, giving them the longest road winning streak in league history (19 games, including postseason) heading into '91.

QB Joe Montana and WR Jerry Rice again formed one of the most prolific aerial combinations in pro football. Montana, who was named 1990 SPORTSMAN-OF-THE-YEAR by Sports Illustrated, finished his 12th NFL season by throwing for a then team-record 3,944 yards. He also tossed 26 touchdown passes (second in the NFC) and finished as the third highest rated quarterback in the conference.

On the receiving end of many of those Montana passes was Rice, who became only the fourth player in league history to reach the century mark in receptions for a single season. Rice hauled in 100 passes for 1,502 yards and 13 TDs, and earned his fifth consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl. In one of the most memorable performances of the season (if not team history), Rice tied an NFL record with five TD receptions in a 45-35 victory at Atlanta, October 14.

The defensive side of the ball was led by LB-DE Charles Haley's 58 tackles and an NFC-high 16 sacks. For his efforts, the fourth-year player from James Madison University was named as a starter in the 1991 Pro Bowl. LB Bill Romanowski led the team in tackles with 79, while CB Darryl Pollard registered 74, including a team-high 72 solo stops.

A number of team career records fell by the wayside in '90. Montana slipped past QB John Brodie to take over the career passing lead (34,998 yards), while RB Roger Craig became the all-time team record holder in career receptions with 508, moving ahead of WR Dwight Clark's total of 506.

The 49ers placed five players on the 1991 NFC Pro Bowl squad, four as starters. Representing the 49ers were Haley, Rice, S Ronnie Lott and G Guy McIntyre, while Montana, selected as a starter, was unable to participate because of a finger injury suffered in the NFC Championship game.

1991 - It was a classic case of "too little...too late" for the San Francisco 49ers in 1991.

After losing six of their first 10 games by a total of 26 points, the Niners won their remaining six contests (by a total of 95 points) but missed the playoffs for the first time since 1982.

The 49ers finished the 1991 campaign in impressive fashion during that final six-game span, with a margin of victory that averaged almost 16 points. During that final six-game span, the Niners defeated three playoff teams (New Orleans, Kansas City and Chicago) while averaging 31.5 points per game in the process.

WR Jerry Rice continued to register his place in club and league history taking over the club's career receiving record with 525 catches.

Rice finished third in the NFC with 80 receptions and 1,206 yards, surpassing 1,000 receiving yards for a club-record sixth consecutive season, and he led the NFL with 14 TD receptions.

QB Steve Young won the NFL passing title, despite missing six games due to a knee injury. Young, who passed for 2,517 yards and 17 TDs, finished with a 101.8 rating, besting Washington's Mark Rypien (97.9) for the title.

When Young was injured at Atlanta November 3, QB Steve Bono (1,617 yards, 11 TDs) came off the bench to rally the team to five consecutive victories.

On the defensive side of the ball, S Dave Waymer finished as the leader in total tackles (86), solo tackles (77), interceptions (4), interception return yards (78) and passes defended (16) and tied CB Kevin Lewis for the lead in forced fumbles (3).

LB-DE Charles Haley and DE Larry Roberts each posted seven sacks, while CB Don Griffin's 99-yard fumble return against the Bears set a team record and was the third longest return in league history.

San Francisco placed three players on the 1992 NFC Pro Bowl squad, two as starters, as Rice, Guy

McIntyre and Haley were all selected (Rice and McIntyre as starters). It was the sixth time in Rice's seven-year career that he was selected to play in the islands. McIntyre and Haley were each selected for the third time.

1992 - The San Francisco 49ers continued their winning tradition as they once again posted the NFL's best regular season record (14-2), while winning their sixth NFC Western Division title in seven years, and advancing to the NFC Championship Game for the second time in three seasons.

In the NFC Divisional Playoffs, the 49ers defeated defending Super Bowl Champion Washington (20-13). However, San Francisco fell to Dallas, 30-20, in the NFC Championship Game at Candlestick Park the following week.

WR Jerry Rice continued to etch his name in football history, becoming the NFL's all-time touchdown reception leader with 103. He tied Steve Largent's mark of 100 in Week 13 against the Philadelphia Eagles (11-29), then broke the record the following week vs. the Miami Dolphins (12-6).

QB Steve Young, who harvested a total of 34 awards, including the NFL'S MOST VALUABLE PLAYER Award, won the NFL passing title for the second straight year, finishing an amazing 16.3 points ahead of his closest competitor. Young, who passed for 3,465 yards and 25 TDs, finished with a 107.0 rating. Following his 101.8 rating in 1991, it marked the first time in league history that anyone had posted back-to-back seasons with ratings higher than 100 each year.

RB Ricky Watters gained 1,013 yards to establish a team rushing record for first-year backs. K Mike Cofer's 107 points led the 49ers in scoring for the fifth consecutive year.

On the defensive side of the ball, linebacking led the charge as LB Bill Romanowski finished as the leader in total tackles (80) and assists (15). LB Mike Walter (67 solo stops) and LB Tim Harris (17 sacks for 116 yards) also led defensive categories. CB Don Griffin paced the defensive backfield with five interceptions and 19 passes defended.

Fans at Candlestick saw the Niners rewrite part of the team's record book in '92 as they set team marks for total offense (598 yards) vs. the Buffalo Bills (Sept. 13) and points (56) in their win over the Atlanta Falcons (56-17, 10-18).

San Francisco placed seven players on the 1993 NFC Pro Bowl squad, including four starters and five first-time participants. Rice, G Guy McIntyre, DT Pierce Holt and Young were all named as starters. TE Brent Jones, Watters and T Steve Wallace were also selected. It was the seventh time in Rice's eight-year career that he was selected to play on the islands and McIntyre was named for the fourth time, while the others made their first visits.

1993 - The 1993 season was another in a long line of successes for the San Francisco 49ers. Among the team's accomplishments were: a 10-6 record, marking an NFL-record 11th consecutive season with 10 or more victories, the team's 10th NFC West title in 13 seasons and a third appearance in four years in the NFC title game.

In addition, San Francisco led the National Football League in scoring and total offense and established or tied five of the team's nine major offensive records.

The marks set included most net offensive yards (6,435), most TDs (61), most first downs (372) and highest average gain per play (6.3). The Niners also tied the team mark for net passing yards in a season with 4,302, equaling the record set in 1989.

Individually, QB Steve Young became the first player in NFL history to lead the NFL in passing three consecutive seasons, when he posted a 101.5 rating in 1993. In addition, it was his third consecutive season with a rating over 100, also a league first. Young completed 68 percent of his passes (second highest in team history) for a then club-record 4,023 yards. His 29 scoring passes in '93 ranked third on the team's single-season charts.

RB Ricky Watters led the ground game for the second consecutive season, narrowly missing the 1,000-yard mark with 950 yards. Watters posted 10 rushing TDs during the season and then set an NFL single-game playoff record with a five TD outburst vs. the New York Giants.

WR Jerry Rice posted one of his best seasons, recording 98 receptions for 1,503 yards and 15 touchdowns on his way to being named NFL OFFENSIVE PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR by the Associated Press. He also received the team's Len Eshmont Award.

Defensively, DT Dana Stubblefield was named the NFL DEFENSIVE ROOKIE-OF-THE-YEAR, capping a season in which he registered 10.5 sacks. LB Bill Romanowski (105) and S Tim McDonald (91) topped the team in tackles.

Young, Rice and McDonald were selected to the Pro Bowl, joining T Harris Barton, G Guy McIntyre, TE Brent Jones and C Jesse Sapolu with that honor.

1994 - The 1994 San Francisco 49ers completed one of the most impressive seasons in NFL history by capturing their NFL-record fifth Super Bowl Championship at Joe Robbie Stadium in Miami. San Francisco defeated the San Diego Chargers 49-26 in Super Bowl XXIX to put the finishing touches on a 16-3 season and win an unprecedented fifth Vince Lombardi Trophy.

The offseason started on a high note. Despite facing an NFL-imposed salary cap in 1994, the 49ers still managed to sign such veteran free agents as LB Ken Norton Jr., LB Gary Plummer, DE Tim Harris, DE Charles Mann, DE Richard Dent, LB Rickey Jackson, C Bart Oates, WR Ed McCaffrey and CB Toi Cook. Then, after some draft day maneuvering, San Francisco came away with two first round picks in DT Bryant Young and FB William Floyd.

Injuries, however, played a key factor early in the campaign. By the end of the second game in Kansas City, the 49ers had lost most of their starting offensive line, as well as the services of Dent, their top pass-rusher, to various injuries.

Despite signing CB Deion Sanders prior to Week 3, the problems continued. Still playing with a decimated line, San Francisco suffered its worst loss in almost 14 years when it dropped a 40-8 decision to the Philadelphia Eagles in Week 5 at Candlestick Park.

The season turned around the following Sunday at Detroit when the 49ers, trailing 14-0 at one point, rallied to defeat the Lions 27-21. That win started a winning streak that extended 10 games and saw the 49ers finish 13-3 and win the Super Bowl.

Among the other highlights from the 1994 season, the 49ers' offense was one of the most potent ever. During the 16-game regular season, the 49ers scored a team-record 505 points, a total that ranks as the fourth-highest total in NFL history. The 31.6 points per game average also established a team record. In addition, San Francisco scored 66 touchdowns, shattering the previous team mark of 61.

QB Steve Young recorded one of the finest seasons in NFL history. He set a league record with a QB rating of 112.8 and became the first player in NFL history to lead the league in passing four consecutive seasons. He also set team records for completion percentage (70.2) and touchdown passes (35). In Super Bowl XXIX, he passed for a record six touchdowns, while being named the game's MVP.

Rookie Floyd emerged as one of the league's brightest young stars, rushing for 305 yards and six TDs. The 49ers went 10-1 after he was named to the starting lineup in Week 6 at Detroit. Young finished third on the team in rushing with 293 yards and led the team with seven rushing touchdowns.

WR Jerry Rice set a team record with 112 receptions for 1,499 yards and 13 touchdowns. However, his shining moment came in Week 1 vs. the Los Angeles Raiders when he eclipsed Jim Brown's all-time touchdown mark with 127.

Norton Jr. led the 49ers with 92 total tackles and 79 solo stops. S Merton Hanks placed second with 79 tackles (66-13) while leading the team with seven interceptions. DT Dana Stubblefield's 8.5 sacks and 53.5 sack yards led the squad for the second consecutive season. And finally, Sanders, who joined the team in Week 3, shattered the team record with an NFL-high 303 interception return yards on six thefts. Among his three returns for TDs (tying a team mark) were efforts of 93, 90 and 74 yards. He was named the NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR as well as a starter in the Pro Bowl. Other Pro Bowl selections included Young, Rice, TE Brent Jones, Oates, G Jesse Sapolu, Hanks, Stubblefield, S Tim McDonald and RB Ricky Watters. CB Eric Davis had a team-leading 22 passes defended during the regular season and four interceptions in the playoffs.

1995 - San Francisco once again captured the NFC West Championship, despite battling through a season in which injuries wreaked havoc time and again. Among the key contributors who were sidelined during the campaign were starting FB William Floyd, whose season ended with a severe knee injury in the October 29 New Orleans game, and QB Steve Young, who missed five games with a shoulder injury.

Those injuries, in addition to several others in the offensive line throughout the season, would have crippled most teams; however, the 1995 49ers established a reputation as one of the grittiest in team history. The defensive unit created a new aggressive identity, finishing the season ranked No. 1 in the NFL. Not only did it lead the league in scoring defense, it set team records for fewest rushing yards allowed (1,061) and fewest rushing yards per game (66.3).

San Francisco's defense also excelled in takeaways, forcing a total of 34, including a team-record seven (five interceptions, two fumbles) that resulted in touchdowns. Among the standout performers were Pro Bowl selections CB Eric Davis, FS Merton Hanks and SS Tim McDonald, marking the second consecutive season the 49ers secondary included three Pro Bowl picks. LB Ken Norton Jr. racked up 127 tackles and set a team single-game record by returning two interceptions for TDs at St. Louis. LB Lee Woodall and DT Dana Stubblefield rounded out the Niners Pro Bowl defensive players.

Offensively, WR Jerry Rice posted the finest of his legendary 11 seasons with the 49ers. He became the NFL's career leader with 942 receptions and 15,123 yards, while also establishing the league's single-season standard with 1,848 yards. He was named as a starter in the Pro Bowl for the 10th consecutive season.

Young, who returned to quarterback the team for the final four regular season games, was also selected to the Pro Bowl, as was TE Brent Jones, who made the squad as an alternate.

One of the highlights of the season was the emergence of QB Elvis Grbac. Playing in place of the injured Young, he directed the Niners to three of their biggest wins of the season at St. Louis, at eventual world champion Dallas and at Miami.

Floyd was the recipient of the team's Len Eshmont Award.

Despite losing QB Steve Young for four full games and parts of four others with various injuries, the 49ers offense ranked second in the NFC with 398 points and sixth in the NFL in total offense. WR Jerry Rice became the first player in NFL history to record four 100-catch seasons after making a league-high 108 receptions for 1,254 yards. The 12-year veteran earned his NFL record-tying 11th Pro Bowl invitation and was a first-team All-Pro selection. Young won his fifth NFL passing title with a QB rating of 97.2 and was named to the Pro Bowl for the fifth consecutive season.

Defensively, the 49ers had the league's most imposing pass rushing trio in DE Roy Barker, DT Bryant Young and DE Chris Doleman. Barker finished fourth in the NFC with 12.5 sacks, while Doleman's 11 sacks moved him into seventh on the NFL's career list with 115.5. Young was named a starter on the NFC Pro Bowl team and earned first-team All-Pro honors after posting 11.5 sacks and 85 tackles. He also claimed the 49ers Len Eshmont Award as the team's most inspirational and courageous player. The third-year veteran was joined on the Pro Bowl team by FS Merton Hanks, who was invited for the third consecutive season.

As usual, Rice's assault on the record books continued. He became the first player in NFL history to register 1,000 career receptions and 16,000 receiving yards. Rice also surpassed K Ray Wersching as the team's all-time leading scorer with 982 points.

1997 - Although they appeared vulnerable after first week injuries to QB Steve Young and WR Jerry Rice, the San Francisco 49ers rallied under the direction of rookie head coach Steve Mariucci, reclaimed the NFC West title and advanced to the NFC Championship Game. The 49ers finished with a 13-3 mark, including an 11-game winning streak, despite losing Rice for all but two games. They did it behind a new-found running attack and the league's top-ranked defense.

Mariucci became one of 13 head coaches since the NFL-AFL merger in 1970 to lead his team to a division title in his rookie season, and he was the fourth to do it directly out of the college ranks. The former University of California skipper established an NFL record for consecutive wins by a rookie head coach with an 11-game streak (games 2-12). The 49ers claimed their 13th NFC West title in 17 years and posted 10-or-more wins for the 15th consecutive season.

Young suffered a concussion against Tampa Bay on opening day, but remained healthy throughout the season and claimed his NFL record-tying (Sammy Baugh) sixth league passing title with a rating of 104.7. The 13-year veteran showed consistency while getting adjusted to a new coach, new running back and two young receivers. The 49ers made a commitment to a power rushing attack by signing G Kevin Gogan during the off-season. The additional size up front allowed the 49ers to finish fourth in the NFC in rushing yards. RB Garrison Hearst (1,019 yards) became the first 49ers running back to rush for 1,000 yards since 1992. With Rice out, WR Terrell Owens and WR J.J. Stokes became the primary receiving targets. Owens led the team with 63 receptions for 936 yards and eight touchdowns, while Stokes posted 58 receptions for 733 yards and four touchdowns. Rice returned for one game against Denver (12-15) and helped the 49ers clinch home field advantage throughout the playoffs with a 34-17 win. Rice became the first non-kicker in league history to reach 1,000 points with a 14-yard touchdown catch in the second quarter of the Broncos contest.

The 49ers defense led the league in total yards allowed (250.8), finished second in takeaways (41) and was tied for third in sacks (54). They helped carry the burden as the offense adjusted to new personnel. For the second consecutive season, the 49ers had three players reach double figures in sacks. DT Dana Stubblefield (15.0), DE Chris Doleman (12.0) and LB Kevin Greene (10.5) led the sack attack. Stubblefield finished second in the league in sacks and was named NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR by the Associated Press and earned the Len Eshmont Award as the team's most inspirational player. Of the seven 49ers named to the Pro Bowl, five were from the defense. Stubblefield was joined by Doleman, FS Merton Hanks, LB Lee Woodall and LB Ken Norton Jr. Gogan and Young were San Francisco's offensive selections.

1998 - Led by one of the most productive offenses in team and league history, San Francisco posted its 16th consecutive winning season and remained one of the NFL's elite teams. Behind the strong arm of QB Steve Young, the powerful legs of RB Garrison Hearst and the triple-threat receiving corps of WR Jerry Rice, WR Terrell Owens and WR J.J. Stokes, the 49ers rolled to a 12-4 regular season mark and an appearance in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game.

Young opened the season in sizzling fashion. The 14-year veteran established an NFL record by throwing for over 300 yards in six consecutive games, breaking the previous record of five held by former 49ers QB Joe Montana. Young finished the season completing 322-of-517 (62.3) passes for 4,170 yards and 36 touchdowns. His final passing rating of 101.1 marked the seventh consecutive season he has surpassed the 100-point barrier and earned him his seventh consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl.

The 49ers offensive line, led by Pro Bowl G Kevin Gogan, paved the way for Hearst's record setting season. Hearst, and his team-record and career-high 1,570 yards rushing, were a major reason the 49ers led the NFL in rushing. His 198-yard performance against the New York Giants on Monday Night Football also was a team-record and a personal-best. His four plays of 70 yards or more led the league and helped earn him his first career Pro Bowl selection.

The 49ers defense was in the capable hands of Rice, Owens and Stokes. Rice, returning from a serious knee injury in 1997, earned his 12th career Pro Bowl nomination and finished with a team-high 82 receptions for 1,157 yards and nine touchdowns. The athletic Owens asserted himself among the league's best receivers and brightest young stars by catching 67 passes for 1,097 yards and 14 touchdowns. Stokes caught a career-best 63 passes for 770 yards and eight touchdowns.

The 49ers defense was paced by the inspiring play of DT Bryant Young. Young was having an exceptional season with 54 tackles and 9.5 sacks before suffering a season-ending leg injury against the New York Giants on Monday Night Football. Young was still named Eshmont Award winner although missing the final four regular season games. LB Winfred Tubbs, in his first season with the 49ers, earned his first career Pro Bowl nomination after finishing with 112 tackles. CB Darnell Walker, FS Merton Hanks, S Zack Bronson and S Tim McDonald led the team with four interceptions each.

1999 - San Francisco had a streak of 16 consecutive winning seasons snapped, after finishing the 1999 season with a 4-12 record. A season-ending injury to QB Steve Young in Week 3 sent the 49ers into a tailspin from which they did not recover.

Replacing Young proved to be quite a task for quarterbacks Jeff Garcia and Steve Stenstrom. Garcia received the first try at the job and responded admirably, posting a 24-22 victory, with a QB rating of 106.0, over the Tennessee Titans in his first NFL start. Garcia would start the next four games, but was replaced by Stenstrom in Week 10 at New Orleans. With Stenstrom struggling in starts against the Saints, Rams and Packers, the 49ers coaching staff returned Garcia to the starting lineup for a December 5 game at Cincinnati. And what a return it was. Garcia threw for a career-high 437 yards against the Bengals, including throwing two touchdown passes to WR Jerry Rice. The game proved to be an impetus for Garcia, who over the final five games of the season completed 121-of-182 passes for 1,441 yards, eight touchdowns and three interceptions for a quarterback rating of 98.3. During that stint, Garcia completed 66.5 percent of his passes and was sacked just three times for 25 yards.

San Francisco also was faced with the task of replacing 1998 Pro Bowl RB Garrison Hearst and his team-record 1,570 yards rushing. A key off-season acquisition of RB Charlie Garner proved more than an adequate replacement. Garner rushed for a career-high 1,229 yards, caught a career-high 56 passes for 535 yards and finished third in the NFL with 1,764 total yards. The San Francisco running attack also was given a boost by second-year FB Fred Beasley's 276 yards rushing and 282 yards receiving, both marks were career-high's. Overall the 49ers led the NFL with 2,095 yards on the ground, becoming the first team to lead the league for consecutive seasons since Buffalo did it in 1991-92. The 49ers also led the league with a per rush average of 5.0.

The San Francisco receiving corps was once again paced by Rice. He finished the year with 67 receptions for 830 yards and five touchdowns. Certainly not the kind of numbers that Rice is accustomed to, but over the final five games of the season, Rice caught 24 passes for 420 yards (17.5) and three touchdowns. In that span he posted two 100-yard games, including a six-reception, 143-yard effort at Atlanta (1-3) in the season finale. WR Terrell Owens added 60 receptions for 754 yards and four touchdowns while J.J. Stokes totaled 34 grabs for 429 yards and two touchdowns, including a five-reception, 130-yard performance at Atlanta (1-3) in the season finale.

The 49ers defense struggled for much of the season, but was highlighted by several individual performances. DT Bryant Young was named the Associated Press COMEBACK PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR and earned a Pro Bowl selection. After overcoming a devastating leg fracture that ended his 1998 season and left his future clouded in doubt, Young answered all questions by earning a Pro Bowl nomination with his 11.0 sacks on the season. S Lance Schulters, in his first season as a starter, responded by finishing second in the NFC with six interceptions, including a game-winning 64-yard return against New Orleans (9-19) in the second week of the season. Schulters was named as the starting free safety for the NFC squad in the 2000 Pro Bowl.

2000 - San Francisco opened its sixth decade in the NFL under new leadership. The transfer of ownership from Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr. to his sister Denise DeBartolo York was approved by the NFL May 23, 2000. DeBartolo, Jr. ended his tenure after guiding the 49ers to five Super Bowl Championships and 16 postseason appearances.

A young San Francisco team, which at one point started five rookies on defense, showed marked improvement throughout the season, winning four of the last six games, to finish 6-10. The offense again was one of the best in the league, which led to three starters being named to their first Pro Bowl - QB Jeff Garcia, RB Charlie Garner and WR Terrell Owens.

Garcia, who was in his first season as the full-time starter, set the pace for the offense all season long. He set career-highs in every category, completing 355-of-561 passes for a team record 4,278 yards, with 31 touchdowns and only 10 interceptions. He finished the year ranked fifth in the NFL with a 97.6 quarterback rating. Garcia started all 16 games and had six 300-yard passing games, including a 402-yard effort against Chicago in December, which was his third straight 300-yard passing performance and his sixth of the season. His productivity not only led to his first Pro Bowl appearance, but Football Digest also named him the NFL'S MOST IMPROVED PLAYER.

WR Terrell Owens was one of the many benefactors of Garcia's success. Owens posted his second career 1,000-yard season, catching a career-high 97 passes for 1,451 yards, which ranked him fourth in the NFL. Owens, who only played in 14 games during the season, also had five 100-yard games and scored a team-high 13 touchdowns. Owens had his best performance of his career against Chicago in December, breaking a 50-year old NFL record with 20 receptions for 283 yards and one touchdown. Owens broke Tom Fears' NFL record of 18 receptions in a game, which he set back in 1950 with the Rams.

The 49ers backfield was again in the capable hands of Garner and FB Fred Beasley. Garner earned his first Pro Bowl appearance and became the fourth 49ers running back to rush for 1,000 yards in back-to-back seasons. Garner, behind the stellar play of the 49ers offensive line, ran for 1,142 yards on 258 carries and seven touchdowns. Also a receiving threat, Garner set career-highs with 68 receptions for 647 yards and three touchdowns. In addition, he established a team record with 201 yards rushing vs. Dallas. Beasley also had a solid year, rushing for 147 yards on 50 carries and three touchdowns, while catching 31 passes for 233 yards and three touchdowns.

The 49ers defense was young, but got better over the last half of the season. The defense was again paced by the efforts of DT Bryant Young, who posted 51 tackles and led the team in sacks with 9.5. LB Ken Norton Jr. was one of only three players to start all 16 games, extending his consecutive games streak to 160. The 49ers defense started five rookies in the final game at Denver and had seven different rookies start throughout the 2000 campaign. Rookies CB Ahmed Plummer, DE John Engelberger and CB Jason Webster all started at least 10 games. Six rookies—Plummer, Webster, Engelberger, LB Julian Peterson, DT Cedric Killings and S Ronnie Heard—participated in more than 20-percent of the total 1,096 plays.

2001 - The San Francisco 49ers made their return to the playoffs after a two-year absence, as the young and improving team posted a 12-4 record. The year marked the return of RB Garrison Hearst, who came back from a devastating ankle injury that kept him out of football for two seasons. Hearst rushed for 1,206 yards, was named Associated Press COMEBACK PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR and also earned his second career Pro Bowl nomination. In total, the 49ers had six players travel to the islands for the annual all-star game. In addition, tion to Hearst on offense, QB Jeff Garcia and WR Terrell Owens made their second straight appearances, C Jeremy Newberry played in his first Pro Bowl, G Ray Brown made the first Pro Bowl appearance in his 16-year career, and on defense DT Bryant Young made his third Pro Bowl appearance, anchoring the 49ers defense that improved from ranking 29th in 2000 to 13th in 2001.

The offense was again in the capable hands of Garcia. The Gilroy native proved that 2000 wasn't a fluke. He completed 316-of-504 passes for 3,538 yards. The third-year veteran also threw 32 touchdowns, becoming the first 49ers quarterback to throw for 30 or more touchdowns in consecutive seasons. Owens was one of Garcia's favorite targets, especially when it came to the endzone. Owens caught 93 balls for 1,412 yards and a career-high and NFL leading 16 touchdowns. While Hearst was the big story, the offensive line, which returned all five starters from the 2000 season, proved to be vital to the team's success. For the fifth consecutive season, San Francisco produced a 1,000-yard rusher, which set a new team record.

The defense was still young, but improved as the season progressed. The defensive line added two new starters to the mix, although one of them was not so new. DT Dana Stubblefield returned to the 49ers after spending three seasons with Washington and rookie DE Andre Carter made an impression, especially in the last four weeks of the season when he was named NFC ROOKIE-OF-THE-MONTH. Carter led the team in sacks with 6.5, adding 4.5 of those in the last five games. The unit as a whole improved over the last half of the season, posting a team record three shutouts in the last month of the campaign. Another big addition was LB Derek Smith, who came over from the Redskins as well. Smith brought with him four consecutive seasons of 100 tackles or more. Smith kept that streak alive as he led the defense with 126 total tackles. Also helping the defense with its improvement was S Zack Bronson and CB Ahmed Plummer. Both players recorded career-highs with seven interceptions each. Bronson also returned two for touchdowns, including a career-high and team record 97-yard return at Chicago.

2002 – The San Francisco 49ers entered 2002 with hopes of advancing past the first round of the NFC playoffs. The team accomplished the mission finishing the season with 10 wins and advancing to the NFC Divisional Playoff in grand fashion with the second largest playoff comeback in NFL history. The 49ers finished the season with a 5-1 division record and won their first division title since 1997.

The team's success came from its ability to minimize turnovers, along with a strong running game. The 49ers gained 2,244 yards on the ground for the second consecutive season and RB Garrison Hearst established a career-high with eight rushing touchdowns. Helping Hearst were Pro Bowlers G Ron Stone and C Jeremy Newberry, who anchored an offensive line that was third in the NFL in fewest sacks allowed. San Francisco had the least amount of turnovers in the NFC with 17.

In his third season as director of the 49ers offense, QB Jeff Garcia earned his third consecutive Pro Bowl berth. He completed 62 percent of his passes and tied a team record by directing five fourth-quarter comebacks.

WR Terrell Owens continued his dominance with a career-high 100 receptions and led the NFL with 13 receiving touchdowns. Owens surpassed 1,000 receiving yards for the third consecutive season and earned his third consecutive Pro Bowl bid.

Defensively, LB Julian Peterson had a breakout season with a career-high 104 tackles. He shut down several of the league's top tight ends and made history by playing four positions in a single game against Dallas (12-8). His effort earned him his first career Pro Bowl appearance.

DT Bryant Young added an interior presence with his fourth career Pro Bowl nomination and S Tony Parrish proved to be an invaluable pickup with a career-high seven interceptions. He won the Len Eshmont and the Ed Block Courage Award, both firsts for a player in his inaugural season.

2003 – Head Coach Steve Mariucci is released from the final year of his contract on January 15, 2003. The 49ers conducted an extensive search for Mariucci's successor and in the end hired Dennis Erickson. Erickson was introduced as the 14th head coach in 49ers team history on February 12, 2003.

IN THE PACK

San Francisco has been productive in the win column over the last five years. The 49ers are tied for fourth over the last five years in wins (33) and winning percentage (.550) with division rival St. Louis.

CARTER SACK

Second-year defensive end Andre Carter has shown enormous strides in his young NFL career. After leading the team in sacks as a rookie with 6.5, Carter showed no signs of letting up, leading the team with 12.5 sacks in 2002. Over a 22-game span (12-2-01 to 12-30-02), Carter recorded 17.5 sacks, the fourth highest total in the NFL during that stretch. The Buccaneers Simeon Rice leads the NFL with 23.5 over the same span.

MOST SACKS SINCE DEC. 2, 2001

PLAYER	SACKS
1. Simeon Rice (TB)	23.5
2. Jason Taylor (MIA)	21.0
3. Michael Strahan (NYG)	18.0
4. Andre Carter (SF)	17.5
5. Leonard Little (STL)	17.0

49ERS IN THE HALL OF FAME

Leo Nomellini

1969-DT Leo Nomellini (1950-63). Was the first-ever draft choice after the 49ers joined the NFL. Played every 49ers game for 14 seasons. Altogether he played in 174 consecutive regular season games, including 10 trips to the Pro Bowl, and played in 266 contests. "The Lion" became one of the few to be named to an All-NFL team on both offense and defense. Retired at age 39. Played college ball at the University of Minnesota. Born June 19, 1924 in Lucca, Italy.

Joe Perry

1969-FB Joe Perry (1948-60, 63). First player in NFL history to gain 1,000 yards two consecutive seasons. His 9,723 rushing yards placed him second only to Jim Brown when he retired. Finished career with 12,505 combined yards. Nicknamed "The Jet" because of his quick starts. Also played for the Baltimore Colts (1961-62). Attended Compton Junior College. Born January 22, 1927 in Stevens, AR.

Hugh McElhenny

1970-HB Hugh McElhenny (1952-60). One of only three players to gain over 11,000 yards carrying the ball. Scored 60 career touchdowns, 38 rushing, including a 42-yard touchdown run on his first pro play in preseason. In 1952 McElhenny had the longest punt return (94) and longest play from scrimmage (89). Scored two touchdowns in first Pro Bowl after his rookie year. Also played for Minnesota Vikings (1961-62), New York Giants (1963) and Detroit Lions (1964). Played college football at University of Washington. Born December 31, 1928 in Los Angeles, CA.

Y. A. Tittle

1971-QB Y.A. Tittle (1951-60). Had 17 years of NFL experience, finishing his career with 33,070 passing yards and 281 touchdowns (39 rushing). Won NFL Most Valuable Player Award in 1961 and '63. Threw 33 touchdown passes and a career-high 3,224 yards in 1962. In '63 he threw 36 touchdowns, completing 60.2 percent of his passes. Also played for the Baltimore Colts (1948-50) and the New York Giants (1961-64). Played college ball at Louisiana State University. Born October 24, 1926 in Marshall, TX.

Bob St. Clair

1987-FB John Henry Johnson (1954-56). Was a member of what's been noted as the finest backfield in NFL history. The foursome known as "The Million Dollar Backfield" and "The Fabulous Foursome" included three other Hall of Famers—QB Y.A. Tittle and RBs Joe Perry and Hugh McElhenny. Gained 6,803 yards rushing, including 48 touchdowns. Also played for the Detroit Lions (1957-59), Pittsburgh Steelers (1960-65) and Houston Oilers (1966). Attended St. Mary's College and Arizona State University. Born November 24, 1929 in Waterproof, LA.

Bill Walsh

1990-T Bob St. Clair (1953-63). Exceptional offensive lineman. Also played goal line defense and blocked 10 field goals in 1956. Once lost five teeth when blocking a punt. Earned All-NFL honors three times and made five Pro Bowl appearances. Attended University of San Francisco and Tulsa. Born February 18, 1931 in San Francisco, CA.

1993-Head Coach Bill Walsh (1979-88). Led "The Team of the '80s" to three Super Bowl titles (XVI, XIX, XXIII) in 10 years. Compiled a .617 winning percentage with a 102-63-1 mark that included 10 wins in 14 post-season games. Notorious for his reputation of being an outstanding offensive coach, Walsh developed what is now known as the "West Coast Offense." Named NFL Coach of the Year in 1981 and '84. Attended San Jose State. Born November 30, 1931 in Los Angeles, CA.

Jimmy Johnson

1994-CB Jimmy Johnson (1961-76). Starter on both offense and defense at UCLA. Began 49ers career as a defensive back, moved to offense, then stayed at DB in his third season. Intercepted 47 passes for 615 yards, including five his rookie year. As a receiver in 1962 he caught 34 passes for 627 yards and four touchdowns. Recognized as one of the best man-to-man defenders in NFL history. Played in five Pro Bowls and twice won the prestigious Len Eshmont Award selected by his teammates for inspirational play. Born March 31, 1938 in Dallas, TX.

Joe Montana

2000-QB Joe Montana (1979-94). Solidified his place in professional sports annals with numerous NFL records and a legendary reputation as a leader. Finished his career with 40,551 yards passing and 273 touchdowns. Ranks second all time with a 92.3 career passer rating and 62.3 completion percentage. Led the league in passing in 1987 and 1989. Won back-to-back NFL MVP awards in 1989 and 1990. Named the Sports Illustrated Sportsman-of-the-Year in 1990. Named Super Bowl MVP an unprecedented three times. Directed his team to the playoffs 12 times and boasts a 95.3 passer rating in 23 postseason games. Holds NFL postseason records in completions (460), attempts (734), yards gained (5,772), touchdowns (45) and 300-yard passing games (6). Born June 11, 1956 in New Eagle, PA.

Ronnie Lott

2000-DB Ronnie Lott (1981-94). Known as one of the most ferocious and feared players in NFL history. Played in 10 Pro Bowls and won four Super Bowl Championships. Earned All-Pro honors at three different positions: cornerback, free safety and strong safety. Registered 1,161 career tackles, including five seasons with at least 100 tackles. Ranks fifth in NFL history with 63 interceptions. Led the league in interceptions in 1986 and 1991 and returned five interceptions for touchdowns. Holds the NFL record for postseason interceptions with nine. Named to the 75th Anniversary All-Time team, 1980's All-Decade team and Super Bowl Silver Anniversary team as a cornerback. Born May 8, 1959 in Albuquerque, NM.

Dave Wilcox

2000-LB Dave Wilcox (1964-74). Nicknamed "The Intimidator" by coaches and teammates for his tough, hard-nosed playing style. Considered to be one of the finest outside linebackers to ever play the game. Earned seven Pro Bowl nominations and was a seven-time All-Pro selection. Was selected by his teammates as the Len Eshmont Award winner as the team's most inspirational and courageous player in 1967. Had his best season as a professional in 1973, recording 104 tackles, 13 for loss, two interceptions, four forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. Recovered 12 career fumbles for 48 yards and one touchdown. Born September 29, 1942 in Eugene, OR.

SAN FRANCISCO'S WINNING TRADITION

For two decades (1980-99), the San Francisco 49ers established itself as the NFL's most dominant franchise. The 49ers won more Super Bowls, posted more winning seasons, claimed more divisional titles and made more playoff appearances than any team in the league over that 20-year stretch.

Since the DeBartolo Corporation purchased the team in 1977, the 49ers made one of the most dramatic turnarounds in sports history, rebounding from back-to-back 2-14 seasons in 1978-79 to Super Bowl Champions in 1981. The 49ers unparalleled success continued into the '90s, winning their fifth Super Bowl in 1994, becoming the first team in NFL history to win five Super Bowl titles.

SECOND TIME AROUND

While Dennis Erickson's first stint in the NFL resulted in a sub-.500 record, there is solid evidence his second attempt will be successful. Of the 15 coaches returning to the NFL in the last 10 years, six produced a higher winning percentage with their new team than with their previous employer: Bill Belichick - .450 to .521, Pete Carroll - .375 to .563, Jimmy Johnson - .550 to .563, Wade Phillips - .500 to .604, Mike Shanahan - .400 to .633 and Dave Wannstedt - .417 to .646. Eight coaches finished their first season with a winning record and four made the postseason (Belichick, Carroll, Phillips and Wannstedt). Eventually, nine of the 15 coaches took their new team to the playoffs and three won the Super Bowl (Belichick, Shanahan and Vermeil).

OVERTIME GAMES

October 31, 1976 - St. Louis 23, San Francisco 20

In the fourth quarter, St. Louis held a 14-13 lead after San Francisco missed an extra point on its previous scoring drive. San Francisco then took the lead 20-14 in the fourth when Delvin Williams scored his third touchdown of the day. With eight minutes left in the game, Cardinals quarterback Jim Hart connected with Mel Gray on a 77-yard touchdown pass for the 20-20 tie. The extra point was blocked and the two teams went into overtime. St. Louis won the overtime coin toss but was forced to punt. Tony Leonard fumbled the kick at the 43-yard line, which was recovered by the Cardinals. St. Louis then marched down field to set up Jim Bakken for the 21-yard field goal to lift the Cardinals to a 23-20 victory.

December 5, 1976 - San Diego 13, San Francisco 7

In a battle of Northern and Southern California, the San Francisco 49ers and San Diego Chargers played to a scoreless tie in the first half. The defensive struggle continued into the second half and the score remained 0-0 at the end of the third quarter. On San Diego's first possession of the fourth quarter, Dan Fouts guided them on a 16-play, 80-yard scoring drive, capped by a Bo Matthews two-yard touchdown run. San Francisco answered on its next possession with a 64-yard scoring drive. Paul Hofer caught an eight-yard touchdown pass from Scott Bull to make the score 7-6. The extra point was blocked, but the Chargers Tom Graham was flagged for off-sides. After the penalty was marked off, Steve Mike-Mayer connected to tie the game at seven with just over a minute left in regulation. San Diego won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive. The Chargers began their first possession on their own seven-yard line where Fouts promptly guided them on a nine-play, 93-yard drive, which was capped by a Mercury Morris 13-yard touchdown run for the 13-7 win.

November 13, 1977 - San Francisco 10, New Orleans 7

The 49ers got their first-ever overtime victory at New Orleans. The Saints got on the board early in the first quarter on an eight-yard run by Tony Galbreath. The Saints appeared to grab a commanding lead at the end of the first half when Richard Mauti returned a Tom Wittum punt 65 yards for a touchdown 10 seconds before halftime, but a New Orleans clipping penalty nullified the score. The 49ers tied it up in the third quarter with a five-yard romp by Delvin Williams. Neither team would score again in regulation and the game went to overtime knotted at seven. The Saints won the overtime coin toss, but were unable to move the ball, giving it back to the 49ers. San Francisco started from its own 41-yard line and moved the ball down to the Saints 16, where Ray Wersching connected on a 33-yard game-winning field goal.

December 7, 1980 - San Francisco 38, New Orleans 35

New Orleans jumped out to a 35-7 halftime lead behind touchdown passes of 33, 21 and 41 yards from Archie Manning. Less than five minutes into the third quarter, the 49ers went on an 88-yard, nine-play drive that culminated with a one-yard touchdown run by Joe Montana. Minutes later, Montana hooked up with Dwight Clark for a 71-yard touchdown pass to bring the 49ers within 14 points. After the San Francisco defense shut out New Orleans for the second straight quarter, they tied the game with 1:50 left in the fourth quarter with Lenvil Elliott's seven-yard touchdown jaunt, forcing overtime. New Orleans won the coin toss, but failed to pick up a first down on its first possession. San Francisco took the ball on its own 27 and marched 55 yards in 13 plays for the game-winning 36-yard field goal by Ray Wersching.

October 12, 1986 - Minnesota 27, San Francisco 24

With Joe Montana out, Jeff Kemp stepped in to lead San Francisco against a powerful Minnesota Vikings team. Minnesota struck first with a six-yard touchdown pass from Tommy Kramer to Anthony Carter. The 49ers answered back when Kemp hit Dwight Clark with a 45-yard strike to tie the game. With 1:14 left in the first quarter, the Vikings Issiac Holt recovered a blocked punt in the end zone for a 14-7 lead. San Francisco took a 17-14 lead into halftime after a 39-yard Ray Wersching field goal and a 34-yard touchdown pass from Kemp to Jerry Rice. After the Vikings stalled on their first drive of the third quarter, Kemp led the 49ers on a six-play, 53-yard drive that ended with a 17-yard touchdown reception by Rice. Minnesota answered back with a 26-yard field goal by Chuck Nelson in the third quarter to cut the 49ers lead to 24-17. With 6:37 remaining in the fourth quarter, Kramer hit Anthony Carter with a 35-yard touchdown pass to tie the game. In overtime, Minnesota won the toss and elected to receive. They promptly went on a 58-yard drive and Nelson hit a 28-yard field goal for the 27-24 win.

October 19, 1986 - Atlanta 10, San Francisco 10

San Francisco visited Atlanta for a battle with the division rival Falcons and took an early 7-0 lead on a Roger Craig one-yard romp. The Falcons responded with a punishing 17-play, 44-yard drive that resulted in a 47-yard field goal by Mick Luckhurst. San Francisco maintained its lead in the second quarter with a 53-yard, 13-play drive, which led to a 24-yard Ray Wersching field goal and a 10-3 lead. The defenses dominated the second half, holding the offenses scoreless for all of the third quarter and most of the fourth. With just over a minute remaining in regulation, the Falcons took advantage of great field position and scored on a 39-yard touchdown pass from Dave Archer to Sylvester Stamps to tie the game at 10. The Falcons won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive. After generating only one first down, the Falcons were forced to give up possession. The 49ers mirrored the Falcons on their first possession of overtime and punted with 6:42 remaining. Both teams had possession two more times in overtime, but could not produce a score as the game ended in a 10-10 tie.

October 9, 1988 - Denver 16, San Francisco 13

Two of the best teams in the NFL faced off in an inter-conference battle as the Denver Broncos visited Candlestick Park. The 49ers started the scoring with a 37-yard Mike Cofer field goal with 4:52 remaining in the first quarter. The Broncos answered early in the second with a 27-yard field goal by Rich Karlis to knot the game at three. With San Francisco's second possession of the second quarter, Joe Montana opened up the offense and led the 49ers 95 yards and capped it off with a six-yard quarterback sneak for a 10-3 lead at halftime. The only scoring in the third quarter came on Karlis' 27-yard field goal with five minutes remaining, cutting the 49ers lead to 10-6. Cofer quickly answered with a 27-yard field goal with one minute on the clock in the third quarter for the 13-6 lead. After an injury, John Elway returned to hit Vance Johnson with an eight-yard touchdown pass to tie the game at 13 with 6:23 remaining. Neither team could score in the final minutes of regulation and headed into overtime. On San Francisco's first possession, Andre Townsend sacked Montana, injuring his ribs. Steve Young took over, and on his first play threw an interception to Mark Haynes ending the threat. After a five-and-out drive by the Broncos, the 49ers took over on their own five-yard line. A second Young interception, deep in Broncos territory, helped set the stage for Karlis to connect on a 22-yard game-winning field goal.

December 9, 1990 - San Francisco 20, Cincinnati 17

A capacity crowd filled Riverfront Stadium as the San Francisco 49ers invaded Cincinnati for a late-season battle. On the Bengals first possession, Boomer Esiason drove his team 70 yards for the game's opening score, a two-yard touchdown pass to Craig Taylor. San Francisco answered back on its next possession when Tom Rathman capped off a 73-yard drive with a one-yard plunge into the end zone for the 7-7 tie. Cincinnati came out strong in the second half. The Bengals scored on a Jim Breech field goal to open the third and break the tie. San Francisco enjoyed its first lead of the game after Harry Sydney scored on a three-yard run. With just over two minutes elapsed in the fourth quarter, Ickey Woods dove in from one yard out to regain the lead for Cincinnati, 17-14. The 49ers next drive stalled and they would not regain possession until only 4:11 remained in regulation. On the first play, Joe Montana hit Jerry Rice for a 29-yard strike and guided the team down to the Cincinnati six-yard line. Mike Cofer hit a 23-yard field goal with just over a minute remaining to send the game into overtime. San Francisco won its first coin toss in five overtime games and wasted no time driving 75 yards in 11 plays to set up Cofer's 23-yard game-winning field goal and the 20-17 victory.

January 3, 1994 - Philadelphia 37, San Francisco 34

Turnovers and an ill-timed penalty marred the 49ers first overtime game in four years. The Philadelphia Eagles struck early and often, first on a 34-yard Roger Ruzek field goal five minutes into the game. On San Francisco's first possession, Steve Young was hit and fumbled the ball, which was recovered by Byron Evans who returned it 30 yards for a touchdown and a 10-0 lead. On their second possession, Young led the 49ers on a seven-play, 46-yard drive capped by a Mike Cofer 30-yard field goal to cut the deficit to seven. With Bubby Brister at the helm, the Eagles drove 76 yards in the opening minutes of the second quarter and connected with Calvin Williams for a 13-yard touchdown to push the lead to 17-3. The Eagles quickly got the ball back on a punt after a three-and-out series by the 49ers. Brister guided Philadelphia to an eight-play, 64-yard touchdown scoring drive to take a commanding 21-point lead. The 49ers end zone drought ended with just less than two minutes remaining in the half when Young hit Jerry Rice for a three-yard touchdown that brought the score to 24-10 at halftime. San Francisco started the second half strong, beginning with a 60-yard kickoff return by Dexter Carter to give the 49ers the ball on Philadelphia's 38-yard line. Capping off a punishing 38-yard, nine-play drive, Ricky Watters ran 11 yards for the score. After a Philadelphia punt, John Taylor caught a 38-yard touchdown pass to tie the game at 24. Philadelphia took advantage of a Young injury by intercepting a Steve Bono pass. The Eagles worked quickly, moving 69 yards in just two plays to take a 31-24 lead. San Francisco gave Philadelphia good field position again with a fumble on its own 40, allowing the Eagles to increase their lead to 10 with a Ruzek 32-yard field goal with 1:16 remaining in the third quarter. Set up by a Don Griffin interception, Bono drove the 49ers 42 yards in just over four minutes and scored on a one-yard keeper that closed the gap to 34-31. After a Philadelphia punt, the Niners drove down and tied the game on a Cofer 29-yard field goal with 15 seconds left in regulation. San Francisco won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive, but failed to score on two overtime possessions. On Philadelphia's second possession of overtime, they drove to San Francisco's 20-yard line. With four seconds showing on the clock, the Eagles set up for a 38-yard field goal. Ruzek missed the field goal wide right, but Merton Hanks was flagged for roughing the kicker. After a 10-yard penalty, Ruzek hit a 28-yarder with no time left on the clock for the 37-34 win.

October 14, 1996 - Green Bay 23, San Francisco 20

With Steve Young out with a groin injury, Elvis Grbac led San Francisco against Brett Favre and the Green Bay Packers. After an unsuccessful first possession, the Packers scored on a 30-yard field goal by Chris Jacke with just over five minutes remaining in the first quarter for the 3-0 lead. They took a 6-0 lead on another Jacke 25-yard field goal. On San Francisco's second possession of the second quarter, Grbac led a six-play, 36-yard drive that resulted in a Jeff Wilkins 48-yard field goal. After a three-and-out series by the Packers, Jerry Rice caught a seven-yard touchdown from Grbac for a 10-6 lead. Aided by a Dana Stubblefield interception, Rice and Grbac put the 49ers up 17-6 at the half with a 13-yard touchdown pass. Green Bay trimmed the lead to 17-14 when Favre hit Don Beebe for a 59-yard touchdown and followed it with a two-point conversion toss to Edger Bennett. Chris Jacke hit a 35-yard field goal to tie the game at 17 with 3:24 left in regulation. San Francisco won the overtime coin toss but was forced to punt after going three-and-out. Green Bay received the ball on its own 44 and drove 21 yards to set up Jacke for a 53-yard field goal for the 23-20 victory.

November 10, 1996 - Dallas 20, San Francisco 17

The two most dominating teams in the NFL met in a mid-season battle for NFC supremacy as the Dallas Cowboys traveled to 3Com Park. The 49ers jumped out to a quick lead after a Jeff Wilkins 28-yard field goal. They extended their lead to 10-0 on a 29-yard touchdown strike from Steve Young to Iheanyi Uwaezuoike. Quiet for most of the first half, the Cowboys finally got on the board with a 72-yard scoring drive that ended on a Troy Aikman three-yard touchdown run, which cut the deficit to 10-7 at halftime. Defenses dominated in the third quarter with neither team allowing a score. Dallas ended the scoring drought with a Chris Boniol 26-yard field goal four seconds into the fourth quarter to tie the game at 10. With Young out in the second half after sustaining a concussion, Elvis Grbac led San Francisco on a nine-play, 68-yard scoring drive on its next possession. Terry Kirby capped it off with a 27-yard touchdown run. After Fred Strickland intercepted a Grbac pass at the 49ers 15-yard line, Troy Aikman hit Eric Bjornson for a six-yard touchdown pass, knotting the game at 17 and forcing overtime. The Cowboys won the overtime coin toss and wasted no time marching down the field. After 12 plays, Chris Boniol hit the game-winning 29-yard field goal for the 20-17 victory.

November 24 1996 - San Francisco 19, Washington 16

In the 49ers second overtime game in November, and third of the season, the Washington Redskins hosted San Francisco for the first time in two years. In what would prove to be a game dominated by special teams, San Francisco struck first with a 20-yard field goal from Jeff Wilkins. Washington's Scott Blanton hit field goals from 19 and 48 yards out and Wilkins added another to knot the score at six going into halftime. The only score in the third quarter came on a Blanton field goal from 41 yards out to give Washington a 9-6 lead. San Francisco got on the board first in the fourth quarter with a Wilkins 44-yard field goal three minutes into the period. On the ensuing possession, Gus Ferotte drove the Redskins 78 yards, which culminated with a Jamie Asher 20-yard touchdown reception. The 49ers tied the game with 1:57 remaining in regulation on a one-yard run by William Floyd, forcing overtime. San Francisco won the coin toss and promptly went on a 48-yard scoring drive that was capped by a 38-yard field goal by Wilkins for the 19-16 win.

September 6 1998 - San Francisco 36, New York Jets 30

In the opening weekend of the 1998 season, fans were treated to one of the most exciting games and one of the most exciting plays in NFL history. After a fast-paced first half, the 49ers found themselves trailing 17-14 at halftime after Glen Foley hit Wayne Chrebet from six-yards out for the score with 32 seconds remaining in the second quarter. On its first possession in the second half, San Francisco evened the score at 17 with a 22-yard field goal by Wade Richey. On the following possession, Foley found Keyshawn Johnson for a 21-yard touchdown and a 24-17 lead. With just over three minutes remaining in the third quarter, Jerry Rice caught a 14-yard touchdown from Steve Young to bring the 49ers within one. The extra point was blocked and the score remained 24-23 heading into the fourth quarter. New York extended its lead to 27-23 after a John Hall 32-yard field goal. San Francisco took possession with 3:38 left in regulation and went on a 76-yard, five-play drive that was capped by a 38-yard touchdown pass from Young to J.J. Stokes, giving the 49ers the lead 30-27 with just over one minute remaining in regulation. New York then drove the ball to the 49ers 13-yard line, where John Hall tied the game at 30 with just three seconds on the clock. Both New York and San Francisco went three-and-out on their first possessions of overtime. The Jets moved to midfield on their second possession before being forced to punt, pinning the 49ers on their own four-yard line. With 11:09 remaining in overtime, on San Francisco's first play of its second possession, Young gave the ball to Garrison Hearst, who ran right and broke six tackles on his way to a 96-yard, game-winning touchdown run and the 36-30 victory.

December 6, 1998 - San Francisco 31, Carolina 28

San Francisco extended its winning streak to four games with an exciting, high-scoring match-up with the Carolina Panthers. After an explosive first half, the 49ers took a 21-7 lead going into halftime. San Francisco started the second half with a five-play drive, which covered 90 yards, including a Garrison Hearst 71-yard touchdown run. The drive gave the 49ers a commanding 28-7 lead. With just 52 seconds left in the third quarter, Steve Beuerlein connected with Anthony Johnson on a 38-yard touchdown pass to cut the deficit to 28-14. On their first possession of the fourth quarter, the Panthers drove 76 yards in five plays and scored on a Beuerlein-to-Raghib Ismail 40-yard touchdown pass. Minutes later, Carolina tied the game at 28 with a 10-yard run by Tshimanga Biakabutuka. Carolina won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive. The Panthers ran two unsuccessful plays, and Beuerlein fumbled on the third, giving San Francisco possession on Carolina's 30-yard line. The 49ers picked up 25 yards driving to the Panthers five, where Wade Richey hit a 23-yard field goal for the 31-28 victory.

December 26, 1999 - Washington 26, San Francisco 20

The Washington Redskins visited 3Com Park and battled the San Francisco 49ers to their second overtime game in the last three meetings. San Francisco struck first with an 80-yard drive in 13 plays, capped off with a Charlie Garner four-yard touchdown run and a 7-0 lead. Early in the second quarter, Washington answered back with an 80-yard drive of its own, ending with a Brad Johnson-to-Michael Westbrook 65-yard touchdown strike. With a pair of Wade Richey field goals, San Francisco went into halftime with a 13-7 lead. Washington cut the deficit to three after Brett Conway nailed a 47-yard field goal in the third quarter. The 49ers extended their lead to 20-10 with a 78-yard scoring drive that ended on a five-yard touchdown pass from Jeff Garcia to J.J. Stokes. At the beginning of the fourth quarter, Conway connected on a 34-yard field goal to bring the Redskins within seven. Washington then struck again with 3:30 left in the game when Brad Johnson plunged in from one-yard out to tie the game at 20. San Francisco threatened with just over one minute remaining, driving to the Redskins 22-yard line before fumbling, which Washington recovered to force overtime. Washington won the overtime coin toss and promptly moved the ball to the San Francisco 33-yard line in three plays. On first down, Brad Johnson hit Larry Centers for a 33-yard touchdown pass and the 26-20 win.

October 8, 2000 - Oakland 34, San Francisco 28

In a game for the ages, the 49ers fell in overtime to the visitors from across the Bay, the Oakland Raiders. The Raiders jumped out to the early 6-0 lead on two Sebastian Janikowski field goals. The 49ers answered back, scoring 14 unanswered points to close out the first half. The Raiders dominated the third quarter, holding onto the ball for more than 11 minutes and scoring two touchdowns. After another score by the Raiders to start the fourth, the 49ers started their comeback. After a Jeff Garcia-to-Terrell Owens scoring toss and another score on a nine-yard touchdown run by Charlie Garner, San Francisco tied the game at 28. On their next possession, the Raiders drove down to San Francisco's 23-yard line, but on fourth-and-10, Janikowski missed a 41-yard field goal wide left. The 49ers, with a chance to win the game, took possession and moved the ball down to the Oakland 29-yard line. On fourth-and-one, the Raiders defense stiffened and stopped a leaping Charlie Garner for no gain. The Raiders took over on downs, but couldn't get their offense going and were forced to punt back to the 49ers, who ran out the clock and forced the game into overtime. The Raiders won the toss and marched down to the 49ers 25-yard line. Janikowski came on to attempt the game-winning field goal, but missed wide right, his second missed field goal of the day. The 49ers took over and put a drive of their own together, all the way to the Raiders 11-yard line. On first down, Wade Richey attempted the game-winning field goal, but was blocked and possession went back to the Raiders. Following two pass completions and a pass interference call on the 49ers, the Raiders finally put the game away with a 31-yard scoring toss from Rich Gannon to Tim Brown for the win.

October 14, 2001 - San Francisco 37, Atlanta 31

The 49ers had their second overtime game of the 2001 season against the Falcons, sweeping Atlanta in the season series by winning 37-31. The 49ers rallied back from deficits of 20-7 at the half and 31-17 in the fourth quarter. The Falcons went up 14-0 early in the game. The 49ers put their first points of the game on the board in the second quarter when Jeff Garcia capped an 11-play, 80-yard drive with a seven-yard touchdown run. The Falcons answered back with two field goals and went up 20-7 at halftime. San Francisco came back in the second half due to the hands of Terrell Owens. Owens, who did not catch a pass in the first half, roared back to catch nine passes for 183 yards and a career-high three touchdowns. The 49ers scored 10 unanswered points in the third quarter, but Atlanta answered back in the fourth quarter. After a 49ers touchdown, at the hands of Kevan Barlow, and a touchdown by the Falcons, the 49ers were down 31-24 with just 2:22 remaining in the game. Garcia calmly led the team on a 10-play, 72-yard drive when he hooked up with Owens from 17 yards out for his second touchdown of the day. The extra point was good and the game was tied at 31 with just 21 seconds remaining. The 49ers won the toss in overtime and drove to the Falcons 14-yard line. On the sixth play of the drive, a mishandled snap between Garcia and Dave Fiore, who was filling in at center for an injured Jeremy Newberry, was recovered by the Falcons and their offense took over. The 49ers defense rose to the challenge, forcing Atlanta into a three-and-out possession. After the punt, San Francisco began its second overtime drive from its own 33-yard line. After picking up one first down, Garcia faced third-and-five when he connected with Owens, who raced 52 yards up the sideline for his third touchdown and the 37-31 overtime victory.

October 28, 2001 - Chicago 37, San Francisco 31

The 49ers had their second consecutive overtime game and their third of the 2001 season as they dropped a 37-31 decision to the Chicago Bears. San Francisco went up early in the first quarter after Bryant Young forced a fumble, which Julian Peterson scooped up and returned 26 yards for the touchdown. The 49ers struck again when Jeff Garcia hooked up with Justin Swift for a one-yard touchdown and the 14-0 lead. The Bears answered back with a safety and a touchdown, making the score 14-9 at the half. In the third quarter, the 49ers struck first when Garrison Hearst scored his first touchdown since 12-14-98 on a 60-yard bomb from Garcia. The Bears offense then took over and drove down to the 49ers 10-yard line where Zack Bronson intercepted a Shane Matthews pass and returned it a team-record 97 yards for the touchdown. After a Chicago touchdown and a 49ers field goal, the score was 31-16 early in the fourth quarter. The Bears then racked up 15 unanswered points on two touchdown drives to tie the game at 31 and send it into overtime. The 49ers won the coin toss and the offense took over. On the first play from scrimmage, Garcia was intercepted by Mike Brown, who raced 33 yards for the touchdown and the 37-31 victory for Chicago.

November 18, 2001 - San Francisco 25, Carolina 22

In its fourth overtime game of the season, setting a new team-record, the 49ers pulled out an exciting 25-22 victory over the Carolina Panthers. The game was a see-saw battle with each team going back and forth until the fourth quarter. The Panthers went ahead late in the fourth quarter after a Jeff Garcia interception. Wesley Walls scored on a 24-yard pass, but the two-point conversion failed, leaving the Panthers with a slim 19-14 lead. On the next 49ers drive, Garcia was intercepted again, this time deep in 49ers territory. The San Francisco defense held Carolina to only a field goal and the 49ers were down 22-14 with just 1:52 remaining in the game. Garcia started the offense on its own 34-yard line and began the two-minute drill. The 49ers moved down the field to the Panthers seven-yard line, where Garcia threw a fade route to Terrell Owens, who snatched it out of the air with one second remaining on the clock to cut the score to 22-20. Garcia then found Eric Johnson in the end zone for the two-point conversion to send the game into overtime. San Francisco won the coin toss and started its drive at its own 26-yard line. Garcia completed three-of-four passes for 27 yards, including a crucial fourth down conversion, while Garrison Hearst rushed twice for 34 yards to bring the 49ers down to Carolina's nine-yard line. Jose Cortez came on for the game-winning field goal from 26 yards out, splitting the uprights to give the 49ers the 25-22 overtime victory.

November 3, 2002 - San Francisco 23, Oakland 20

The 49ers visited the Oakland Raiders and turned in an exciting performance. Tied at 13 entering the fourth quarter, the game see-sawed back and forth before heading into overtime. San Francisco scored first in the fourth quarter when Jeff Garcia connected with Tai Streets for a three-yard touchdown to take the lead at 20-13. Oakland answered after the ensuing kickoff went out of bounds and the Raiders got the ball at their own 40-yard line. Oakland converted a crucial fourth-and-three play to maintain possession and ended the drive with a 10-yard touchdown run by Charlie Garner with just over six minutes remaining. The 49ers then ate up the clock with an impressive 13-play drive into scoring position, where Jose Cortez missed a 27-yard field goal at the end of regulation to send the game into overtime. The 49ers won the toss and launched another impressive drive, this one 17 plays in length. It was there that Cortez lined up for the game-winning 23-yard field goal that sailed through the uprights. All totaled, the 49ers held onto the ball for the final 30 plays of the game.

November 17, 2002 - San Diego 20, San Francisco 17

In their second overtime game in three weeks, the 49ers dropped a close one to the San Diego Chargers. San Francisco took the early lead, leading 17-7 at the start of the fourth quarter. But the Chargers reeled off 10 unanswered points in the final period to tie the game at 17 to send it into overtime. In overtime, the Chargers won the toss and returned the opening kickoff 39 yards. But the drive stalled there and San Diego was forced to punt. On the ensuing 49ers possession, the offense drove down the field to the San Diego 23-yard line where Jose Cortez's game-winning field goal sailed wide right. The Chargers took over and promptly drive down the field in nine plays where Steve Christie nailed the 40-yard game-winning field goal.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2003

The 49ers extending their NFL regular season scoring streak record beyond 402 consecutive games. San Francisco has not been shutout since October 9, 1977 against Atlanta. Cleveland held the previous scoring streak record with 274 from 1950-71.

The 49ers extending their consecutive home sellout streak. The 49ers enter 2003 having sold out 194 games, including playoffs.

The 49ers having a player selected to the Pro Bowl for the 23rd consecutive year.

The 49ers having a player named to the All-Pro team for the 10th consecutive year.

Zack Bronson moving into the top 10 on the 49ers all-time interceptions list. Entering 2003, Bronson has 18 career interceptions and needs only three to overtake Dick Moegle (20) for 10th place.

Andre Carter becoming only the fourth player in team history to lead the team in sacks for three consecutive years. The only others to do it are Cedrick Hardman (1973-75), Fred Dean (1981-83) and Charles Haley (1986-91).

Derrick Deese extending his streak of 23 games without a sack, including the postseason.

Jeff Garcia becoming only the second quarterback in team history to be voted to the Pro Bowl for four consecutive years.

Jeff Garcia becoming the first quarterback in 49ers history to complete 300 or more passes in four consecutive seasons.

Jeff Garcia throwing his 100th career touchdown pass. Garcia enters the 2003 season with 95 touchdown passes, needing only five to reach 100 for his career.

Jeff Garcia moving into fourth place on the 49ers all-time passing yards list. Garcia enters the 2003 season with 13,704 yards and needs 2,313 passing yards to move into fourth place, passing Y.A. Tittle (16,016) on the all-time list.

Jeff Garcia becoming only the second quarterback in team history to throw 20 or more touchdowns in four consecutive seasons.

Scott Gragg continuing his streak of consecutive games started. Entering 2003 Gragg has started 112 consecutive games, which is first among all active offensive tackles in the NFL.

Garrison Hearst becoming the first player to rush for 1,000 yards four times in a 49ers uniform.

Garrison Hearst becoming the 49ers all-time leader in 100-yard rushing games. Entering 2003, Hearst has 15 100-yard rushing games as a 49er and needs four to surpass Joe Perry (18) for the lead.

Jeremy Newberry becoming only the third center in team history to make three consecutive Pro Bowl appearances.

Terrell Owens becoming the only player other than Jerry Rice in 49ers history to have 1,000-yards receiving in four consecutive seasons.

Terrell Owens breaking Jerry Rice's team record with 1,848 yards receiving.

Terrell Owens succeeding Ken Willard for fourth place and Joe Perry for third place on the 49ers all-time yardage list. Owens enters the 2003 season with 7,623 combined yards (7,470 receiving, 153 rushing) and needs only 616 yards to surpass Willard (8,086 yards) for fourth place and 1,002 yards to surpass Perry (8,624 yards) for third on the 49ers all-time list.

Terrell Owens surpassing Dwight Clark for second place in team history in consecutive games with a reception. Entering 2003, Owens has caught a pass in 100 consecutive games and needs just six games to pass Clark (105).

Terrell Owens moving into sixth place in team history in scoring. Entering 2003, Owens has scored 446 points and needs 15 to move past Bruce Gossett (460).

Terrell Owens making his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl appearance.

Tony Parrish continuing his streak of consecutive games started. Entering 2003, Parrish has started 80 consecutive games, which is second among all active strong safeties in the NFL.

Julian Peterson becoming only the third linebacker in team history to make two consecutive Pro Bowl appearances.

Derek Smith playing in his 100th career game. Entering the 2003 season, Smith has played in 94 games.

Ron Stone making his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl appearance.

Bryant Young becoming the first defensive tackle in team history to be named to the Pro Bowl three years in a row.

Bryant Young moving into third place all-time on the 49ers sack list. Young currently has 63 career sacks and needs only four sacks to pass Charles Haley (66.5) for third on the 49ers all-time list.

Bryant Young making his 500th tackle. He needs just 39 in 2003 to reach 500.

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

A-C Joint - Acromioclavicular joint; joint of the shoulder where acromion process (of the scapula) and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

Abduct - Movement of any extremity away from the body.

Abrasion - Any injury which rubs off the surface of the skin.

Abscess - An infection which produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetrating wound or laceration.

Achilles Tendon - The tendon at the back of the heel.

Abductor - Any muscle which moves a part toward the median axis of the body.

Adhesion - Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.

Aerobic - Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired; required for sustained periods of hard work and vigorous exercise.

Anabolic Steroids - Testosterone, or a steroid hormone resembling testosterone, that stimulates growth in the body as a whole.

Anaerobic - Exercise without the use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercise.

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL) - Ligament of knee attaching to anterior tibial plateau and posterior medial aspect of femoral condyle. It provides stability in keeping the lower leg from coming forward.

Anterior Compartment Syndrome - Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg (comprising of muscles, nerves and arteries to the foot) jeopardizes the viability of the muscles and nerves within the compartment.

Arteriogram - Film demonstrating arteries after injection of opaque medium (dye).

Arthrogram - X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected in affected area (to show torn cartilage or rotator cuff tears).

Arthroscope - An instrument used for visualization of the interior of a joint cavity; sometimes referred to as "scope."

Arthroscopy - Examination of the internal structures of a joint by means of surgical viewing apparatus (arthroscope) inserted into the joint.

Aspiration - The withdrawal of fluids from a body cavity by means of a suction or siphonage apparatus (syringe).

Asymptomatic - Without symptoms.

Atrophy - To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.

Avascular Necrosis - Death of a part due to lack of circulation (can occur in the elbow from throwing).

Avulsion - A tearing away forcibly of a part of structure.

Axilla - The armpit.

Baker's Cyst - Indicates that there is trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive joint-fluid production; inflammation of the gastrocnemius bursa. Usually produces localized swelling behind the knee.

Bennett's Fracture - Fracture dislocation of the base of the first metacarpal (or the thumb).

Biceps - Muscle on the front of the upper arm responsible for bending the elbow.

Bone scan - "Radionuclide Imaging," which is useful to demonstrate stress fracture not evident on routine x-rays.

Brachial Plexus - Network of nerves originating from the cervical vertebrae running down the arm.

Bruise - A discoloration of the skin due to an extravasation of the blood into the underlying tissues.

Burner - Common term for brachial plexus trauma in the neck. Usually results in burning or tingling sensation into the shoulder or arm when the neck is forced beyond the normal range of motion.

Calcaneus - The heel bone.

Calf - Also know as gastrocnemius; muscle responsible for plantarflexing, or pointing the toes down the foot.

Capsule - An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.

Cartilage - Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.

Cellulitis - Inflammation of cellular or connective tissue.

Charley Horse - A bruise to the quadriceps resulting from a direct blow to the front of the thigh, characterized by intramuscular bleeding. No other injury should be called a charley horse.

Chondral Fracture - Fracture to the chondral (cartilaginous) surfaces of bone.

Chondromalacia - A roughening of the cartilage surface. Best known for the roughening of the underside of the kneecap.

Clavicle - The collar bone.

Collagen - A substance existing in commonly injured tissues of the body, including skin, cartilage, ligaments and bone.

Concussion - Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. Can be graded mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Contusion - An injury to the muscles and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Costochondral - The cartilage that separates the bones within the rib cage.

Degenerative Joint Disease - Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma.

Deltoids - Muscles at top of arm, just below shoulder.

Disc - A flat, round-like, plate structure usually referring to cartilage between vertebrae.

Dislocation - Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Echymosis - Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a "black and blue" effect.

Ectomy - Suffix connoting the affected part (e.g. meniscectomy, appendectomy).

Edema - Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body (swelling).

Effusion - Accumulation of fluid, or the fluid itself, in various spaces in the body. Commonly found in the knee following injury.

Electrolyte Drink - Fluid for replacing electrolytes, such as Gatorade Thirst Quencher.

EMG - Electromyogram test to check nerve function.

Epicondylitis - Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse of either the flexor or extensor muscles attaching to the medial or lateral epicondyle of the humerus.

Eversion - Turning outward.

Extension - Motion of straightening a joint.

Extensor - A muscle, which upon contraction, results in straightening a joint.

External Rotation - Lateral movement of a joint or extremity to the outside.

Fascia - A connective tissue sheath consisting of fibrous tissue and fat which unites the skin to the underlying tissues.

Femur - Thigh bone.

Fibula - The smaller of the two bones in the lower leg, located to the outside.

Flexibility - The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch force.

Flexibility Exercise - A general term used to describe exercise performed by a person to passively or actively elongate soft tissues without the assistance of a therapist.

Flexion - Bending a joint, as in flexing the arm or leg.

Flexor - A muscle which upon contraction flexes or bends.

Fracture - Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, encomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress or transverse.

Gamekeeper's Thumb - Tear of the ulnar collateral ligament of the metacarpo-phangeal joint of the thumb.

Glenohumeral - The shoulder socket, containing the glenoid, the humeral head and the labrum.

Glenoid - A cavity of the scapula into which the head of the humerus fits to the form of the shoulder joint (the shoulder socket).

Groin - Junction of the thigh and abdomen.

Hamstring - Muscle running from the buttocks to behind the knee. Often injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility. Muscle responsible for flexing the knee joint.

Heat Stroke - Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat.

Heat Exhaustion - Mild form of shock caused by loss of fluid and electrolyte from the circulation because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat.

Hematoma - A tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.

Hip Pointer - Contusion to the iliac crest.

Humerus - Bone of the upper arm.

Hyperextension - Extreme extension, or straightening, of a limb or body part.

Iliotibial Band - A thick, wide fascial layer from the iliac crest to the knee joint.

Impingement Syndrome - Pinching together of the supraspinatus muscle and other soft tissue in the shoulder, which is common in throwing.

Isokinetic Exercise - A form of active resistive exercise in which the speed of movement of the limb is controlled by a pre-set rate-limiting device, such as Cybex, Biodex, etc.

Isometric (static) Contraction - A muscle contraction in which tension is developed but no mechanical work is done. There is not appreciable joint movement and the overall length of the muscle remains the same.

Isokinetic - A constant speed and consistent resistance exercise.

Isotonic (dynamic) Contraction - A concentric or eccentric muscular contraction that results in movement of a joint or body part (lifting a free weight).

Itis - Suffix connoting inflammation (e.g. tendinitis, bursitis).

Joint Mobilization - Passive traction and/or gliding movements applied to joint surfaces that maintain or restore the joint play normally allowed by the capsule, so that the normal roll-slide joint mechanic can occur as a person moves.

Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL) - Ligament of knee attaching lateral femoral condyle to the fibula head. It provides lateral stability to the knee.

Ligament - Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Lumbosacral - Region of low back comprised of lumbar and sacral spine.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) - Provides highly detailed pictures of the body's interior, using highly magnetic fields. MRI does not require radiation.

Malleolus - Rounded projections on either side of the ankle joint.

Medial - Pertaining to or near the middle.

Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL) - Ligament of knee attaching to medial femoral condyle to medial tibia. It provides medial stability to the knee.

Meniscectomy - An intra-articular procedure at the knee by which meniscus (fibrocartilage) is removed surgically.

Metatarsals - Five long bones of foot, just below toes.

Myositis - Inflammation of a muscle.

Myositis Ossificans - Inflammation in muscle resulting in the formation of bone-like substance.

Necrotic - Relating to death of a portion of tissue.

Neuritis - Inflammation of a nerve.

Orthotic - Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.

Osteochondritis Dissecans - A piece of bone and/or cartilage loosened from its attachment after trauma as a cause of a lesion.

Osteomyelitis - An inflammatory disease of bone caused usually by infection with streptococcus or staphylococcus.

Parasthesia - Sensation of numbness or tingling, indicating nerve irritation.

Patella - The kneecap.

Patella Tendinitis - Inflammation of the patella tendon.

Pathology - Study of the nature and cause of disease.

Pectorals - Chest muscles beneath the breast, leading up to shoulder.

Peroneal - Muscles of the lateral lower leg responsible for everting the foot.

Plantar Fascia - The tight band of muscle beneath the arch of the foot.

Plica - A fold of tissue in the joint capsule and a common result of knee injury.

PNF (Proprioceptive Neuromuscular Facilitation) - An approach to therapeutic exercise based on the principles of functional human anatomy and neurophysiology.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL) - Ligament of the knee attaching to posterior tibial plateau and anterior lateral aspect of femoral condyle. It provides stability in keeping the lower leg from going backward.

Quadriceps (Quads) - The four powerful muscles in the front of the thigh, responsible for extending the knee joint.

Radiography - Taking of X-rays.

Radius - Forearm bone on thumb side.

Reconstruction - Surgical rebuilding of an injured joint.

Rotator cuff - Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area: supraspinatus, infraspinatus, teres minor, and subscapularis. Often irritated by overuse.

Sacroiliac - Relating to the juncture of the hip bone and lower part of the spine.

Scan - Injection of radioactive fluid (equal in radioactivity to about one x-ray) which may then be displayed on a computer/monitor or film (e.g. bone scan).

Scapula - The shoulder blade.

Sciatic Nerve - Largest nerve in body located in back of leg which controls most of its function.

Sciatica - Irritation of the sciatic nerve, resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.

Sesamoid Bones - Lies within and adds strength to tendons as they cover bony surface. The most commonly known is the kneecap.

Shin splint - A catch-all syndrome describing pain either in the front of the lower leg or on the inner aspect of the leg.

Spasm - Sudden, violent, involuntary contraction of a muscle.

Spleen - Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells.

Spondylolisthesis - Forward displacement of one lumbar vertebra.

Spondylosis - Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility.

Sprain - A joint injury. A violent twisting, stretching, pulling or tearing of a ligament.

Stinger - Common term for brachial plexus trauma in the neck.

Strain - A muscle injury. The stretching, pulling or twisting of a muscle or tendon.

Stress X-Ray - A continual x-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum to see if the ligaments are intact.

Stress Fracture - A hair-line type of break in bone caused by overuse.

Stretching - Any therapeutic maneuver designed to lengthen (elongate) pathologically shortened soft-tissue structures and thereby increase range of motion.

Subluxation - Partial dislocation of a joint. Term usually implies that joint can return to normal position without formal reduction.

Synovial Fluid - Lubricating fluid for joints and tendons, produced in synovium, or inner lining of the joint.

Synovitis - Inflammation of the synovium.

Tarsus - Arch of foot.

Tendinitis - Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, often caused by chronic overuse and/or sudden injury.

Tendon - Fibrous tissue that connects muscles to other structures.

Tibia - Larger of the two bones in lower leg; weight-bearing bone.

Tomograph - A special type of x-ray apparatus that demonstrates the organ or tissue is a particular depth.

Trachea - The windpipe.

Trapezius - A flat triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.

Triceps - Muscle of the posterior upper arm, opposite the biceps, that extends the elbow.

Turf Toe - Sprain of the metatarsophalangeal (MTP) joint of the great toe.

Ulna - One of two bones in forearm; extends from point of elbow and found on outer (little finger) side.

Ulnar Nerve - Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing or repeated trauma.

Wrist - The junction between the two forearm bones (radius and ulna) and the eight wrist bones (trapezium, trapezoid, capitate, hamate, pisiform, triquetral, lunate and scaphoid).

C Jeremy Newberry and G Ron Stone anchored the 49ers offensive line and made the Pro Bowl in 2002.

TOUGHING IT OUT

Tony Parrish has shown he has the ability to play with pain. Against Dallas (12-8-02), Parrish eclipsed his career-high with his fourth and fifth interceptions of the season. The achievement was remarkable because he accomplished the feat while playing with a dislocated right elbow that he suffered the previous week against Seattle (12-1-02). He recorded a total of four interceptions after dislocating the elbow.

FIRST AND BEASLEY

In 2002, Beasley made a first down on 15-of-26 carries during the regular season and was especially effective in short-yardage situations. Beasley converted 15-of-17 short yardage runs into first downs last season. He was 3-3 on second and short, 10-11 on third and short and 2-2 on fourth and short. He made eight first downs on 22 receptions, including 3-for-3 on third and three yards or less.

COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AGREEMENT TERMS

ACCRUED SEASON

A player receives one accrued season when he is on full pay status for a total of six or more regular season games. This does not include players placed on the Exempt Commissioner Permission list, the Reserve PUP list as a result of a non-football injury, or the practice squad.

RESTRICTED FREE AGENT

Any veteran player with less than four accrued seasons in a capped year is considered a restricted free agent at the expiration of his player contract. Any such player is free to negotiate and sign with any team, but is restricted under the terms of the Collective Bargaining Agreement. In order to receive right of first refusal and/or draft choice compensation the prior club must tender the player a qualifying offer on or before the first date of the restricted free agent signing period.

UNRESTRICTED FREE AGENT

Any player with four or more accrued seasons in a capped year becomes an unrestricted free agent at the expiration of his player contract. Any such player is completely free to negotiate and sign a player contract with any team.

EXCLUSIVE RIGHTS FREE AGENT

Any player with less than three accrued seasons in a capped year whose contract has expired may negotiate or sign a player contract only with his prior club, if his prior club tenders the player at least a one-year contract at or above the minimum salary applicable to that player. If the prior club does not make or withdraws the required tender by that date, the player is free to negotiate and sign a contract with any club.

FRANCHISE PLAYER

Each team is permitted to designate one of its players, who would otherwise be an unrestricted free agent, as a franchise player. The designation restricts the player from negotiating or signing a contract with another club. The designation will remain with that player for the duration of the contract signed. It may be removed by the club at the conclusion of the contract. Franchise players are guaranteed at least a one-year NFL player contract for the average of the five largest prior year salaries for players at the position the designated player played the most games the prior league year, or 120 percent of his prior year salary, whichever is greater.

TRANSITION PLAYER

Each team is permitted to designate one of its players, who would otherwise be an unrestricted free agent, as a transition player. The player is free to negotiate and sign a player contract with any club, but the designation gives the prior club right of first refusal on any contract the player signs. Transition players are guaranteed at least a one-year NFL player contract for the average of the 10 largest prior year salaries for players at the position the designated player played the most games the prior league year, or 120 percent of his prior year salary, whichever is greater.

OFFER SHEET

When a restricted free agent receives and agrees to an offer to sign a player contract from another NFL club, the player must submit a certificate which contains the principal terms of the contract (offer sheet) to the prior team. The prior club has seven days from the time it receives the offer sheet to exercise or not exercise its right of first refusal.

PHYSICALLY UNABLE TO PERFORM (PUP)

Players placed on Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform may attend team meetings, but are ineligible for all games and all practice sessions. Players on the PUP list are allowed to begin practicing with the team after the conclusion of the sixth regular season weekend and continuing after the conclusion of the ninth regular season weekend. The practice period is not to exceed 21 days. Any time during that 21-day period, teams are allowed to restore the player to the Reserve/PUP list or to the active roster.

MINI-CAMPS

Each team is allowed to hold one mandatory mini-camp for veteran players. If a team hires a new head coach it is allowed to hold two additional voluntary mini-camps for veteran players. There is no limitation on the number of mini-camps a club may hold for rookie players. Each mini-camp can be three days in length and no pads, excluding helmets, are allowed.

TRAINING CAMP

No veteran player, other than quarterbacks and injured players, will be required to report to a team's official training camp earlier than 15 days prior to the first scheduled preseason game or July 15, whichever is later. The July 15 date does not apply to teams participating in the Hall of Fame Game or any American Bowl game.

ACTIVE LIST

Each club is allowed to carry no more than 53 players on its active roster during the season. For each regular season game, the active list limit is 45 players per team. If a team carries the full squad limit of 53 players, it has to place eight players on the inactive list prior to each game.

PRACTICE SQUAD

Each team is allowed to establish a practice squad of no more than five players on the Monday after the final roster cutdown. Players who have served more than one season on the practice squad or have one accrued season of free agent credit are not eligible for the practice squad. A player who gained his one season of accrued free agent credit while being on the Reserve/Injured or Reserve/PUP list for an entire season is eligible for the practice squad.

CB/KR Jimmy Williams became the primary kick returner in 2002 and led the league in punt return average and returned his first career punt return for a touchdown vs. Seattle.

BACK FROM HIATUS

Dennis Erickson's return to the NFL sidelines after one or more years is not unusual. In the past 10 years, 15 head coaches (Dick Vermeil returned twice) have returned after spending at least one season away from professional football. Four of those coaches (Belichick, Parcells, Shanahan, Vermeil) led their teams to Super Bowls in their returns and three of them won the Super Bowl (Belichick, Shanahan, Vermeil).

TRAINING CAMP

This season the 49ers move their training camp to their Santa Clara training facility. This is the first time in team history that the 49ers will hold their camp at the same place they train during the regular season. Since the practices will be closed to the public, there will be two practices held at facilities around the Bay Area so that fans can come out to watch the team. One practice will be held Saturday, August 2 at San Jose State's Spartan Stadium. The other will be held at the 49ers first home, Kezar Stadium in San Francisco. That practice will be held Monday, August 25.

Location: Marie P. DeBartolo Sports Centre
4949 Centennial Blvd.
Santa Clara, CA 95054

Camp Dates: July 25 through August 28

Reporting Dates: Entire team reports July 25

Camp Facts: The San Francisco 49ers will open training camp in its eighth location when the entire team reports to Santa Clara, CA on July 25, 2003. Prior to this season, the 49ers spent the previous five years (1998-02) at the University of the Pacific in Stockton, CA. Prior to that, the team spent 17 years (1981-97) at Sierra College in Rocklin, CA before making the move to the University of the Pacific. The 17-year Rocklin stint tops the 13-year stay (1955-67) at St. Mary's College in Moraga, CA as the longest training camp visit in team history. San Francisco has trained at Menlo College (1946-54), UC Santa Barbara (1968-75), San Jose State (1976-78) and Santa Clara (1979-80).

Public Practices: Saturday, August 2

MEDIA SERVICES

Interview Requests: All interview requests for 49ers players, coaches or members of the administration should be made through the 49ers public relations department. Head coach Dennis Erickson will hold his weekly press luncheon during the season, Monday at noon. He will be available to the media after practice Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, and following each game throughout the season. The locker room will be open for player interviews Monday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday after practice.

Practice Policy: 49ers practices are open to local media only. Visiting and national media will not be permitted to attend practice. Photographers will be allowed to shoot up to and including stretching exercises.

Credential Requests: All home game credential requests must be submitted in writing on letterhead to Kirk Reynolds or Cindy Krawczyk no later than Tuesday before the requested game. Media members applying for credentials must call the 49ers public relations department beginning Thursday after 10 a.m. to verify approval. Credentials will be left at Press Will Call Gate B on game day. Two forms of identification will be required to pick up credentials.

Phone Lines: To order phone lines for 49ers home games, members of the media must call 800-339-3204 (newspapers) or 800-400-6990 (radio & TV) and request service to the minimum point of entry. Then call Curly Hardy at 415-804-0669 to finalize the service.
